Lions tame Crows

The Brisbane Lions have proved too strong for Adelaide defeating the Crows by 36 points Saturday night at Adelaide Oval.

The Lions started strongly but the Crows responded to the early onslaught to only trail by 13 points at quarter time.

The second term saw Adelaide play some of their best football of the year kicking four goals to open a 15-point lead before a couple of late Brisbane goals pegged the margin back to three points at the main break.

Unfortunately for Adelaide the second half was all Brisbane with the Lions booting nine goals to two to record a comfortable victory.

Jackson Hatley was a shining light for the Crows. The former Giant played arguably his best game at AFL level collecting 27 disposals, four clearances along with eight score involvements.

James Rowe recalled to the starting line-up kicked a goal and gathered 23 disposals, his highest disposal tally at AFL level.

For the first time this year the goal kicking radar was off for Taylor Walker who finished with 1.4. Shane McAdam the pick of the forwards kicking three goals. McAdam has now kicked multiple goals in five out of six games this year.

Adelaide made a host of changes for this match. The omission of Reilly O'Brien perhaps the highest profile provided an opportunity for Kieran Strachan in ruck.

Strachan competed strongly despite not getting a heap of the ball. Clearance numbers for both sides were similar (42-45) Assistant Coach Scott Burns has hinted that Strachan will be given a few more games at Senior level to prove his worth.

The second half was certainly disappointing for Adelaide and Matthew Nicks reflected on this in the post-game conference. "We weren't quite tough enough in that third quarter. We had our chances over the ball. We just dropped off a little bit"

The Crows are back at home Saturday night to face St Kilda who will be up and about after an impressive win over Geelong last week.

MY TIP- St Kilda 11 points

May the Fourth win in the trot be with the Power

Port Adelaide Power took another step forward in its quest for a top-eight finals berth after a 17.13 (115) to 6.10 (46) win against a hapless North Melbourne Kangaroos at Hobart's Blundstone Arena on Saturday afternoon.

The Power set up its 69-point win after an opening quarter six-goal burst and despite the Roos matching its opponents in the middle quarters, Port powered on in the final term with seven goals.

Tall forwards Todd Marshall, Mitch Georgiades and Jeremy Finlayson combined for eight goals while stand-in captain Ollie Wines booted two himself to go with 32 possessions and being back to his 2021 Brownlow Medal winning ways.

Sam Powell-Pepper continued on his career-best year to date with stints in the ruck and a presence in, around, under and out of the packs.

Connor Rozee's rich vein of midfield form rolled on with another 20-plus touches in a role where his ability to sprint away from the contest, ball in hand, is Chris Judd-like and Karl Amon provided run and his deep left-foot kicking was a feature.

The Power's forward line function was impressive where a 'horse-shoe' pattern emerged whereby a hole was left on offer for any of the six forwards to lead into.

Sure, it was 'only North Melbourne, but this forward line strategy will be watched with interest, especially against the better teams such as Geelong Cats this Saturday afternoon at GMHBA Stadium.

Port coach Ken Hinkley said his team are in much better form as opposed to the one that struggled to an 0-5 start.

"(We've been) incredibly resilient, by how we've stuck at it," coach Ken Hinkley said. "We believed we could still turn things around. We're certainly not solved but we're better than we were. "We didn't get distracted by the ladder, which was hard not to because it said zero and five."

Crows to swoop on Eagles

Welcome to Round 7 of SANFL footy. We kick off with a Friday night Double Header. This fixture is certainly the match of the round with two top five teams on display. I also want to acknowledge the performance of the SANFL state team last week, a wonderful win against Western Australia in Perth. Congratulations to Jade Sheedy and SA Captain Liam Mc Bean.

by Nick Smith

Both the Eagles and Crows are coming of strong victories a fortnight ago. The Crows to care of the Bloods and the Eagles defeated the Magpies at Alberton. This weekend's Crows team will keep the Eagles guessing right up until selection night.

Riley O'Brien was dropped from the Crows AFL match against Brisbane, Matt Crouch couldn't earn a recall, and Riley Thilthorpe is out of COVID protocols and will need as much match practice as possible. Will all three line up on Friday night?

The Eagles continue their good form particularly Ken Farmer Medal leader Daniel Menzel. Menzel has 22 goals from 6 games including 4 against the Magpies in round 6. Menzel will this week again, be a real focal point in the forward line. Eagles team mate Connor Ballenden has taken a season high 13 contested marks from 5 games. The Eagles are playing some strong football but a high scoring Adelaide team will want to continue their best form ever seen in the SANFL competition.

The Crows have a percentage of just over 58, the second best in the competition. This is a great reflection of their scoring ability. They are coming of 19 goals against the Bloods and have won their last 3 games. Josh Smithson kicked four goals straight and had great support from Josh Worrall and Tarek Newchurch with 2 goals each.

The Crows disposal efficiency was an impressive 77% last week whilst the Eagles managed to reach 71% efficiency. The 6% difference may not seem a lot, however it can be the difference between winning and losing.

The Crows will have plenty of AFL listed talent playing on Friday night, it will be hard for the Eagles to shut down an AFL quality midfield, and with the quality forwards, the Crows will be too strong.

MY TIP: Crows by 25-36 points

Port stay in touch with big win over the Bloods

After a week off due to the state game in Western Australia, the SANFL is back for round 7. The round ends on Sunday with an intriguing clash between West Adelaide and Port Adelaide, two sides desperate to get their seasons rolling. West Adelaide is yet to register a win; however, this game presents as their best opportunity for some time, in regard to ladder position anyway. Port Adelaide aren't doing much better, only recording one win so far this season which was against Glenelg in round 5 and are coming off a loss to Woodville-West Torrens.

by
Oliver Alyanak

West Adelaide are coming off three big losses in a row, with the most recent one coming in the form of a 54 point loss to Adelaide. West Adelaide started relatively well, trailing by 2 goals at quarter time. They were blown away in the second term though, with Adelaide kicking 8 goals to West Adelaide's 1 behind. By this point the game was well and truly over and the margin stagnated around the 60-point range for the rest of the game. Adelaide was dominant in the ruck, with Kieran Strachan winning a whopping 56 hit outs, however, this didn't translate into clearance domination as you might expect. West Adelaide only lost that count by 4 which in theory should have given them every opportunity to make the game tighter than it was. Adelaide was just far more efficient when the ball was inside 50 and managed to score nearly 60% of the time they went forward. Josh Carmichael was the best on ground for West Adelaide and arguably best on ground full stop with 34 disposals, 2 goals and 163 ranking points. 6 other West Adelaide players had over 20 disposals, leading to them actually having more disposals than Adelaide in total. Matthew McKenzie and Kobe Ryan also chipped in on the scoreboard with 2 goals each.

Port Adelaide on-the-other-hand are coming off a 26-point loss to the Eagles. Similarly to West Adelaide, Port started well and actually lead at half time before a scoreless 3rd quarter left them on the back foot and Woodville-West Torrens ran over the top for an easy win. The Magpies had more clearances but couldn't translate that into an inside 50s advantage with the Eagles winning that stat comfortably, therefore being able to create for chances. Pick number 56 in last year's AFL Draft, Dante Visentini continues his rise from general obscurity with a great day out, recording 25 hit outs and 9 tackles. Ethan Moore led Port's ball winners with 25 disposals, while Lachie Jones wasn't far behind with 24, earning him an AFL recall. Jake Weidemann and Dylan Williams both kicked 2 goals and in great news for Port fans, Charlie Dixon returned and kicked a goal. More importantly, however, he got through unscathed, and you wouldn't expect to see him back in the SANFL this week against West Adelaide.

In recent history Port Adelaide have had the wood over West Adelaide, winning 4 of the last 5 encounters. Their most recent meeting saw a tight game which basically saw Port lead by 2-3 goals for the entire match before ending up winning by 13 points. Xavier Duursma was best on that day with 27 disposals and 2 goals, while Tom Keough booted 4 goals for West Adelaide. Port Adelaide are just starting to get some AFL standard talent back into their AFL side from injury which means that subsequently their SANFL side also gets stronger due to good players being dropped unluckily. Expect Port Adelaide to bounce back here with a good win and to continue West Adelaide's horrid start to season 2022.

GOD'S HILL WINES

Dogs in the Doghouse

Norwood will play Central Districts this week at Coopers stadium. One team with one win, while the other with a mere two victories, the match is expected to be a mediocre display of skill. Centrals sit 9th on the ladder, whereas Norwood are perched at 7th, after they lost their last two matches. The Dogs have begun their season in a similar fashion to last year, where they also won only one of their first six clashes. Comparatively, Norwood have slipped from finishing third last year. As such, both sides will want to redeem themselves this week.

by William McShane

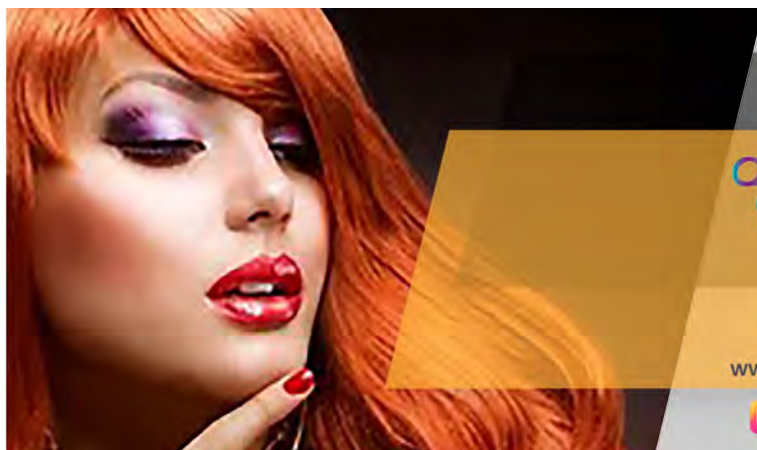

Redlegs coach Jade Rawlings would have enjoyed a week off to de-stress and work on technical changes in the break. Rawlings has had several coach killer moments this year, as his side continually find themselves in enthralling contests. Norwood's record is currently 2-4. However, their average loss margin is 12.75. Therefore, their win-loss record is not necessarily a reflection of the quality of football they are playing. In the Redlegs most recent contest against South Adelaide, they lost by 6-points, after leading at half-time. As per usual, Norwood won the key statistics including, disposals, clearances, disposal efficiency, marks, tackles and inside 50's. Yet, they were outscored. They failed to win the crucial moments in the game, which is a staple of quality sides. While fans believe Norwood can beat the best sides in the competition, they are currently lacking the composure of a top 5 team. Consider Hawthorn in their glory era between 2013-15. Who was a bad ball user in the key moments of a game? Who fumbled the ball in front of goal? Who did not seize their opportunity when the team required it off them? No one! Spectators rarely saw the stalwarts of that side make a mistake at a pivotal stage, and as such Hawthorn enjoyed the success of three premierships. As it stands, this is the barrier between Norwood finishing first, or them being an inconsistent, mediocre team. In their first 6 rounds the Redlegs have not lost a disposal count. They have also won inside 50's, clearances, marks, disposal efficiency and tackles five of the six weeks. This week provides this side with a mammoth opportunity against the bottom feeding Dogs to prove themselves in the competition.

Conversely, the Dogs have been underwhelming. In their first 6 clashes, the Dogs have scrapped one win, against a formidable West Adelaide. Centrals come into the match after a 98-point loss against Sturt. In contrast to Norwood, Centrals average losing margin is a 44.2. This lack of game changing players was reflected in the State selection, as Centrals were the only club (excluding Port Adelaide and Adelaide) to have no representatives. To generate success this weekend, Centrals will need to increase their pressure around the ground. In round 6, Centrals conceded 128 marks. They will need to rectify this, as efficient sides can then slice through their defence and mitigate the effectiveness of their zoning and structures. Further, they have conceded the second most points in the competition. The average score against Centrals is 98.6. Last season, the average winning score was between 68 and 73, therefore the Dogs defence need to hold themselves more accountable. However, this proficiency in scoring also comes from opposition midfields as centrals have only won the clearances once this season. This is allowing teams to easily score against them and limit the opportunities for their forwards.

As a result, if the Dogs can make such changes to their playing style, they will upset the Redlegs. Unfortunately, the issues at Centrals are primarily systematic and not issues easily rectified. Comparatively, if Norwood can win the key moments in the game and stay composed, they will find their third win of the season.

Norwood by 36-48.

The Roosters will come home to roost

This Saturday afternoon the North Adelaide Roosters will host Sturt at Prospect Oval and the contest is expected to be lauded a classic clash of quality football and this fixture will most definitely be the one that the SANFL faithful will be paying close attention to in this seventh round.

by William Clemente

After a topsy turvy first couple of rounds for The Double Blues, they are spreading their wings and flocking at full speed as they are playing footy on their terms, dominating the early stages of the season. They have one their last four games, and they would be more than eager to continue their winning streak and make it a fifth victory on the trot. However, this will most definitely be the most challenging fixture of the season thus far for The Double Blues as they have to face up against a side who are also excelling and playing a remarkable brand of football. And to add to the challenge they must compete against the Roosters on the road.

Like The Double Blues, North Adelaide have been in impeccable condition, playing blissfully and winning comfortable. They too have won their last four fixtures and like Sturt they want to extend it, however; they will be putting on their jerseys and fronting up against a quality Sturt side in front of their faithful at Prospect Oval. North Adelaide supporters will support them to the very last siren which will provide them with a boosted advantage and also Prospect Oval has been a happy hunting ground for them, solidifying its reputation as one of the feared fortress' of the SANFL competition.

The Double Blues pretty much had an extended training session in the fifth round as their walloped a struggling Central Districts side that is bellowing in the second to last position on the table. In a 98-point victory, Sturt dominated from the very first bounce to the final siren and they didn't allow The Dogs to retaliate fiercely. Abe Davis continued his excellent goal kicking form being their most significant contributor to the scoreboard with four goals. Joshua Hone and James Richards also kicked three goals each, reminding the Central's defenders that it was a game for them to learn from for future success.

North Adelaide were also victorious last round, but unlike Sturt their victory was nail-biting and emphatic as the defeated a quality Glenelg outfit and Prospect Oval by two-points. It was an arm-wrestle, a superb display of hard, competitive footy and The Roosters demonstrated their resilience as The Tigers lead comfortably in the early quarters. They fought back and pulled off their victory of the season thus far which was a Sunday treat for Rooster followers. Roosters' forward, Keenan Ramsey slotted five straight through the big sticks and Aaron Young kicked three goals. North Adelaide midfielder, Harrison Wigg had a day-out, earning best on ground honours, notching a whopping 45 disposals, and grabbing ten solid marks.

Saturday afternoon will be the contest of the seventh round, and we are destined to see a tight contest that will conclude in dramatic fashion. Both sides are in red-hot form, but The Roosters have my pick after their victory last week against Glenelg and the home-ground advantage. Even though The Double Blues gave Centrals a hiding last week, they'll come into the contest with cold feet and a degree of complacency. The Roosters will be ready to go, scrap and fight as they showcased this last week. It will be the game to watch and whoever is victorious will certify their premiership credentials. The Roosters will come home to roost.
