Magpies hold on against brave Adelaide

Collingwood has held on against a spirited Adelaide outfit to record an eighth consecutive victory and give Scott Pendlebury a celebration to remember in his 350th match.

After a poor showing the previous week, Adelaide jumped out of the blocks kicking the first three goals of the game before the Magpies worked into the contest to lead by five points at quarter time.

In wet & windy conditions both sides cracked in all day in what was an extremely physical contest. A combined 233 tackles the proof in the pudding, plenty of players would have been nursing sore spots after the bruising encounter.

When Mitch Hinge kicked his first goal at the 21-minute mark of the third term to push the Adelaide lead towards three goals an upset looked on the cards before two late Magpie goals setup an exciting last term.

Best on Ground Nick Daicos kicked the first two goals of the final term and Jamie Elliot put the Magpies three goals clear before late goals to Lachlan Murphy and Taylor Walker set up a thrilling finale with the Magpies managing to hold on.

Taylor Walker who earlier in the week signed a contract extension was the pick of the forwards kicking five goals while three goals for the much-maligned Lachlan Murphy equalled his career best.

The efforts of Riley Thilthorpe would have pleased the coaching staff. The 20-year-old kicked a goal, had a chance to kick a couple more but competed strongly and 17 disposals is his highest disposal game this season.

It was not a win but there was plenty to like in how the Crows attacked the contest.

Next up- Sydney at the SCG. My tip- Sydney by 17 points.

Dees flick of Power finals light

It is finals deam over for Port Adelaide Power on the back of Kysiah Pickett's career-best six-goal haul at Alice Springs' picturesque TIO Traeger Park on Sunday afternoon.

Pickett was the difference in the game as the Melbourne Demons returned to the winner's list - 12.11 (83) to 10.9 (69).

The Power will basically have to win the remaining five games to stand any chance of making the AFL finals.

Port looked in a strong position as Port booted three straight goals to jump out to a 10-point early in the third quarter.

Dan Houston, the light-footed Connor Rozee and Karl Amon gave Port plenty of drive through the middle of Traeger Park while veteran Travis Boak's hard running was for all to see at the Red Centre.

The ruck tandem of Charlie Dixon and Jeremy Finlayson gave gun Demon skipper Max Gawn and young superstar Luke Jackson more than a contest.

But the reigning premiers flexed its midfield muscle and with the magic of Pickett to the mix with goals five and six, the Dees were on their way with seven straight goals prior to the Power adding some respectability late to narrow the margin.

Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley was in Adelaide due to COVID and forward coach Nathan Bassett took the helm.

He said Port's poor ball use - and Pickett - were the main reasons the team lost.

"We lost control of the ball as much as anything else," he explained after the game.

"Our fumbling and our ball use was quite poor in the back half of the second quarter.

"We were able to right the ship again early in the third and then probably the defence - we missed some tackles, weren't able to hold up in the contest and Melbourne kicked seven unanswered goals, which was the difference."

Port face another premiership contender in Geelong Cats at Adelaide Oval this Saturday in a twilight match.

Roosters to clip Eagles wings

Both the Eagles and Roosters are coming of losses after an eventful round 15. The Eagles were kept scoreless by Glenelg in the first quarter of their fixture at Glenelg Oval. Despite Glenelg kicking with the breeze in the opening quarter, the Eagles couldn't manage a major, when it was their chance to kick with the wind in the second quarter.

The Eagles had 4 behinds on the scoreboard at half time and the game was over. Connor Ballenden managed to kick three goals for the game, and help put some respectability on the scoreboard.

The Eagles won most of the of key stats except for inside 50's. They lost them by 20, a massive number which highlighted the efficiency of Glenelg when transitioning from defence to attack.

North Adelaide had a difficult task against the Crows in Whyalla. The Roosters lead the contest at quarter time by 13 points. Jacob Surjan's team had 9 scoring shots in the first quarter for a return of 2 goals 7 behinds. This was quite wasteful and hurt the Roosters. Adelaide had their turn with the breeze in the second quarter and kicked 6 goals 9 behinds to North Adelaide's solitary behind.

Whilst the Crows were also wasteful, a 31-point half time lead was too much ground for the Roosters to make up. The Roosters did hit back in the third quarter and trailed by only 8 points at the last break. Similar to the second quarter, the Roosters failed to kick a goal in the last quarter and the Crows recorded a 27-point victory.

It really is tight at the top of the ladder with the top 3 teams all on 10 wins with four rounds to go. North is coming of two consecutive losses and will desperate to secure their eleventh win.

For the Eagles, there is a chance to qualify for the final five. They are one win outside the five and will have to win all four remaining games to make the major round.

The Rooster will get the job done on Sunday, and take a step closer to the double chance.

MY TIP: Rooster by 24-36 points

Crows to Crease Redlegs Record

Adelaide is playing Norwood this week at Coopers Stadium. These two teams are both in sublime form. Norwood have won seven of their last eight games, while Adelaide have won four of their last five. As such, the match is poised to be a contest of attrition. A contest which can ultimately decide the outcome of the season, as Norwood are in fourth, while the Crows are first. Therefore, Norwood are playing for both finals contention and a top two finish. Comparatively, Adelaide is looking to secure a double chance for the upcoming finals series four weeks away.

by William McShane

Adelaide have been arguably the most consistent side of the season. They have been in the top three every game this year. In their most recent clash, the Crows defeated an impressive North Adelaide unit, who were first leading into the game. The Crows were more effective when they had the football, operating at 80 per cent and having a scoring accuracy of 40 per cent. This efficiency and ability to score has become a feature of Adelaide's game style this season. They have the highest score for in the competition. Coach, Michael Godden, must think to himself at times how easy coaching is when you have experienced forwards in your team in that of Matthew Wright and Elliot Himmelberg. Wright averages 2.3 goals a game and Himmelberg 1.7. According to AFL champion data his is elite. Unfortunately, for the Crows Norwood are the greatest defensive side in the SANFL, conceding only 64 points a game. If Adelaide are to continue their winning form, they will need to prevent the run Norwood generate from their defensive 50. Adelaide have not had more rebound 50's than an opposition side since Round 9. Although these statistics can be inflated due to the Crows winning inside 50's, it is nonetheless a weakness of theirs and potentially exploited against Norwood. In these two sides last outing Norwood had more rebound 50's. Conversely, the Redlegs will need to be meticulous in their preparation to account for the Crows midfield arsenal. Crouch, Turner and Sholl are all respected players amongst the competition and are what SANFL fans might coin as ball magnets. Tussling for AFL selection, these players are capable of challenging Norwood's formidable midfield.

Norwood have not lost a game since Round 9. They have also been one of the most consistent sides. Fourth position does not truly reflect Norwood's impressive season. The Redleg's have lost five games this year. Of these five clashes their average losing margin is 12. They have not been convincingly beaten by any side this season. In their most recent victory against South Adelaide, it was Norwood's youth who stood. Hamilton, Kennerly, McClean, Nelligan and Jarvis are among others in a young list at Norwood. These players are beginning to blossom and it starting to become identifiable in their win-loss record. In the Redleg's last three weeks, they have won disposals, contested marks and have generated over 30 rebound 50's each week. Surprisingly, Norwood have not had more inside 50's than the opposition the past two weeks, however, due to their ball use and improving ability to win contested football, the Redleg's have still been able to score prolifically.

This match could be won by either side. One team playing for a spot in finals and possibly a top two position. Another playing for a double chance in the finals series with a friendly fixture to finish the season. The last time these teams played, Norwood won in a close game. Lightning does not strike twice.

Adelaide by 1-12.

Sturt Primed for Finals, Beat Panthers in Unley

Round 16 of the 2022 SANFL Season heads to Unley Oval for a clash between Sturt and South Adelaide. Sturt currently sit in 5th and are coming off a close win. Contrarily, South Adelaide are in 7th and are coming off a close loss. Both sides have a lot to play for, Sturt can secure themselves in the top 5 with a win while South just about need to win every game from here to feature in finals.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Sturt are coming off a tough trip to Elizabeth where they came out victorious by 4-points over Central Districts. The game started slowly, both sides only kicking one goal in the first quarter. Sturt then kicked away in the second to lead by 19 points at half time. Sturt held this lead for most of the game until Centrals made a comeback late, but it wasn't enough. Ultimately it was Centrals game to lose, the kicked 6 goals and 16 behinds, shooting themselves in the foot at most opportunities they got. In the last quarter alone, they kicked 2.5 to Sturt's one goal and really should have stolen the win. Further underlining this is the fact that Sturt got smashed in both clearances and inside 50s which shows how lucky they were to end up with the 2 points. Casey Voss was one of Sturt's best again with 22 disposals, 21 of them being kicks and rebounded a lot of Centrals' inside 50s. Guy Page also had a similar day with 27 disposals. Up forward Tom Emmett continued his good run of form with 3 goals.

South Adelaide on-the-other-hand are coming off a tough 3-loss to Norwood in Noarlunga. This was a huge game for the Panthers with a win only leaving them 1 game outside the top 5. That didn't pan out, however, and instead find themselves 3 games outside a finals position and their season hanging by a thread. The game was very close throughout the day with both sides basically having a half in front. South trailed by 9 points at the main break and then turned that around in the 3rd quarter to lead by 7 points at 3-quarter time. They lead by 11 points halfway through the last quarter until Norwood kicked the last 2 goals of the match to run away with the win. South Adelaide dominated clearances, leading by over 20 but couldn't translate that into inside 50s with that stat being even at 40 apiece. This wouldn't be pleasing for the Panthers given most of the time they had first use of it out of stoppages. Matthew Broadbent was good with 29 disposals and 8 rebound 50s. Ben Heaslip was also influential with 24 disposals, 9 tackles and 10 clearances. Inside 50, Hayden Sampson (3 goals) and Ryan Garthwaite (2 goals) were the only multiple goal kickers of the match.

Over the past few years these two sides have played in some great contests. Overall Sturt have won 4 of the last 5 and South Adelaide haven't won in Unley since 2018. Last time they met was in round 3 this year where Sturt won by 18 points. Mitch O'Neill was the best on ground for South Adelaide with 38 disposals while Patrick Wilson was good for Sturt with 19 disposals and 2 goals in what was a even team contribution. Both sides have plenty to play for this time around, however, Sturt look to have the upper hand and at home they should be too strong once again.
