Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

Hawks dismantle Crows

Hawthorn has proven too strong for Adelaide recording a comfortable 32-point victory at Marvel Stadium and leapfrogged Adelaide on the ladder in the process.

The Hawks took control of the match early on and by quarter time had opened a five-goal lead on the back of great pressure and intensity against a lethargic Adelaide outfit.

The Crows showed signs of life when they held Hawthorn goalless in the third term, but they never looked a serious threat and Hawthorn steadied with four goals to three in the final term.

Rory Laird was the highest disposal winner on the ground with 42, the value of these disposals debatable with the majority handballs and not a lot of metres gained with Adelaide's ball movement slow and static.

The midfield mix of Keays, Crouch and Laird will again be in the spotlight, Crouch recalled to the side was not particularly damaging with his 28 touches.

Hawthorn only had four more disposals for the game but finished with ten more inside 50s and seven more scoring shots.

Assistant Coach Nathan Van Berlo did want to point out the positives that Adelaide did not throw the towel in after the poor start and implored the supporter base to remain patient.

"We've been really pleased with our ability to stay in games but ultimately you want reward for effort"

Fischer McAsey who has yet to feature at AFL level since 2020 did not get much of the ball in the SANFL on Sunday but did kick three goals and maybe the time to give more youngsters an opportunity will be on the cards in the coming weeks.

The in-form Collingwood at Adelaide Oval up next.

MY TIP- Collingwood 11 points.

Port turn Giants to minnows

In a game that essentially meant more for Port Adelaide Power than for Greater Western Sydney Giants, the former did what it had to do - and some - in a thumping 12.12 (84) to 3.11 (29) win at Adelaide Oval.

The visitors never threatened as Connor Rozee again lived up to his potential with a best afield four-goal, 24 possession game as a mid-forward.

Todd Marshall threatened to be in for a massive game with two opening quarter goals but he still played a key role as his emergence as a vital cog in the Power's forward line continues.

The ruck-forward tag team tandem of Charlie Dixon and ex-Giant Jeremy Finlayson (22 disposals) proved a success again with Dixon adding muscle and grunt at the centre bounce while Finlayson, while predominantly losing the tap, hedges his bets by winning the ground ball.

Ideally, the imminent return of Scott Lycett will provide coach Ken Hinkley with the luxury of using Dixon and Finlayson as key forwards - maybe as soon as this weekend against reigning premiers Melbourne Demons at Traegar Park in Alice Springs.

Aliir Aliir returned to form in defence and along with Darcy Byrne-Jones and Ryan Burton, the trio provided drive from defence.

Sam Powell-Pepper could also stake a claim for best-on-ground honours with another aggressive and industrious display in midfield and forward of centre and Zak Butters collected 26 quality touches and half of evergreen Travis Boak's 24 possessions were contested.

Hinkley said 'Team D' was key. "I thought both teams blew some chances but overall, we finished the game strongly, which was pleasing," Hinkley said. "That's a team we played who over the last six weeks ranked second in offence in the competition and to keep them to 29 points was an outstanding performance defensively. Really strong. "We knew the threat for us was their power and their ability to score. They missed some shots but at the end of the day we did a really good job."

Port meet Melbourne on Sunday at Traegar Park in another game it needs to win to keep its finals chances alive.

Crows to edge out Roosters

Round 15 sees the SANFL head to Whyalla for the top of the table clash between the Roosters and Crows. For the first time this season, the top three sides all lost in the same round which makes the six weeks of the season very tantalizing.

The Roosters had been flying for so long, so a loss to Norwood at Coopers Stadium wasn't unexpected. The Redlegs led all day and the Roosters were brave. A 36-point loss maybe the loss the Roosters needed, to refocus and attack the last third of the season.

Andrew Moore was brilliant with four goals and supported by Will Coombe who kicked two. Telling was that the Redlegs kicked seven of the last ten goals. No doubt Jacob Surjan will review the defensive side of North's game and ensure when playing the Crows this week, it is much tighter.

The Crows were upset by Sturt in a tight contest at Wigan Oval. An 11-point loss will be disappointing for Michael Godden in a match, they would have thought, would be a win.

Fischer McAsey continues to show impressive form in the second half of the year with another three-goal game. Jay Boyle and Elliot Himmelberg contributed with two each.

The Crows were behind on the scoreboard all day and were well beaten in overall possessions and scoring efficiency. Sturt were far too good when shooting for goal with an accuracy of 76% compared to the Crows 69%.

Matt Crouch was missing from the SANFL side after being promoted to face the Hawks. His ability to attract the footy hurt the SANFL Crows. Both Billy Frampton and Lachlan Sholl were good for the Crows despite chasing the scoreboard.

A win to the Crows could see them take top spot of the Roosters. Both sides will be keen to return to the winners list and find some form to cement a top three finish.

It will be a tough close game, for me, the Crows get home in a close one.

MY TIP: Crows by 1-9 points

Purring Panthers to upset Norwood

Norwood take on South Adelaide this week, in what is expected to be the game of the round. Both sides played finals in 2021 and are looking for another rebirth this season. South Adelaide will play Norwood after just beating the in-form Glenelg, while Norwood come into the game after knocking off top of the table North Adelaide. Two major upsets. But what can be expected when one underdog story meets another? Looking at this season from afar, one would suggest Norwood should be victorious, as they sit fourth and have won six of their last seven games. However, as all SANFL fans know by now, this season is unpredictable. Although the Panthers are sixth, they are playing with the confidence to overcome any side. As such, this is poised to be an even game which could be won by either team.

by
William McShane

On the 7th of May 2022, Norwood had won two of their first six games. Flash forward to the 9th of July Norwood have lost two of their last seven games. This sublime form is a Jade Rawlings coaching masterclass. Rawlings took the coaching reigns last season and since this date Norwood have been playing a distinct brand of football. This largely centres around reinforcing the defence and driving the ball long inside forward 50. In the past four weeks, Norwood have had more kicks than the opposition. Rawlings encourages his players to control the ball and kick long as he trusts his offensive structures to win contested situations. As such, Norwood have won contested marks three out of the last four weeks. Norwood also have the third lowest score against in the competition, highlighting their defensive attributes. Further, Rawlings has been blessed with a strong midfield list. In their last month, the Redlegs have not lost disposals or clearances. Through Kennerly, Rokhar and Panos, the red and blue have looked stable in the middle of the ground. These players are further complemented by ruckman, Harry Boyd who has filled the void of Micheal Knoll and is beginning to dominate. In his most recent clash against a formidable North Adelaide midfield, Boyd had 33 hit outs and a complementary eight clearances. If Norwood are to continue their winning form, it is pivotal both Boyd and Norwood's entire midfield unit fires.

Similar to Norwood, South Adelaide come off their best win of the season against Glenelg. Despite this, the Panthers have been disappointing this season. They have not won two consecutive games since round one and two. As such, they are seventh on the ladder and two wins outside the top five. This means Sunday's game is a necessity if they are to play finals. In the remaining five games, South Adelaide play, Port Adelaide, Sturt, West Adelaide and Woodville West Torrens. They will likely need to win at least three of these games. In their losses South Adelaide's midfield in that of Brooksby, Heaslip and Sampson have not been able to connect with their forwards. As such, they have the fourth lowest score for. In last week's game against Glenelg, the Panthers won clearances, inside 50's and disposals. This has not been a commonality this season. As such, South Adelaide will need to repeat these areas this week so they can generate scoring opportunities.

The last time these sides met, Norwood were seven-point losers. Unfortunately for Norwood fans, I think history may repeat itself. Although the Redlegs are playing superb football and are arguably the most in-form side in the competition, a side playing for their season is hard to tip against. Therefore, against my better judgement, I think emotion of playing finals footy will prevail and see the Panthers win.

South Adelaide by 1-12.

Sturt Win to Continue Push for Finals

Round 15 of the 2022 SANFL Season heads to X Convenience Oval for a clash between Central Districts and Sturt. Both sides come into this one in good form, winning their last 2 games. Centrals currently sit in 8th and will need more than a miracle to play finals whereas Sturt sit in 6th and are only percentage away from 4th spot meaning a win could give them a great chance at being in the top 5 by the rounds end.

by Oliver Alyanak

Central Districts are coming off a 29-point win against West Adelaide last weekend in a game that never really looked out of their control. It was goal-for-goal and within a 2-goal margin up until the midway point of the second quarter where the Bulldogs kicked away and never looked back. Centrals had less disposals but were far more efficient, making sure that every disposal put themselves in a better position to score than the last. They lost clearances but equalled out inside 50s further highlighting this. West Adelaide didn't emphasise getting the ball inside 50 enough and Centrals were able to capitalise on any turnovers and turn them into scores. Justin Hoskin and Travis Schiller were at their usual best, racking up 28 and 24 disposals respectively. Hoskin also had 25 kicks out of his 28 touches, highlighting Centrals' want to get the ball forward. Up forward Nicholas Lange (5.1) and Ethan East (4.0) were unstoppable kicking 9 of Centrals' 12 goals between them.

Sturt on-the-other-hand recorded a fantastic win against one of the flag fancies, Adelaide by 11 points at Unley Oval. Adelaide kicked the first goal of the game through Elliott Himmelberg and after that it was one way traffic. Sturt piled on the next 8 goals until Himmelberg got Adelaide's second goal halfway through the second quarter. By that stage Sturts lead was out to 43 points and it looked like the match could only go one way. Adelaide didn't believe that and fought back kicking 4 goals in the last 9 minutes of the quarter to only trail by 17 points at the main break. The game continued to swing in momentum and eventually scoring died down in the last quarter and Adelaide couldn't finish off what would have been a memorable comeback. The Double Blues got smashed in clearances but managed to level out clearances which was especially useful during their 8-goal run. Guy Page was huge all day recording 27 disposals and 15 marks, repelling anything that went inside 50 for Adelaide. James Battersby was good again with 28 disposals and lead the way in trying to nullify Adelaide's ruck advantage. Tom Emmett kicked 3 goals while Abe Davis chipped in with 2 of his own.

These two sides have a strange recent history with their being some massive blowouts and some very close encounters. Either way Sturt have the upper hand, winning 4 of the last 5 games. Most recently they played in round 6 this season and Sturt won by a whopping 98 points. Sturt managed to kick 20 goals and 15 behinds and with that scoreline you aren't going to lose many games of footy let alone have them be close. Sturt led by 64 points at quarter time and then put Centrals away in the last term kicking 47 points to 13. On that day Schiller was probably best on ground despite the result with 26 disposals, 2 goals and 12 tackles. Casey Voss was also good with 24 disposals and 2 goals. Abe Davis kicked 4 goals with Josh Hone and James Richards both kicking 3. This game looks like it could be heading in a similar direction considering what is at stake for both sides.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.
