Demons too good for plucky Adelaide

Adelaide has put in a spirited performance, but it was not enough as Melbourne ran out 29-point winners Saturday afternoon at Adelaide Oval.

The Demons started superbly booting the first three goals of the game before Adelaide responded with four of the next five to only trail by seven points at quarter time in a highly entertaining contest.

The second term was more of an arm wrestle with Adelaide kicking two goals to one to lead by a solitary point at the main break.

The Dees flexed their muscle in the third term with Christian Petracca, Clayton Oliver and Ed Langdon providing plenty of drive for the Demon forwards, but they did not capitalise only kicking three goals from nine scoring shots.

Despite a quiet game, Josh Rachele kicked his first goal of the game midway through the last term, and you sensed there could be an upset on the cards, but Melbourne steadied with the last three goals of the game.

Jordan Dawson was arguably best for Adelaide gathering 30 disposals, a goal and four score involvements while Taylor Walker was the pick of the forwards with two goals and seven score involvements.

Jake Soligo continues to impress at AFL level and a Rising Star Nomination should not be too far away for the young Crow if his form continues.

The final margin probably didn't do justice for all of Adelaide's endeavour. The Adelaide faithful were certainly very welcoming of ex Crow Jake Lever throughout the match.

Next up the Hawks at Marvel Stadium. On the fence with this one. MY TIP- DRAW! We are due for the first one of the year.

Mid-game Power lapse costly

Port Adelaide Power coach Ken Hinkley uses the adage 'living in the moment'. But after a heart-breaking eight-point loss to finals and likely top four-bound Fremantle Dockers at Optus Stadium on Sunday night, in reality, Port's season is 'living in what could have been'. Again, the Power dug deep from 40 points in arrears, after a fast three-goal to zip start, to get within striking distance and even an unlikely victory had Robbie Gray and Todd Marshall converted gettable set shots late.

by
Nick Kossatch

In fairness, the talented pair are not to blame for the loss which sees Port two games out of the top eight. It was the middle period of the game in which Freo had anchored its port city counterparts to the canvas courtesy of Sean Darcy's dominance in ruck and Rory Lobb's eventual five goal haul.

Ollie Wines and Travis Boak again flew the midfield flag against the trend against a Dockers midfield that had outstanding contributors non better than Andrew Brayshaw and winger James Aish. Fremantle's Hayden Young took a mark of the year contender but the Power's Mitch Georgiadis rose above a pack to rival Young's brilliant grab minutes later.

Port Adelaide's forward-cum-ruck Charlie Dixon had a horrid first three quarters before his brace of goals at the start of the fourth had ignited a Power surge. Dixon's first of his pair was a classic check-side while Connor Rozee joined Wines and Boak to orchestrate a late Port midfield dominance. However the hosts did what it had done most of the season and that is cashing in even when not at its best.

Hinkley said post-game that there is still finals hope despite late injuries to Lachlan Jones (hamstring) and who'll miss a month, Xavier Duursma (late omission with a quad strain) and Dan Houston who suffered a knock to his leg. Port are also two games plus percentage out of eighth places Sydney Swans.

"It's incredibly tough, let's not be silly, but it's incredibly tough from 0-5 and we stuck at it and we haven't lost sight of what we're doing. We won't start that today," Hinkley said. "The players believe and I believe that next week is the most important week for us. We've just got to keep ticking away. Footy does crazy things at some stages. "I think we're in pretty reasonable form, but we're starting from a long way back. No reason for us to give up."

The Power are at Adelaide Oval this Saturday against Greater Western Sydney Giants.

Glenelg to bounce back and end Panther's finals chances

What an eventful weekend round 13 was. Both Glenelg and South Adelaide will be happy to put last weekend behind them, as they look to reverse their efforts from last week.

South Adelaide was defeated by the barest of margins against a resurgent Bulldogs at X Convenience Oval. In what was a frustrating performance, the Panthers lead for a majority of the game. Jarrad Wright would be frustrated with his players as they allowed Central District's Travis Schiller level the scores at the 29-minute mark, and Kyle Prestbury kick the winning behind two minutes later.

Coaches hate scores (particularly goals) in red time. Unfortunately for the Panthers, it cost them two valuable points.

At the bay last Saturday, the Tigers were lining up against the powerful Crows. The Tigers started well with Liam McBean getting the scoring under the way. Glenelg would go on to score one more goal for the entire half, the Crows would have 12 majors on the board heading into the long break.

The result was obvious at the main interval, the strong crowd wanted to see if the Tigers could get some respectability back on the scoreboard. In the end, it was a 74-point hiding. This is the Tigers biggest loss since Brett Hand took over as coach. Whilst the result hurts, the Tigers sit third on the ladder four points clear of fourth placed Norwood.

Both sides will be desperate to return to winning form. For the Panthers, they have fallen well behind in the race for the finals. With only five wins from twelve games, season 2022 is almost done. For the Panthers, it is all about respectability and providing their fans with some highlights.

Glenelg on the other hand, need to keep winning to grab the double chance come finals time. For that reason, the Tigers will bounce back and continue to chase the Roosters and Crows.

MY TIP: Glenelg by 1-9 points

Roosters to Remain Roosting

Norwood and North Adelaide will play each other this week. Norwood sit fourth on the ladder with a record of seven wins four losses, while North Adelaide are top, having lost only two games all year. Both sides enter the match in elite form having lost only one of their last six games. The last time these sides met North Adelaide were 11-point victors. Although there have been changes to both sides since this date, the ageless rivalry is still very much alive.

by William McShane

North Adelaide come off their biggest win of the season against Port Adelaide on the weekend. They were 126-point winners in a game which they entirely domination. The Roosters had only one goal kicked against them. In response they had 11 different goal kickers. They won disposals, efficiency, contested marks, clearances and scoring accuracy. Similarly, North took 183 marks and had 73 inside 50's. This is a rarity in amateur football let alone professional. Four-time-premiership Hawthorn coach Alastair Clarkson said in his tenure, when sides had 50 or more inside 50's they are almost guaranteed to win. This has been a staple of North's game this season. In the last eight rounds, the Roosters have lost one game. In these games, North Adelaide have had more inside 50's than their opposition. North Adelaide have averaged 55 inside 50's in this time frame. This highlights the direct correlation between reaching Alastair Clarkson's magical 50 inside 50's and getting a win. As a result, Norwood will need to consider this. Specifically, they will need to limit the influence of Grubb, Wigg and Szekely who all had 7 or more inside 50's on the weekend.

Similarly, Norwood come into the game in impressive form. In their weekends clash, the Redlegs defeated reigning premiers Woodville in a compelling 24-point victory. The clear difference between these two sides was polish. One side a 1964 classic Rolls Royce, transferring the ball from defence to offense fashionable. If Norwood were a Rolls Royce, the Eagles were a Ford Laser. A serviceable car, but not effective enough to create scoring opportunities. Ok, that's enough of my car analogy. Norwood operated at 77 per cent, while the Eagles went at 70 per cent. Further, Norwood won disposals, marks, contested marks, tackles, inside 50's and clearances. In Norwood's recent winning streak, they have been prolific in their forward 50. They have lived up to the Redlegs name, as their forwards have been on fire, winning scoring accuracy in all of these weeks. This has complemented their defence. Norwood and North Adelaide are the two best defence sides in the competition as they have the smallest scores against them. As such, the winner of this salivating contest will likely be the side who is able to convert when pushing forward.

The last time these sides met North Adelaide proved to be the cleaner side in the crucial moments of the game. North Adelaide was able to convert in front of goal better than Norwood. However surprisingly, Norwood defeated the Roosters at their strength... the midfield. They had nine more clearances and dominated in the ruck. If Norwood are to upset the Roosters, they will need to repeat this, as winning the midfield battle, mitigates North Adelaide's strongest players such as the Combe brothers, Moore and Wigg. Conversely, if the Roosters want to secure another victory, they will need to win the crucial moments and possess the football for large periods of time once again.

Although either team could win this game, North Adelaide have barely put a foot wrong this season. As such, North Adelaide will win in a close game.

Adelaide wins 4 on the trot, downing Double Blues

Round 14 of the 2022 SANFL Season concludes with what promises to be a good clash between 2 potential finalists in Sturt and Adelaide. Both sides come into this game in good form with both winning in round 13. Sturt currently sit in 5th place, however, will need to win to stay in the top 5 while Adelaide is in second spot, looking to top the ladder with a win.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Sturt are coming off a 40-point win over West Adelaide at Unley Oval in a game that was never in any doubt of having any other result. Sturt kept the Bloods goalless through the first 2 quarters with West Adelaide's first goal eventually coming at the 8-minute mark of the third quarter. In this time Sturt had managed to get out to a 49-point lead and although West Adelaide managed to win the second half, the damage was well and truly already done. West Adelaide managed to dominate clearance, however, Sturt dominated inside 50s which gave their forwards far more opportunities. Sturt was set up well defensively all day, not allowing West Adelaide to make anything meaningful out of their clearances. Also helping Sturt's case was West Adelaide's poor kicking for goal, ending up with 4.11, only 5 scoring shots less than Sturt showing that this could have been a closer game especially if West Adelaide had started better than they did. Casey Voss was Sturt's best with 27 disposals and 8 inside 50s. Joel Thiele was also prominent with 22 disposals and 2 goals to with 8 tackles. Up forward Josh Hone kicked 3 goals and Abe Davis chipped in with 2 as well.

Adelaide is coming off a similar result, dismantling one of the flag fancies, Glenelg, by 74 points. Adelaide started red hot, putting up 78 points by half time to lead by 58. Similar to the Sturt game, Glenelg came back in the second half, but Adelaide continued to kick away ended up with a very nice win. Adelaide was dominant around the stoppages, winning more clearances and subsequently ending up with over 20 more inside 50s. This ended up being too much pressure for the Glenelg defence and the flood gates opened quickly. Matt Crouch continues to show that he is far too good for this level of football, racking up 41 disposals, 2 goals and 11 clearances. This is following on from last week when he had 41 touches and a goal. Kieran Strachan is in a similar boat, recording 41 hit outs, 22 disposals and a goal as he continues to push for regular AFL starts. Ben Davis was also impressive with 22 disposals and a goal while Brett Turner debuted for Adelaide against his old side and ended with 24 disposals. Inside 50 Lachlan Gollant and Matty Wright both kicked 3 goals from limited opportunity as well.

Over the past few years these two sides have played in some tight encounters with Adelaide holding a 3-2 lead over their past 5 games. Early this year they played at Adelaide Oval with Sturt winning by 21 points. Each quarter was very tight except for the second where Sturt made their move, kicking 6 goals. They managed to hold a 20-30-point margin for the rest of the game to win comfortably in the end. Strachan was the best for Adelaide with 48 hit outs and 17 disposals while Abe Davis kicked 6 for Sturt and will need to be better contained this time around. Although Sturt did win that day, Adelaide have been in ripping form of late and will be hard to stop again.

Adelaide by 13-24 points

Powerful Eagles to swoop on powerless Port

In what is expected to be an exhilarating fourteenth round of SANFL football, Woodville West Torrens will be hosting Port Adelaide at Maughan Thiem KIA Oval on Saturday afternoon. There is an expectation that The Power are going to be tested significantly at Maughan Thiem and The Eagles are tipped to upstage Port in front of their home faithful.

by
William Clemente

It has been a season to forget thus far for both footy clubs, but Port Adelaide especially. The Power have only registered the three victories thus far, and any possibility they previously had of making finals football has been dashed. For Woodville West Torrens, it hasn't been a season to admire as they are a club that has trailed extremely well the past few years, thus, they maintain high standards. They have registered seven victories so far, sitting in sixth position on the ladder. They are literally whiskers away from injecting themselves into the top five which will solidify a fighting position in finals; however, they faintly trail behind Sturt due to percentage. A win for The Eagles on Saturday is imperative for their pursuit of finals football, while The Power will be desiring to win to boost team morale.

Last weekend was most definitely one of the harshest defeats that Port Adelaide have ever suffered throughout their long and highly decorated history in the South Australian Football League. Port Adelaide travelled to Prospect Oval to square up against league leaders and current premiership favourites, North Adelaide. It was a wallop, an extremely harsh reality check, revealing the current state of the Port Adelaide Football Club in the SANFL as they were annihilated by 126-points. However, the most appalling component of Port's lack of performance was that they only managed to kick one goal for the entirety of the contest (in the third quarter). Port's, Hugh Jackson was their only goalkicker and Port's final offensive result was one goal and four points. For The Roosters it was basically a training drill, solidifying their grasp on top spot, and boosting their credentials as premiership favourites Port Adelaide must have had a long week of breakdown and reflection at Alberton in preparation of their morale-significant contest this weekend against The Eagles.

In the thirteenth round, The Eagles hosted Norwood at Maughan Thiem Oval, and they suffered a defeat of 24-points. Norwood were crisp and efficient throughout the contest's duration, reiterating their place in the top five. Unfortunately for The Eagles, they were always just too far from The Redlegs to catch them, and Norwood ran home without breaking too much of a sweat. It was a bitter pill to swallow for The Eagles as Norwood would be a team they would face if they were to make finals, and it's demoralising for them that they are currently equal on points, but only separated by percentage. Woodville's, Daniel Menzel (four goals) and Matthew Goldsworthy (three goals) were effective in front of goal, and they will be licking their lips coming up against a deflated Port defence. Former Crow's star, Riley Knight was their greatest ball winner in midfield, notching an impressive 35 disposals.

Let's hope that Saturday's clash at Maughan Thiem Oval will be an entertaining one. If it is or isn't, The Eagles will still reign victorious as they have more hunger and a season to play for. Port Adelaide's objective now is to search for positives in hope that their next season will be more fruitful. The Eagles to flap their wings against Port.

Eagles 50-61 points
