Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

Port's season in one game

Thursday night's 12-point loss to Richmond Tigers epitomised Port Adelaide Power's topsy-turvy season in two hours.

The Power started brightly with the first two goals of the game, then lapsed to allow the Tigers dictate terms to nearly seal the deal before half-time.

Then Karl Amon, Todd Marshall (three goals in the first half) and evergreen Travis Boak gave Port's faithful, who travelled to a frigid MCG, hope as the visitors drew to within two goals at the long break.

The trend of Port Adelaide's 'Big Tease' continued as Richmond restored its near 30-point lead it had in the second quarter.

The Power again found ascendancy in the clearances despite having no recognised ruckman after Sam Hayes was dropped.

Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines snapped truly and Kane Farrell launched a 60-metre bomb.

Sam Powell-Pepper pinned Tiger playmaker Shai Bolton for holding the ball and his goal put the Power ahead.

Richmond's rookie Josh Gibcus' move forward after he was well beaten by Marshall had an immediate impact with a go-head goal courtesy the umpire adjudging Ryan Burton as impeding Gibcus from going for a mark.

Port pressed in the final quarter and Connor Rozee's classy finish was as close as the Power got as the Tiges steadied with triple premiership ruckman Toby Nankervis massive in the final moments.

A massive collision between Port captain Tom Jonas and Zak Butters sparked concussion controversy after both came back on in the final term.

Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley said his team gave the ball up in the first-quarter.

"The turnovers killed us in the first quarter, and that probably won them the game," Hinkley said. "Probably by the end of the game, we worked so hard to get back, but we gave up five goals from turnover in the first quarter and goals through the corridor, which is not like us. "If you look at the rest of the game, we defended really strongly, but for the patch in the first quarter when they were able to put us to the sword on the scoreboard, that is what happened – turnover. That is as much our doing as anything that Richmond done. We gave the ball back in bad spots."

The Power meet in-form Sydney Swans at Adelaide Oval next Saturday afternoon.

Eagles to run riot over Bulldogs

We head West for round 11 with a really important game for the Eagles. The Eagles are coming of a bye in round 10, after an amazing 1-point victory over South Adelaide in the wet and mud in round 9. Amazingly, there were 331 tackles for the game. South Adelaide had more tackles than kicks.

The victory allowed the Eagles to stay in touch, with a number of teams, trying to grab the double chance come finals time. The reigning premiers will be fresh, and ready to attack the second half of the season. The first opposition in their way are the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs battled hard against the Magpies last week, and were certainly in the game right up until late in the last quarter. The Bulldogs almost had the perfect start with Fraser Fort having a shot at goal within the first 15 seconds. It went wide for a behind, but the signs were there that the Bulldogs can match it with Port.

Hoskin, Presbury & Montgomerie were very solid all day. The little excitement machine Isaiah Dudley has shown enough to suggest, that he belongs at the level. If the Bulldogs are to compete with the Eagles, they need more contributors across the four quarters. The scoring accuracy for the Bulldogs was only 47% which isn't where it needs to be. The conditions were excellent for football and the Bulldogs goal kicking must improve.

The Eagles won the corresponding fixture in round 5. On that occasion, the Bulldog's scoring accuracy was 38% to the Eagles 57%. This highlights the need for the Bulldogs to continue to work on their goal conversion.

The Eagles are looking to continue to push for finals and they will be far too strong for the Bulldogs.

Ken Farmer medal leader Daniel Menzel, will be wanting to continue his good form and could be a handful for the Bulldogs defence.

MY TIP: Crows by 25-36 points

Bloods can't stop Bleeding

In a David vs Goliath clash, West Adelaide will play Adelaide this week on their home oval. This is a game of two polar opposite sides. One side comes in having won six of nine games (Adelaide), while the other has won none (West Adelaide). As such, West Adelaide will be looking to change their misfortune. Comparatively, Adelaide will look to gain even more ladder ascendancy by moving to second position. Both clubs will be rejuvenated after the bye round, however, it will likely not be enough for the Bloods to have an upset win.

by William McShane

West Adelaide have been dismal in season 2022. They have conceded the greatest number of points against. This trend of poor form has become a major concern for the Bloods. West Adelaide have finished bottom the past three seasons. In fact, the Bloods have been the worst performing side of the last eight years, as they have not made finals since 2015. They are currently on their way to another wooden spoon performance. To add salt to the wounds, the Bloods lost one of their star recruits, Josh Carmicheal in the mid-season draft. This weakens their midfield and increases the reliance on their backline through their experienced players of Hartlett, Brand and Keough.

However, despite West Adelaide's horror start to the season, they have drastically improved from the beginning of the year. In their last three weeks, their average losing margin was 18. Contrastingly, in the three rounds prior to that, their average losing margin was 64. This shift has come with an increase of pressure on the opposition ball-carrier. In the last three weeks, West Adelaide have won the tackle count twice. This was apparent in their most recent clash against Glenelg, as they lost by only five points. Therefore, if the Bloods are to have an upset this week, they will need to bring this pressure, as well as an inside 50 barrage. This ability to generate inside 50's is West Adelaide's greatest weakness. They have not had more inside 50's than their opposition this season. This limits their ability to score, and therefore they have the second lowest score for in the competition.

In contrast, Adelaide is third. Yet, they too have concerns. After being top of the ladder for the opening seven games, they have lost their last two games. This puts them in a vulnerable position as it puts them on the same number of wins as fourth and fifth, and two games outside the top two. As such, Adelaide will want to assert themselves on the competition and give themselves a double chance come September. In their past two losses, Adelaide have been beaten around the contest. They have conceded both clearances and disposals. Similarly, when they have won possession the Crow's ball use has been mediocre. This can be seen by the Crows lower disposal efficiency in the past two weeks. If Adelaide want to genuinely give themselves a finals birth, they will need to rectify these areas and impose their marking strengths on the opposition.

The last time these sides met, Adelaide were 54-point victors. As my family will tell you, I am not the most confident person in the world, however, I am confident in the reliability of history. Therefore, Adelaide will win.

Adelaide by 24-36.

Port down old enemy at Alberton

Round 11 of the 2022 SANFL season finishes with what looks to be a cracking encounter between a couple of old foes, Port Adelaide and Norwood from Alberton Oval. The Magpies are coming off a good, controlled win against Central Districts whereas Norwood, before their bye last week, had a tight loss to North Adelaide.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Port Adelaide travelled to Elizabeth to face Centrals last week and left with the 2 points in a game that never really looked out of their control. The Magpies got out to a fast start, kicking the first 2 goals of the game before the Bulldogs eventually steadied to only trail by 4 points at half time. The 3rd quarter saw no goals for either side and Port ran away with it in the last. Port dominated hit-outs which didn't really lead to clearance lead, but they did manage far more inside 50s, constantly putting pressure on the Bulldogs defence which eventually fell away as the game went on. Port also took 15 more contested marks which gives you such an advantage when trying to exit defensive 50 and you know that you've got an outlet that can take a big mark down the line. Sam Hayes was probably best on for Port in what was an even performance. The big man had 33 hit outs, 17 disposals and 9 marks and would have had Port fans scratching their heads as to why he was dropped from the AFL side. In midfield, Cam Sutcliffe lead possessions for Port with 27 while Jackson Mead (24), Martin Frederick (23) and Xavier Duursma (22) were also prominent. Up forward, Mitch Georgiades was back to his best with 4 goals while Brynn Teakle couldn't have done much more on his debut after being drafted a week and a half ago with 3 goals.

Norwood on-the-other-hand had their bye in Round 10, but before that went down to the Roosters at Prospect Oval in terrible conditions. That Saturday was teaming with rain from start to finish and most of the ground was a mud pit which made it impossible for either side to carry out any sort of game plan. Due to the weather, it was a low scoring and close affair which Norwood started well. They led by a goal after the first quarter which slowly but surely was whittled away until North Adelaide eventually took the lead and ran away with a win. Both sides had some chances late to win it, but North were more clinical in the end. As I said, you can't really look too deeply into statistics due to the conditions, however, Norwood did have an advantage with clearances but couldn't generate that into an inside 50 lead which meant that they couldn't create enough chances. Harry Boyd put in a huge effort, attending an enormous amount of ruck contest to help him get to 51 hit outs. Samuel Morris and Matthew Nunn both had 9 tackles while Mitch Cotter and Mitch Wilkins both led disposals with 20 apiece.

Over the past few years, it's been pretty one sided between these two teams with Norwood winning 4 of the last 5 games. Most recently, Norwood won by 16 points at The Parade. Nikolaus Rokahr was the best for the Redlegs with 32 disposals and a goal while Dylan Williams kicked 3.3 in what was a pretty even contribution from Port Adelaide. That game was very evenly contested, and I can see it being similar this time around. Both sides need to win to keep themselves in with a chance of finals, however, I expect Port to get some revenge and win another close one.

COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was a integral part of our 2021 QAFI Premier League allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premier League success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”

Nick Malceski - Labrador Tigers Coach

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.
