Adelaide too strong for struggling Kangaroos

The Adelaide Crows bounced back from the disappointing performance against Gold Coast by dismantling North Melbourne by 57 points at Blundstone Arena.

Adelaide held a slender nine-point lead at quarter time before extending the margin at each change. North Melbourne has now lost twelve consecutive games.

Rory Laird was the major ball winner for Adelaide with 30 disposals and up forward Taylor Walker and Darcy Fogarty were the stars of the show combining for ten goals.

Fogarty has now kicked multiple goals in four consecutive games for the first time in his career and at 32 years of age, Taylor Walker is showing no signs of slowing down averaging 2.8 goals a game in 2022.

Matthew Nicks certainly pleased with the response in Tasmania after a poor showing the previous week. "We came with a real plan. It was executed as well as I can ask the playing group to do it"

The Adelaide SANFL team performed strongly again with a 59-point victory over South Adelaide. Matt Crouch who was dropped amassed a game high 41 disposals and livewire forward Tarek Newchurch contributed four goals.

A slightly tougher challenge awaits this week as Adelaide go from the bottom team to hosting the top of the table Melbourne.

Adelaide upset the Demons last year and while it should be competitive game, I expect the Dees to get the points.

Power hang tough

Port Adelaide Power weathered a Gold Coast Suns surge to keep itself in the running for a finals berth.

A match saving tackle by Port's Sam Powell-Pepper on Suns' gun Touk Miller helped the Power to a thrilling 13.15 (93) to 13.13 (91) win at Adelaide Oval on Sunday night.

by Nick Kossatch

But Gold Coast pressed forward again and the hosts grimly held on in a classic match.

Port started strong powering to a 26-point lead before the rising Suns pegged back the lead and in fact took the advantage on the scoreboard in the second half.

Port Adelaide's key forward Todd Marshall continued his emergence with four goals in a match-winning display while Connor Rozee danced his way to more Brownlow votes as his rise in midfield status continues.

Riley Bonner and Ryan Burton provided drive off halfback.

Port's coach Ken Hinkley was a relieved man post game as he cast his eye on a tough road trip as the Power meet finals-bound Fremantle Dockers in the West.

Port will have established players in ruckman Scott Lycett, Orazio Fantasia, Zak Butters and Tom Clurey available for selection. However in-form Bonner will miss a month with a fractured eye socket he suffered against Gold Coast.

"You can't start thinking about anything other than just trying to win every game," Hinkley said of the teams 'stay in the moment mantra'.

"The competition will throw up plenty of strange things over the next eight weeks.

"We've got really strong form, but we have to continue to focus on next week and we will."

Eagles

Norwood

Maughan Thiem Kia Oval - 2.05pm (Sunday)

Eagles will soar to defeat the Redlegs

Round 13 concludes with a trip down Port Road for the Redlegs, to take on the reigning premiers in a cracking Sunday afternoon fixture.

It is fourth versus fifth, and the ramifications for the both sides are enormous. The Eagles had to fight hard to overcome a determined West Adelaide by 20 points. The Bloods were in front at half time and the Bloods supporters dared to dream. The Eagles refocussed at half time and outscored the Bloods ten goals to five.

Matthew Goldsworthy and Daniel Menzel were brilliant in attack, booting three goals each. My Magarey Medal tip Riley Knight continued his brilliant form 35 disposals, 9 marks and 7 tackles.

Knight has been in magnificent form and he will need to continue this run of outstanding performances to help his side defeat a confident Redlegs team.

Norwood got the job done to win the 'Eastern Suburbs' derby last Saturday, whilst they weren't outstanding, they did lead at every change to record a 26-point win over Sturt.

It was pleasing to see a number of multiple goalkickers for the Redlegs. Ben Jarvis, Connor Mclean & Harry Boyd kicked two goals each. Norwood were able to win the clearances and dominate the Inside 50's count.

Norwood haven't managed to string more than three consecutive wins together for the season so far. Currently sitting in fifth place (by percentage), Norwood will need to attack the Eagles from the outset, and apply pressure around the ball.

We were treated to a classic back in round two when these two teams last met. That Friday night back in April, the Menzel brothers kicked five goals between them. Not to be outdone, the Redlegs had four players which kicked multiple goals in same game.

At home, the Eagles are hard to beat. Ken Farmer medal Leader Daniel Menzel has been very consistent through the first half of the season, and will be a real handful for the Norwood defenders.

It will be a quality game of SANFL football, for the winner, it is one step closer to finals action.

MY TIP: Eagles by 1-9 points

Tenacious Tigers to Torment Crows Again

Contrary to popular opinion, Stranger Things volume 2, will not be the biggest blockbuster event this week, as Adelaide will play Glenelg in a game for the ages. This is arguably the most excitable match of the year. Two of the premier sides battling for ascendancy on the ladder. Glenelg are second on the ladder while Adelaide is third, having lost only one game more than the Tigers. Both sides enter the game in convincing form. The last time these sides met, the Tigers were 15-point victors. As such, the Crows will be looking to extract revenge and earn themselves a double chance in September.

by William McShane

Glenelg have comfortably won their last five games. Glenelg supporters have become accustomed to this dominance. Similar to Geelong's era of success over the past five years, Glenelg have been a premier side for an extended period of time. Alarmingly for other SANFL sides, it does not appear to be stopping soon. In the last five matches, the Tigers have won clearances, disposals and disposal efficiency. They have lost inside 50's once in this time. Glenelg are a high possession side. They rely on their ability to win more football than the opposition. I know, I know, generic statement. But it is nonetheless accurate. Glenelg have had a lower number of disposals than their opposition twice this year. These have both been losses. These teams were able to draw even around the contest, and mitigate the Tiger's elite spreading ability. This outside spread and control is where a large majority of Glenelg's possession comes from. On Saturday, Glenelg had a whopping 404 disposals, as a result of taking 130 marks. This is an elite number. The main culprit was Max Proud, who soaked up 12 marks in the defensive half. He was assisted by forwards Lachlan Hosie and Luke Reynolds, who collectively took 21 marks and kicked six goals between each other. As such, if Adelaide are to compete with Glenelg they will need to limit their marking control on the game by mitigating Proud, Reynolds and Hosie's effectiveness.

Similar to the Tigers, the Crows have been dominant this season. After sitting top of the table after the start of the season, Adelaide have had a mini slip to third. In their wins throughout the past two weeks, the Crows have won inside 50's, disposals, marks and contested marks. Unfortunately, for Crows fans, they lack the midfield arsenal other sides possess. During the last four weeks Adelaide have won clearances once. Despite this, the last time these sides met, this did not prove to be an issue. In fact, Adelaide won clearances and were able to threaten Glenelg around the ground. Further, while Glenelg have a number of strong marking targets, Adelaide are the greatest contested marking side in the competition. Through their key players such as Frampton, Strachan and Davis, Adelaide have won contested marks 10 times from 12 matches. This allows them to play an alternative style of football than Glenelg by kicking to congested areas, as opposed to playing possession football.

Overall, this match is poised to be a blockbuster. Therefore, it will ultimately be decided by the side who is able to mitigate the others strengths and show a greater endeavour toward the football. Subsequently, I think Glenelg superior form will see them win in a tight contest.

Glenelg by 24-36.

North Stay Top, Beating Port at Home

Round 13 of the 2022 SANFL Season sees an intriguing matchup between North Adelaide and Port Adelaide at Prospect Oval. North is currently top of the table by percentage and will be eager to potentially extend their lead to 2 points with a win here. Port contrarily sits in 8th with their season just about over. Looking in from the outside it could be seen as a potentially boring clash between two sides at opposite ends of the table, however, as Port often have AFL omissions/players returning from injury, they may have enough firepower to cause an upset.

by
Oliver Alyanak

North Adelaide is coming off a 39-point victory over Central Districts in a game that they dominated from the outset. After the first 11 minutes of play, the Roosters lead by 36 points which shut the Bulldogs out straight away. Centrals reduced the margin to 21 points at the main break; however, they could never get within 20 points for the rest of the game with North doing just enough to keep them at bay. The first 11 minutes was enough to secure them the win. North was better around the stoppages, leading hit outs and clearances which in turn gave their forwards more opportunity inside 50. As usual, Aaron Young and Harrison Wigg were on fire for North Adelaide. Young had 32 disposals, 12 clearances and 5 goals while Wigg had the ball 37 times. Also prolific was Sam McInerney with 27 disposals and a whopping 14 marks. Up forward Dyson Hilder and Frank Szekely both kicked 3 goals.

Port Adelaide on-the-other-hand are coming off a 39-point loss to Glenelg at Alberton. Both sides got out of the blocks slowly with only 1 goal being kicked in the first quarter to Glenelg. Port was in it up until halftime where they trailed by 2 points but after that it was all Glenelg as Port only managed 1 more goal for the rest of the game. Port's inaccuracy ultimately killed them, kicking 4.13. Port conceded 16 more inside 50s but their defence held up all game enabling themselves to rebound and set up enough chances which would ordinarily give them a chance to win had they kicked straight. Glenelg were dominant around the ground, however, racking up over 130 more disposals and taking nearly 100 more marks which is just ridiculous. All eyes were on the return of Orazio Fantasia for Port this week with the livewire forward getting through unscathed which would please all Port fans. He was one of the main culprits for their poor kicking, however, as he kicked 0.4. The Moore boys were the best for Port with Ethan racking up 25 disposals while Nick had 20 touches and 14 tackles. In a bit of a throwback for Port fans Matthew Lobbe returned to the field, kicking a goal from limited opportunities.

Over the past 5 encounters Port have won 3 of them, however, North have won the most recent 2 games. The recently faced off in round 8 where North won by 47 points. That game was very similar to both sides' last performance, Port started slowly and kicked poorly while North started quickly and never looked back. Aaron Young was North's best with 41 disposals while Jase Burgoyne had 33 for the Magpies. It will be interesting to see how Port line up this week with Fantasia potentially making his way into the Power line-up and with Scott Lycett a chance to return at either level. Either way, North should be too strong and continue their fine season.

North Adelaide by 25-36 points
