Adelaide gives Carlton the Blues

Adelaide has put forward one of their best performances of the year to comfortably defeat Carlton by 29 points Saturday night at Adelaide Oval.

The Crows looked the better side for most of the contest, but the scoreboard remained tight in the first half with Carlton leading by three points at quarter time and Adelaide holding a slender four-point lead at half-time.

The match was delicately poised with Adelaide leading by 15 points at three quarter time, but an exciting finale did not ensue.

Carlton kicked the first goal of the final term, but Adelaide held their nerve booting four of the last five goals of the contest in a great team performance to register win number six of the season.

Patrick Cripps & Sam Walsh were prolific for the Blues gathering 81 disposals, but the Crows midfield managed to win plenty of ball themselves led by Brodie Smith & Rory Laird.

The normally prolific Ben Keays spent most the game in a tagging forward role on Adam Saad and was particularly impressive booting a career high three goals. Taylor Walker and Darcy Fogarty also contributed another five goals.

The Adelaide defensive unit minus Tom Doedee deserves a special shoutout for their job in restricting Charlie Curnow and Harry McKay to a combined three goals.

Another positive, Wayne Milera played arguably his best game of the season. The 24-year-old was lively with 19 disposals, a goal and eight score involvements.

There has been much scrutiny throughout the season on how the Crows rebuild is tracking along. Senior Coach Matthew Nicks was obviously delighted after the game. "Enjoy it and embrace what it is were building, because we saw it tonight"

Next up for Adelaide- West Coast at Optus Stadium.

My tip- Adelaide- 9 points and I'll add in a Rising Star Nomination for Jake Soligo.

F-Word marks the spot

It's the F-word that has three different meanings, maybe four for Port Adelaide Power and Collingwood Magpie supporters. The F-word for the Power and Pies faithful may be used in different context. Finals and 'f--- yeah' for the Collingwood Football Club and something more rude and crude for Port's players, coaching staff and supporters. Oh, and frustration is the other word for all who are attached to Port. The Magpies prevailed in an enthralling contest at a cold but sunny MCG 13.10 (88) to 12.10 (82) on Saturday afternoon.

by Nick Kossatch

'F--- another close loss against a premiership contender', would be the catch-cry among Port's fanbase. All on the back of a mixture of exhilarating football in the first quarter by the Power which sliced with dash and dare to open the Pies up on way to a 25-point lead. As Collingwood have done so well this season - and in its 10th win in a row - the team wore Port down and kicked eight of the next nine goals to lead by 21 points just before three-quarter-time.

The Power, led superbly by Sam Powell-Pepper and the light-footed and classy Connor Rozee, staged another comeback and even had the chance to draw the game. As so often in the crunch moments, a series of errors presented the Pies to ice the game in Port Adelaide captain Tom Jonas' and Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines' 200th games. As painful as another close loss was, the class and composure of Jase Burgoyne included a pressure goal deep in the final term was a massive positive.

Miles Bergman continues to grow at AFL level and he used the ball well as did Lachlan Jones.

Zak Butters played one of his best games for the Power in a game where some of the umpire decisions were questionable at best.

Frustrated Port coach Ken Hinkley said the game typified the club's season.

"It's the season that we've had this year...been close but not good enough," Hinkley said. "Our results where we have not been able to win, has put us exactly where we are."

In all honesty, Collingwood supporters had every reason to be 'effed' off with most of the decisions.

However, another close loss by Port, has the Alberton Crowd using the 'F' word in a 'what could have been theme'.

Roosters to cement top spot

This fixture is the match of the round, as the top two sides try to cement a double chance come finals. Both sides had victories in Round 16 and have a gap to the third & fourth placed Crows and Redlegs.

The Roosters were magnificent against the Eagles a fortnight ago at Prospect Oval. The match was over at half time and the Roosters only conceded three goals after half time. The Roosters had many match winners everywhere.

Magarey Medallist Campbell Coombe was brilliant with 32 possessions and 12 tackles in a best on ground performance. Even more impressive was the spread of goal kickers. The Roosters had 5 multiple goal kickers in their 48-point win.

The Tigers did enough to defeat West Adelaide and record back-to-back wins after an indifferent month of football. It was a struggle for the Tigers, and for the second time this season, West Adelaide pushed them all day.

In the end, a little more class saw the Tigers get the two points. Corey Lyons and Matthew Snook were the glue that allowed Glenelg to record their eleventh victory of the season. Glenelg should be boosted by the return of 2019 Magarey Medallist Luke Partington, from concussion.

These two teams met back in round six, and what a contest it was. It was high scoring with the Roosters recording a two-point victory. On that day back in May, Keenan Ramsey finished with five goals and Aaron Young managed three of his own. For the Tigers, Liam Mc Bean finished with Five and Hugh Stagg slotted four.

The match wasn't decided until the 26-minute mark of the last quarter when Aaron Young kicked his third for the afternoon. Let's hope we get a repeat of the closeness of the contest, and a cracking game on Saturday

I have no doubt, the winner of this clash will finish top of the table, and cast an eye ahead the second semi-final. The ramifications for both the victor and loser are tantalising.

If you can, get to the Bay on Saturday, you won't regret it.

MY TIP: Rooster by 1-7 points

Crows Capitalise on Complacent Eagles

As the seasons end fast approaches, vacancies in the top five are beginning to diminish. Therefore, this week's contest between Adelaide and Woodville-West Torrens is pivotal in the context of the season. Can the reigning premiers, Woodville scrape their way to a finals berth or will they be rejected by a consistent Adelaide side who are battling for a double chance? The Eagles past two months have been bleak. They have won only two of their last six matches. Comparatively, Adelaide has won four of their last six. This contrast between the two sides has been apparent all season as the Crows have constantly shown promise, while Woodville has continually battled for finals contention.

by William McShane

The Eagles are one win outside the top five. They play Adelaide, Sturt and South Adelaide in their run home. Three season defining games. Three games that could go either way. On the weekend Woodville were 48-point losers to a wounded North Adelaide side. The Eagles were beaten in nearly every aspect of match play. They convincingly lost the disposal count, marks, disposal efficiency, tackles, clearances and inside 50's. Had North Adelaide have capitalised better, they would have won by over 10 goals. The Eagles have a tendency to overuse the football. In their four respective losses, in the last six games, they have had less kicks than the opposition every match. Interestingly, they had more handballs in each of these losses. They are electing to run the football, as opposed to playing direct effective football, which massively contributed to them winning last seasons grand final. Further, the Eagles have been ineffective in their transition to the forward half as they have lost disposal efficiency in such losses. Woodville also lost marks, contested marks, tackles and inside 50's over this period. This exemplifies that their recent form has not been to the standard the competition demands. As such, coach Micheal Godden will call upon his experience Riley Knight, Menzel, Goldsworthy and Firns to get them out of this form slump. There are great weaknesses in their game which they will need to quickly rectify if they are to defeat one of the strongest sides in the competition.

Although Adelaide lost on the weekend, they have been impressive this season. They currently sit third, and with a potential top two finish they are looking one of the danger sides of the competition. The Crows have the highest score for in the SANFL. This forward arsenal the Crows possess will make the Eagles nervous, as the Eagles have the highest score against, out of the top seven teams. Through the AFL talent in that of Rowe, Himmelberg, Wright and Frampton, who are irregularly in the league side, Adelaide has the most potent forward line in the competition. In the last three weeks Adelaide's scoring accuracy has been higher than their opposition. Despite having an unpredictable line up every week, due to AFL selection, the Crows have been one of the most consistent sides. They have not slipped below third all season. If they can win on the weekend, they will likely surpass Glenelg or North Adelaide with their superior percentage.

The last time these sides met, the Crows were 33-point victors. While the Eagles season teeters on this match, the likelihood of them winning is low. They will need to ultimately fix six separate areas of their game: efficiency, control, ball winning, contested football, overuse and inside 50's. As most ships will be able to tell you, a bail can only remove so much water out of a sinking ship. As such, Adelaide should win this game in clinical fashion.

Adelaide by 24-36.

Sturt Bounce Back in tight clash with Magpies

Round 17 of the SANFL season heads to Unley Oval for the second week in a row for a clash between Sturt and Port Adelaide. Sturt currently sit in 5th position and are coming off a loss to South Adelaide which could be costly in the run home to finals. Port Adelaide sit in 9th and recorded their 4th win of the season last weekend against Centrals. Sturt have plenty to play for in this one in regard to securing a finals position while Port will be keen to finish the season on a better note than what it's been played at for the most part.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Sturt fell to South Adelaide by 6-points last Saturday in a game that could have meant that they would be tied with 3rd for points had they have won. Instead, they are back in the pack fighting for finals, however, still a game clear of the Eagles below them. Sturt started well, leading by 16-points at halftime in what was a low scoring game. They then only managed 2 behinds in the 3rd quarter while South narrowed the gap to 8 points. The Panthers then ran away with it in the last quarter, kicking 4 goals to 2 to secure the win. It was a tight game across the board with all of the key stats being just about shared between the two sides. Casey Voss was prominent again, recording 33 disposals, 24 of them being kicks along with 13 marks. Guy Page had similar numbers with 26 disposals and 11 marks as those 2 repel most opposition inside 50s each week. Both Malachy Carruthers and Tom Emmett both kicked 2 goals, a good effort considering Sturt only managed 7 goals for the match.

Port Adelaide on-the-other-hand are coming off a good win against similarly positioned Central Districts at Maughen Thiem Kia Oval. Both sides started slowly, each just recording the 1 goal by quarter time. The game slowly opened up from there, however, it stayed tight up until the last quarter where Port put their foot down and kicked away to a comfortable 23-point win. Port had 15 more inside 50s which ultimately proved too many for Centrals to handle by the end of the game, allowing the flood gates to open and Port to kick away. Aiding Port for this game was the inclusion of a number of players back from injury or the AFL team which they haven't had the luxury of having for a number of weeks. Headlining those inclusions was Orazio Fantasia who kicked 3 goals and got through unscathed as far as we can tell for now. Sam Mayes led disposals with 29 while Jackson Mead was also good with 25 touches. With a lot of these players including Brynn Teakle and Xavier Duursma getting a much-needed run into the legs it will interesting to see how many are called up to the AFL side for this week.

Over the past few years, it has been pretty even between these two sides with Sturt winning 3 of the last 5, however, they have won the last 3 encounters. Most recently, Sturt went to Alberton and got the job done by 13 points. Port led by 14 points mid-way through the 3rd quarter, however, Sturt flew home with the last 4 goals to win. Patrick Wilson was huge for Sturt with 32 disposals and 2 goals while Xavier Duursma was Port's best with 27 disposals and a goal. This game definitely has potential to be close again especially considering some of the players that Port is starting to get back through injury. In saying that, Sturt have so much to play for and you would expect them to bounce back after a tough loss last week.

Norwood Run the Dogs out of the Park

The Redlegs kept their top 5 chances alive with a victory against the ladder leaders, Adelaide, at Norwood Oval last week end, triumphing 8.17 65 to 7.11 53 to win by 9 points. Versatile small forward, Xavier Tranfa booted 2 goals and gathered 13 possessions to lead his team to victory, he was helped by Declan Hamilton (31 and 3 clearances) and reigning Norwood Best and Fairest winner, Nikolaus Rokhar (31 and 1 goal). Adelaide's attempt to end the Redlegs 6 game winning streak was squandered but helped by the likes of Jackson Hateley who had 33 possessions and eight clearances.

by Jakob Matheson

Central Districts played Port Adelaide at Woodville Oval with the latter being the home team as Alberton Oval was getting renovated for the AFLW season. After a close opening quarter which saw both teams score 1.3 each, a four goal to two second term was the difference as Port Adelaide ran away with the 11.8 74 to 7.9 51 victory, winning by 23 points. Kyle Presbury racked up 24 disposals, while Nicholas Lange booted 3.0 and Aiden Grace, 2.3. Jarrod Schiller was his ever reliable self, racking up 19 disposals and 10 marks to go with 1 goal.

Norwood will be looking to continue their hot run of form as they go for their 9th win from the last 10 games, when they travel to Elizabeth Oval to do battle the Bulldogs, who will be looking to end the Legs winning streak and cause an upset heading into the final month of the season.

My tip: Norwood by 15 points

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.
