Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

Not much to Crow about

The Adelaide Crows winning streak has lasted all of one game going down at Metricon Stadium Sunday afternoon to Gold Coast by 43 points.

A tight opening term saw Adelaide take a 6 point-lead into the first change before the Suns took control of the match with a six goal to one second term.

In the last term Adelaide managed to peg the margin back to 13 points when James Rowe kicked his first goal at the 20-minute mark of the final term before the Suns kicked six of the next seven goals to run out comfortable victors.

Much criticism has been levelled at the Adelaide midfield. Rory Laird, Matt Crouch, and Ben Keays combined for 100 disposals but were not particularly damaging, 65 of these disposals were handballs and only five of these disposals were inside 50s.

The Crows finished with 81 more disposals but had 18 less inside 50s than Gold Coast who had six players finish with multiple goals, Darcy Fogarty the only multiple goal kicker for Adelaide with two.

Jordan Dawson was impressive again with 32 disposals & a goal and Sam Berry with 25 disposals and 12 clearances needs to be given more midfield minutes in the coming weeks along with Jackson Hatley.

Matthew Nicks lamented poor execution after the game "We handed that game of footy to the opposition. They kicked 13.7 from intercepts. You don't win games of footy doing that"

The Adelaide SANFL team is currently sitting third and enjoyed another win on the weekend so there are several players who should come into selection calculations.

Adelaide travels to Tasmania to take on bottom of the ladder North Melbourne next week at Blundstone Arena.

Adelaide will be hoping a win will provide some much-needed reprieve from a frustrated fan base.

MY TIP- Adelaide 17 points.

Port produce best and powerful win of season

It's amazing when teams take the game on, that they often win.

Port Adelaide Power did exactly that as it disposed of an in-form Sydney Swans at a sun-drenched Adelaide Oval on Saturday.

After a tight first half, the Todd Marshall-led Power busted the game open with a withering third quarter en-route to a 12.10 (82) to 8.11 (59) win.

Marshall booted four goals while Ollie Wines and Connor Rozee were brilliant in midfield.

The win was even more meritorious because Port lost Travis Boak with COVID protocols and Zak Butters injured his knee early in the game after a strong start.

Debutant Brynn Teakle impressed in the ruck before his day ended with a broken collar bone. The Power applied manic pressure to a Swans side that was forced into turnovers. Port Adelaide cashed in as Charlie Dixon booted a brace of goals in the third term. Riley Bonner starred off half-back and he even flushed a long goal during the third.

Key position defenders Tom Clurey, captain Tom Jonas and Aliir Aliir did the job on key Swans forwards Lance Franklin, Logan McDonald and Sam Reid.

It's the sort of form that pleased Power coach Ken Hinkley in a game in which Port did not have star small forward Robbie Gray (knee injury).

"It's good to see that the boys can hold up their end when those two champions (Gray and Boak) of our footy club weren't able to be there for us," Hinkley said after the game.

"They're still great players for us and we still love them in the team when they're playing well."

Port Adelaide host Gold Coast Suns on Sunday.

The Suns are another team pushing for a spot in the eight and it has form on its side as well.

Sturt to win Eastern Suburbs Blue

The final fixture for round 12 has all eyes heading to the Parade for the next instalment of the Eastern suburb's derby.

Norwood are coming of a gutsy 18-point win over the Magpies at Alberton. Norwood's very accurate goal kicking was the difference between the two sides and highlights the importance of good goal kicking.

Baynen Lowe & Connor McLean were excellent in attack. They both kicked 4 goals and were supported by Matt Panos who kicked 3.

An area of concern for Jade Rawlings would be the huge discrepancy in Hit outs. The Magpies recorded 56 Hit Outs to Norwood's 26. Norwood did manage to win the clearances (+2), however Harry Boyd may need additional support in the ruck against Sturt.

Sturt will be refreshed after the bye. Their previous match in round 10 against Glenelg was a disaster. It was Sturt's lowest score ever, against Glenelg. Sturt failed to score a goal until early in the third quarter and only managed four for the entire match.

I am certain Martin Mattner will get a response from his players, to ensure they don't have a repeat of the effort against Glenelg. Sturt certainly couldn't play any worse, and their leaders will take ownership of that performance and will try and turn it around quickly.

Sturt currently sit fourth on the ladder. With only eight matches left, the aim is finish in the top three to have that double chance come finals. Sturt still have to play three other current top five sides in their run home.

Norwood are only a game behind Sturt (currently sixth) and have a slightly better percentage than the Double Blues. It makes Saturday's game even more critical. For the loser, making finals gets that little bit harder.

Sturt triumphed comfortably when the sides met back in round 4. Abe Davis was sensational on that occasion with six goals. Sturt were never troubled on the scoreboard and lead at every change to record a 28-point victory.

Despite Norwood being the home team, Sturt will be wanting to atone for their last performance. I think they can get the job done, and kick start the back end of their season.

MY TIP: Sturt by 1-9 points

Lightning does not strike twice

Port Adelaide and Glenelg will play this week in an enthralling contest. Port Adelaide currently sit seventh on the ladder, while Glenelg have climbed to second despite a minor form slump in rounds five and six. Glenelg have become accustomed to this ladder ascendancy, after barely losing a game last season. Comparatively, the Power have battled for a place in the top five for the past two years to no avail. One could argue Port Adelaide stand a genuine possibility to win this match, however, realists would not. Port have won three games. Glenelg have won eight and are propelling themselves to a top two finish. As such, the Tigers enter the match as clear favourites.

by William McShane

Glenelg have been a dominant side since 2019. A year where they finished top of the ladder and won the premiership. Fast forward three years. They have had two more finals appearances (one grand final appearance), with one top of the ladder. And now, in their vengeance filled season, they are second. So what is it? What has their secret to success been? Surprisingly, there is no one formula, one player or one coach which has provided success to the Tigers. No. Instead, it is a combination of all three. Glenelg's blueprint for winning centres on their ability to win inside 50's. They win contested football, get it forward and are prolific with their scoring. In the past four weeks, the Tigers have lost one inside 50 count (difference of one). Similarly, they have won disposals and clearances in all four of these games. Glenelg has also had a superior disposal efficiency during their last month. This underlines the Tigers ability to win football at the source and then use it in such a way where they can score prolifically. Through Glenelg's experience in that of Bailey, McBean, Snook and Partington, the yellow and black have an incredibly football intelligent side. Therefore, if Port Adelaide are to challenge this side, they will need to apply great pressure on the ball carrier and win the ball around stoppages.

Port Adelaide have won three matches for the year. These have come periodically throughout the last six weeks against Centrals, West Adelaide and Glenelg. A consistent pattern of win and then loss, which has put the Power in a poor predicament halfway through the season. Port Adelaide are three wins outside the top five. Unfortunately for the Power they play Glenelg, North Adelaide and Woodville during their next month of football. As such, this game is crucial if Port are to make the top five. Unlike Glenelg, who have a relatively consistent way of scoring, the Power do not. In the past four weeks, Port Adelaide have won disposals twice, marks twice and clearances once. Conversely, Port Adelaide's pressure has been satisfactory as they did not win a tackle count during these four weeks. Fortuitously for Power fans they have still had ample opportunity inside forward 50. They have won inside 50's three of four weeks and therefore have had an average score of 74. This is the average SANFL score in 2022. As a result, Port needs to generate a greater number of scores from turnover. This is currently low because of their insufficient tackling pressure. Further, Port Adelaide can exploit Glenelg by controlling the football. When Port Adelaide were victorious earlier in the season, they did this in the crucial stages, while also winning the ball in congestion.

While Port Adelaide defeated Glenelg earlier in the season, Port fans will know lightning does not strike twice. As such, one cannot help but think the Tigers are on an angered rampage to redeem their efforts last year.

North Stay Top with Win Over the Doggies

Round 12 of the 2022 SANFL season heads to X Convenience Oval for a clash between Central Districts and North Adelaide. This game sees two sides at opposite ends of the table face off with Centrals currently sitting in 9th while North Adelaide are at the top of the ladder. The Bulldogs are coming off a great win against Woodville-West Torrens while North just had their bye.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Central Districts are coming off their second win of the season, knocking off the reigning premiers by 35 points away from home. Centrals got off to a good start, leading by 13 points at quarter time before extending that to 19 points at half time. They continued to extend their lead throughout the rest of the game, never giving the Eagles a chance to get back into the game. Centrals only had a few more scoring chances, however, the Eagles' inaccuracy cost them, kicking 5.13. Centrals lost both hit outs and clearances, however, they had more inside 50s showing their dominance around the ground. They used the ball far better than Woodville-West Torrens while also having nearly double the tackles. Travis Schiller and Justin Hoskin had a field day racking up 34 and 32 disposals respectively. Up forward Fraser Fort was instrumental with 24 disposals and 2 goals while also pushing into the ruck. Nicholas Lange and Kyle Presbury both chipped in with 2 goals as well.

Before last week's bye, North Adelaide went down to South Adelaide by 2 points on the Queen's Birthday. North started poorly, trailing by 21 points at the first break. They managed to wrestle back some control and were in front by 3 points at three quarter time. South Adelaide went on to kick the only goal of the last quarter to end up winning. North had their chances, however, kicking 3 behinds before the eventual winning goal. The Roosters had more clearances and inside 50s but couldn't generate enough good scoring chances with South Adelaide ending up with more scoring shots despite their forwards having less access. Both sides were basically identical in all aspects of the game and in the end neither side was accurate enough to win the game so the side that had more chances won by behinds which obviously was the Panthers. In the midfield, Harrison Wigg was on fire with 34 disposals and 10 marks while Aaron Young had 29 disposals and a goal as well. In a low scoring game Lachlan Grubb, Nigel Lockyer and Kennan Ramsey were the standouts up forward, all kicking 2 goals.

The past 5 games between these 2 sides have been a mixed bag with some games being blowouts and others being very close. Ultimately, North have won 3 of the last 5, however. These two sides played in round 3 of this season with North winning emphatically by 43 points. Harrison Wigg and Aaron Young had a day out recording 34 and 37 disposals respectively while also kicking a goal each. Centrals are going to have to ensure they limit their impact, or a similar result may be coming again. Jacob Bauer also kicked 5 on that day, however, he got drafted to Richmond in the AFL mid-season draft, so he won't be a problem for the Bulldogs here. Kyle Presbury was the best for Centrals with 35 disposals. This game looks like it could be heading down the same direction, however, Centrals showed against the Eagles that they are capable of beating the good sides. In saying that North should prove too strong again.
