Missed opportunity for wasteful Crows

St Kilda has proven to strong for Adelaide running over the top of the Crows booting eight last quarter goals to record a 21-point victory last Saturday night at Adelaide Oval.

For much of the game Adelaide did plenty right and generated plenty of chances to win the game but poor conversion kept the door ajar for the Saints who despite four less scoring shots finished with 14.6 to 9.15.

The work rate and effort cannot be questioned but critical turnovers and missed chances are costing Adelaide badly who have now lost four consecutive games.

Many of the key indicators were close looking at disposals, contested ball and inside 50s. The Crows won clearances, but the undersized Adelaide defence had no answer for the towering Max King who finished with six goals.

Brodie Smith and Ben Keays were the major ball winners, but Jordan Dawson was probably best for the Crows gathering 22 disposals and kicking two goals. In only game four Jake Soligo showed he has a bright future. The midfielder managed 19 disposals, five score involvements and kicked an important goal.

Another impressive performance from the Adelaide SANFL team should see several players put their hand up for selection. Most notably Matt Crouch and Reilly O'Brien who was the best player on the field.

Jordon Butts has come out of covid protocols and should also be available for selection. Darcy Fogarty one player who will probably be feeling nervous about his position in the side. Since returning to the senior team the forward has failed to kick a goal in the last fortnight and only had nine and six disposal matches.

Matthew Nicks after the game was disappointed but certainly remained upbeat things will turn around. "We're not here to lose, but in saying that I was really positive with our group because we ticked 10 or 12 boxes of things we got right. "We know what to work on and we're already working on that, we're already putting the hours in, and we know that it will turn quickly"

Next up, the Cats at GMHBA Stadium.

Port wilt to Pussy Pressure

Port Adelaide Power's status as a legitimate top-eight contender took a hit against Geelong Cats at GMHBA Stadium in a 11.16 (82) to 7.5 (47) loss.

The Power missed a massive opportunity to cash in during the second quarter but just held a one-point lead at half time.

Port started brightly with the first two goals of the game and Kane Farrell was looking dangerous as a high half forward.

However, as the game wore on, Geelong smashed Port in contested possessions despite the Cats not having genuine ruckman Rhys Stanley.

While Port Adelaide ruckman Sam Hayes was doing well in the hit-out stakes, it were the Cats' midfielders, led by Cam Guthrie, with 37 possessions and emerging Brandon Parfitt (25 touches), who thrived in this Sir Doug Nicholls Round.

Dan Houston was by far Port's best with his sure handedness and intercept marks across halfback while captain Tom Jonas and fellow key defender Tom Clurey had their moments in defence.

Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines had the ball 29 times and took seven marks but was not as influential as in previous weeks.

Geelong's Jeremy Cameron, who was brilliant in the second half, struck a huge screw punt for his second goal from close to 55-metres out on the three-quarter-time siren.

Despite Robbie Gray's second major to start the final quarter, it was all the Cats as Tyson Stengle nailed his third and Tom Hawkins drilled his second to the adulation of the adoring Cats home crowd.

Power coach Ken Hinkley said the Cats looked the better side overall.

However he also kept a positive light in that the best is yet to come.

"You reflect on the whole game and see that Geelong were the more solid team out there," Hinkley said. "They were better around the ball and stronger in the contest. We weren't able to combat that. "In the last four weeks we've got some wins we needed but the reality is we weren't good enough today. "I certainly believe our best footy is coming, but against Geelong we certainly didn't see much of our best footy."

Port host Essendon next Sunday in a twilight game at Adelaide Oval.

Crows to continue winning run

We are back at Coppers Stadium to kick off Round 8 with a Friday night special between the Redlegs and the Crows.

Both sides recorded comfortable wins last week with Norwood taking care of the Bulldogs, and the Crows winning the very first game under lights, played at Woodville Oval.

Norwood's 21-point victory last week, was on the back of some really hard work from their quality midfielders. Matthew Nunn and ruckman Harry Boyd were very impressive as always. Young un Baynen Lowe was magnificent with 4 goals which proved to be the difference between the two sides.

Jade Rawlings will be pleased with the victory and the only concern from the match was the injury to Cam Taheny. No doubt he will be assessed during the week with the hope he can line up on Friday night.

The Crows were dominant against the Eagles for all four quarters. Despite Daniel Menzel kicking 5 majors, the Crows were able to share the goal kicking load with 4 players scoring multiple goals. This is what makes of season 2022 so dangerous. Riley O'Brien played his first game back in the SANFL are being dropped after the Carlton loss a fortnight ago. What a game he played. When was the last time a ruckman collected 35 disposals?

O'Brien was superb and may be considered for a recall to the AFL side, who travel to Geelong on Saturday. Matt Crouch put a second consecutive strong performances on display. Both players will be discussed by Matthew Nicks for senior selection this week. Tarek Newchuch continues to show his value as a small pacey forward by kicking two goals. His pace is a feature that can't be ignored for much longer with senior selection just around the corner.

Despite the constant changing of the Crows SANFL side, they continue to find ways to win and this is reflective of only two senior players on the long-term injury list. They have multiple avenues to goal and apart from a second half fight back by Glenelg, they haven't been troubled by any side.

For me they are the flag favourites as we approach the half way mark of the season.

Sturt bounce back in tight tussle with Eagles

Round 8 of the SANFL season finishes with what looks to be a mouth-watering clash between Sturt and Woodville-West Torrens at Unley Oval. Sturt have started the season off in great fashion with a 5-2 record while reigning premiers, the Eagles, are 4-3. This game has big implications for the ladder with the Eagles potentially dropping out of the top 5 with a loss. A Sturt win will also stamp their authority as a genuine contender in season 2022. Both sides are coming off losses with Sturt going down by 46 points against flag favourites, North Adelaide while the Eagles went down by 33-point against another flag fancy in Adelaide.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Against North Adelaide, Sturt started really well and lead by 2 goals at the first change. After that, however, it was one way traffic and North led by 4 goals for the next 2 quarters until they ran away with it in the last. North Adelaide dominated clearances all day which led to them winning inside 50s by over 20 which was never going to end well for the Double Blues. Sturt kept themselves in it during the middle stages of the game by kicking straight but once the heat went out of it in the last quarter North kicked a few easy ones to blow the margin out a little bit. James Battersby was good as usual with 30 disposals and 7 tackles while Casey Voss continued the form he produced in the State Game with 29 disposals and continues to emerge as a potential mid-season AFL draftee. Up forward, Abe Davis looked potent with 4 goals along with Josh Hone who kicked 3.

Woodville-West Torrens, on-the-other hand, looked like they were getting their season started with wins against Central Districts and Port Adelaide, before eventually going down by 33-points to Adelaide last week. Adelaide led by over 20 points for most of the first 3 quarters before the Eagles just about had the game squared at 3 quarter time. It turned out that they had used all of their petrol tickets trying to get the game back to level as Adelaide ran away with it in the last kicking five goals to Eagles' zero. It was a good effort to get the game as close as they did in the 3rd quarter without a SANFL standard recognised ruckman. Reilly O'Brien, Adelaide's AFL standard ruckman, ran an absolute muck because of this finishing with ridiculous numbers. He managed 37 disposals, 1 goal, 11 marks, 42 hitouts, 13 clearances and 180 ranking points. Due to this domination around stoppages the Eagles were just trying to stay afloat the whole game. In the end Adelaide kicked 15.16 compared to the Eagles' 11.7 which shows that it could have been a lot worse for Woodville-West Torrens if Adelaide weren't so inaccurate. Riley Knight was good against his old side with 27 disposals while Daniel Menzel bagged 5 goals up front.

Over the past few years these 2 sides have played in some tight contests. The Eagles have won 3 of the last 5, however Sturt will see themselves as a massive chance to even that up this week. Last time these sides played was in round 18 last year where the Eagles won by 10 points at Unley Oval. Now Gold Coast Sun, James Tsitas had a day out with 42 disposals while Abe Davis was dominant for Sturt with 3 goals and 25 disposals. If Woodville-West Torrens can't find a quick fix for their ruck and stoppage issues then this game is Sturt's to lose.

Robust Roosters Roar

Port Adelaide will host North Adelaide this week, in an intriguing contest. The Power sit seventh, while the Roosters are second in relative comfort. For Port Adelaide this contest is crucial in the context of their season, as they are two games outside the top five. As such, if they lose this game, they ultimately establish themselves as a bottom of the table side. Comparatively, the Roosters are second, caressed out of first position only by percentage. However, this match is irrefutably a danger game for the Roosters, as satisfaction and comfortability are two traits all sides possess before an upset.

by William McShane

North Adelaide has begun the season in impressive fashion. They signaled their premiership intentions early, when they defeated the reigning premiers in round one. Since this notorious moment, they have played like a train with no brakes steamrolling sides. The Roosters only loss came against a top of the table Adelaide outfit, in round 2. Coach, Jacob Surjan's, recipe to success has been his midfield dominance. Surjan has a combination of A-list players at his disposal including Young, Wigg, Harvey, Spina and the Combe brothers. North Adelaide has not lost clearances once this season. Similarly, they have only lost inside 50 entries once. This highlights the direct correlation between such midfield dominance and the Roosters ability to apply scoreboard pressure. Further, in the last three weeks, North Adelaide have won disposals, tackles and scored efficiently. North Adelaide is the second highest team for points for in the competition. Surjan relies on a contested game, so his midfield can surge the ball forward. This midfield ascendancy has been led by Magarey medalist, Cambell Combe and his counter parts, Harrison Wigg and Aarong Young. Collectively these three average 18.2 clearances. Therefore, Port Adelaide need to exploit North's inability to play controlled football. The Roosters prefer a high pressure, low marking and low skill game, as seen by North's lower disposal efficiency than their opposition teams in the past 3 weeks. If the Power can play controlled football and avoid a high level of congestion game, they could upset the red and white.

If North Adelaide's season is like a train with no brakes, Port Adelaide have been a bike without a chain, as they lost their first four games. The Power won their first game in a major upset against Glenelg. In the past three rounds, Port Adelaide have been marginally more impressive, beating Glenelg and West Adelaide. In last weeks clash against West Adelaide, the Power controlled the ball at the contest. Port had more disposals, marks and clearances. This ability to win the ball in congestion is an attribute they will need to implement against North Adelaide who have a dominant midfield. In the opening four rounds, Port Adelaide lost clearances, inside 50's and disposals every week. In the past three games, coach, Matthew Lokan minorly rectified this, as the Power have won disposals two out of three weeks and a clearance and inside 50 count for the first time this season. If the Power are to upset North Adelaide, they will need to have more disposals, as time in possession of the ball allows Port to stretch the Roosters backline and ultimately have a greater number of shots on goal.

The last time these sides met, North Adelaide were 76-point victors. However, the first time these sides met each other last season, Port were 8-point winners. Therefore, SANFL fans should not be surprised if Port Adelaide could execute an upset. Nevertheless, they likely will not, as their midfield weakness, culminated with North Adelaide's midfield strength, will not play into their hands.

North by 24-36.
