Cats too strong for wasteful Crows

For consecutive weeks, poor kicking has cost Adelaide dearly with the Crows going down to Geelong by 42 points at GMBHA stadium.

The first quarter saw both sides have the same amount of scoring shots, but the Crows failed to take their opportunities registering six straight behinds to trail by 10 points.

The Cats extended the lead to 28 points at the main break before Adelaide responded with the first three goals of the third term to close within eight points.

The Cats steadied with the final three goals of the term and a four goal to one last term enabled the home side to run out comfortable victors.

It was another week that many KPIs looked positive for Adelaide winning contested possession, clearances and taking 11 marks inside 50 to six for Geelong, but Adelaide only managed 36 inside 50s for the game.

Darcy Fogarty made the most of limited opportunities, the only multiple goal kicker for Adelaide with three goals.

Reilly O'Brien was significant in his return to the senior side with 47 hit outs, 28 disposals, nine clearances, seven tackles and five score involvements.

Adelaide is certainly having a crack but lacking some polish. The lack of scoreboard pressure early in the game addressed by Matthew Nicks after the match "I thought early we had 10 minutes of dominance. Unfortunately, that's been the trend the last few weeks, so we've got some work to do on that"

Taylor Walker missed the Geelong clash under health and safety protocols and will be a welcome inclusion this week with Adelaide hosting West Coast.

The Eagles currently last on the table have lost their last seven games with an average losing margin of 79 points. Surely a win is on the cards for Adelaide to snap their own five game losing streak.

My Tip- Adelaide 37 points

Power withstand Dons' surge

Port Adelaide Power returned to the winner's circle with plucky 9.12 (66) to Essendon's 6.14 (40) at a rain-soaked Adelaide Oval.

The hosts set up its win with a dominant first quarter-and-a-half before the Dons responded to get within eight points in the third quarter as the rain arrived.

Port settled in the final quarter as the likes of Ollie Wines, Travis Boak and young guns Zak Butters and Connor Rozee got their hands on the wet football.

Willem Drew revelled in the wet conditions and was vital as well in the final quarter.

Sam Powell-Pepper again was a source of energy and could have kicked other than 1.4.

His collision against Essendon ruckman Sam Draper was pure wet weather football with no inch given between the players.

The Power's power forward Charlie Dixon made a successful return from a serious ankle injury to the AFL with two goals and at the other end of the ground, Tom Clurey and captain Tom Jonas were as solid as ever while Riley Bonner gave excellent run in his return game from injury.

After the Bombers' third-term surge, Port's Trent Dumont booted the team's only goal in the second half to edge his side's lead to 14 points at three-quarter-time.

Port will enjoy the mid-season bye this weekend before the Power travel to the MCG for a Thursday night blockbuster against Richmond Tigers on June 9.

Power coach Ken Hinkley would have been disappointed with his team's tally of 41 inside 50s to Essendon's 50 and just one goal after half-time.

There's much work to be done in contested possessions stakes as well ahead of a tough test against the Tigers on Thursday week.

Sturt

Adelaide

Adelaide Oval - 4.30pm (Saturday)

Crows to give Sturt the Blues

Ask any coach, goals in red time hurt. Teams work so hard defensively to restrict scoring during the first 20 minutes of each quarter. Goals during the time on period can change momentum and the course of any game, dramatically.

by
Nick Smith

Last Friday night at Coopers Stadium, Elliot Himmelberg had just kicked his second goal, and the Crows were 13 points clear and looked home. It was red time in the final quarter and Norwood managed to kick three goals and win the match by five points. Red time hurt for the Crows.

Whilst Michael Godden and his team will review the entire match, I suspect the last 10 minutes of the final quarter will feature significantly. The Crows have been the stand out team for the first eight rounds. To lose Luke Pedlar and Andrew McPherson prior to the match starting, really hurt the Crows structure. Both Players were unwell and I suspect they should be available to take on the Double Blues at the Adelaide Oval.

Sturt were hit hard by a rampant Eagles side at Wigan Oval last Saturday. Sturt were never really in the contest, and trailed at every change to go down by 49 points. The loss leaves Sturt in fourth place and in a real battle to stray in touch with the top five.

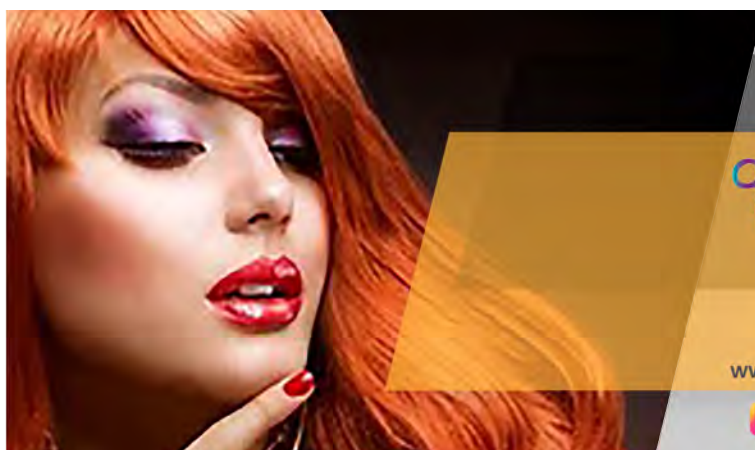

James Richards was strong with three straight goals. Unfortunately, he didn't have a lot of support as only three other team mates managed to find the goals. Sturt were outplayed for the entire game as the Eagles dominated possession. Sturt allowed the Eagles to go at a disposal efficiency of 86% which is exceptionally high. This highlights the lack of pressure Sturt applied at the contest, and must be addressed prior to facing the Crows.

Alarmingly, the Double Blues scoring accuracy was only 38%. The Eagles went at 56%. Sturt need to find more avenues to goal and ensure when they do attack the goals, they convert the scoring opportunities into goals.

Sturt have a massive three-week block of games, which will go along way to determining if they play finals. Matches against Adelaide, Glenelg and Norwood, will be tough, but all are winnable if they can bring pressure and efficiencies with ball in hand. The Crows will be too strong on Saturday.

Eagles back on track with back-to-back wins

Round 9 of the SANFL season concludes with an intriguing matchup between two sides hanging around the top 5. The Eagles come into this game with a 5-3 record off the back of a big win against Sturt at Unley Oval. South Adelaide are 4-4 and similarly had a big win against West Adelaide at home. South will be desperate for a win to stay in touch with 5th position, who happens to be the Eagles. A Woodville-West Torrens win could potentially have them 2 games clear of those outside the top 5 if Norwood go down to ladder leaders, North Adelaide.

Oliver Alyanak

The Eagles went to Unley Oval needing to bounce back after a poor defeat against Adelaide the week prior. They very much did bounce back and never really looked like losing against the Double Blues. They managed to keep extending their lead at every break and ended winning by a comfortable 49 points. It was a good response from the Eagles especially in their midfield which got dominated by Adelaide the week before. They managed to just have a small lead in clearances and inside 50s which gave them a considerable advantage considering the talent of their players inside 50. They were also far more accurate than Sturt, kicking 14.11 compared to Sturt's 6.10, meaning that the result was never going to be in doubt. Riley Knight was everywhere, racking up a whopping 48 disposals, 17 more than the next best on ground. Former Essendon player Dylan Clarke was also good with 29 disposals and 10 tackles while Joseph Sinor had 27 touches and kicked 2 goals. Up forward the Menzel brothers continue to provide a headache for opposition backlines, kicking 5 between them.

South Adelaide on-the-other-hand are coming off a 30-point win against West Adelaide. The game wasn't pretty and took until the 3-minute mark of the second quarter for the first goal of the game to be kicked. West Adelaide lead by a point at the main break but after that the Panthers turned up and put the game beyond doubt by three quarter time. The Panthers had over 20 more inside 50s which was never going to be sustainable for West Adelaide to defend for the entirety of the game. This was seen in the second half when scoring opened up and the Panthers ran away with the game. Joseph Haines had plenty of the footy, finishing with 33 disposals off half back. Elliott Dunkin was loving the wet weather, laying 16 tackles to go with his 11 inside 50s. Ryan Garthwaite, Jye Menzie and Eamon Wilkinson were all potent up forward, kicking 3 goals each. Damon Fretiag and Kim Kantilla also chipped in with 2 of their own.

These two sides have played in some quality games in the last few years, with the Eagles winning 3 of the last 5. Last time they played at Maughan Thiem Kia Oval was in round 6 last year where South Adelaide got up by 8 points. This was a game of momentum and in the end it came down to who could kick the straightest, which the Panthers did kicking 15.9 to the Eagles' 13.13. Bryce Gibbs was the best for South Adelaide on that day with 20 disposals, 2 goals and 10 tackles while James Tsitas was best for Woodville-West Torrens with 17 disposals, 1 goal and 13 tackles. This upcoming game looks set to be another ripper and with another wet weekend on the radar it could certainly be close again. There's plenty on the line for both teams, however, I expect the Eagles to get the job done.

Woodville-West Torrens by 13-24

Redlegs to kick Roosters off their perch

Norwood will make the commute to Prospect this Saturday to compete against North Adelaide. The Roosters have been this seasons premier side losing only one game. Comparatively, Norwood have an even record of four wins, four losses. However, what is pleasing for the Red and Blue is they have won four of their last six games, defeating top of the ladder Adelaide last week. One side desperate to make the top 5, while the other persistent on finishing in the top two, this game is poised a fascinating contest between two in-form teams.

by William McShane

North Adelaide have won their last six games with relative ease. They have had only one match decided by under a goal with an average winning margin of 34. Their only loss came in round 2, where they were beaten by a stronger Adelaide outfit. In the last four weeks, North Adelaide have had more disposals, tackles and a better disposal efficiency than their opponents. Their weapon is their midfield ascendancy. The Combe brothers coupled with Young, and Wigg makes for the competition's premier midfield. They have not lost clearances once this year. Through a midfield domination North Adelaide's forwards have therefore been able to get one on one contests. Consequently, the Roosters have the second highest score for and the second lowest score against (the side with the greatest score against is Norwood).

North Adelaide have dominated inside 50's. In the last four weeks, the Roosters have had over 55 inside 50's each game. Further, in the last six games, North have had more disposals than their opposition. In their loss to Adelaide, these two key statistics changed. Adelaide had a greater number of disposals and inside 50's. While the Crows lost clearances, they were able to gain possession around the ground. Therefore, Norwood coach Jade Rawlings will need to not only mitigate the strength of North Adelaide's midfield, but also win possession around the ground. In the weeks North Adelaide have not generated greater than 50 inside 50's the matches have generally been close.

In polar contrast to North Adelaide, Norwood have been inconsistent. They have defeated both sides above and below them and have been competitive in their losses, with an average losing margin of 12.75, yet they sit outside the top 5. In last weeks victory against top of the ladder Adelaide, Norwood were more accurate. Their cleanliness in the key moments in the game separated the two teams. While Norwood lost inside 50's, they looked the more dangerous side in slippery conditions. Supplementary to this, is the quality of the Redlegs defence, as they have the smallest score against them. Against Adelaide, this was evident as Adelaide only managed nine goals. The Redlegs average score against is 66. Relative to the competition, this is very low. A large factor to opposition teams' inability to score against Norwood is their midfield. Similar to the Roosters, Norwood have a host of A-list players rotating in the centre such as Rokahr, Nunn, Kennerly and Rantall. Subsequently, Norwood have only lost clearances once. This enables the red and blue to generate greater inside 50's and alleviate stress from their defence. As a result, the match will be determined in the midfield battle.

Norwood will be looking to secure a seat in the top 5, while the Roosters want to establish themselves as the premier team, the match could be won by either outfit. However, in an upset, I think Norwood will take another top of the table scalp.

Norwood by 1-12.

Glenelg to surpass West Adelaide with ease

In what is expected to be a compelling ninth round of the 2022 SANFL season, the Glenelg Tigers will be taking the honours of opening the round's proceedings by hosting West Adelaide at ACH Group Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Tigers are tipped to comfortably surpass The Bloods, expecting to prance at full flight and play superb footy in front of their dedicated faithful at The Bay.

by William Clemente

It has most definitely been a forgettable season for the West Adelaide Football Club and their deflated fans. At the commencement of the season, optimism was flowing through the clubrooms at Hisense Stadium of playing finals football, but these hopes are well and truly put to bed without any possibility of resurrection. They are yet to register a victory, losing eight matches in a row and it is not farfetched to say that club's morale is at a significant low. A win against The Tigers would be the biggest of upsets, and an enthralling way to begin the ninth round, but it is more and more looking like a near impossibility.

The progress of Glenelg's season is the complete opposite compared to West Adelaide as The Tigers are playing a quality brand of football, displaying a confidence perhaps a premiership favourite's confidence when they set foot on the park every weekend. They commenced the season in full flight by winning the first four rounds, meeting the expectations of dedicated SANFL spectators. However, they did hit a speed bump in the fifth and sixth rounds as they upsettingly suffered two consecutive defeats. This is a rare occurrence that one sees happen to Glenelg. One of these defeats was to a supreme Roosters outfit who are leading the pack at the top and are lauded as premiership favourites. It was a nail-biting contest but a bitter pill to swallow for The Tigers as they lost by a harrowing two-points; however, it highlighted that they can dance with the major contenders which would've injected the side with a confidence boost. And this confidence boost has been shown as they've won the last two matches consecutively.

Last round The Bloods competed against South Adelaide at Flinders Stadium, and they suffered a 30-point defeat, making eight consecutive losses. West Adelaide were emboldened by a Panthers side that are in a struggle to cement their presence in the finals race as they lead by a point at half-time. It seemed The Bloods were prepared to pull off an upset and finally get their season underway, but the Panthers dominated the second half as West Adelaide were restricted to kicking only three goals, Bloods forward, Josh Gore was a shining light in another deflating defeat as he slotted four goals straight. Josh Carmichael (27 disposals) was their biggest ball winner in midfield.

It was a funny old game at X Convenience Oval in the eight round, but Glenelg were comfortable victors against Centrals, defeating them by 32-points. Luke Reynolds, Lachlan Hosie and Liam McBean were the biggest contributors to the scoreboard for Glenelg as they each kicked two goals. Darcy Bailey (35 disposals) and Matthew Snook (32 disposals) dominated the midfield for The Tigers as they made it extremely difficult for Centrals to win the game from the middle.

Glenelg are eager to stake their credentials as a serious premiership contender, thus they will hit the park at ACH Group Stadium on Saturday afternoon with a spring in their step. West Adelaide will just try to bring their best footy and compete, that's all they can do, but if they do bring it we are installed for a captivating game of football. The Tigers will make it three wins on the trot.
