Crows win in the West

The Adelaide Crows have recorded consecutive wins for only the second time this season with a 16-point win over West Coast in a highly entertaining clash at Optus Stadium.

In his final AFL game, Eagle Josh Kennedy was the star of the show finishing with eight goals, but Adelaide withheld a spirited West Coast outfit to celebrate Rory Laird's 200th AFL game.

There was plenty of positives for Adelaide to take from the game. Laird was best for Adelaide in his milestone game with 36 disposals, two goals and seven score involvements.

Darcy Fogarty was the second-best key forward on the ground booting four goals.

Mitchell Hinge is starting to look more comfortable at AFL level. The 24-year-old finished with a goal and 21 disposals, his highest disposal game at AFL level.

The Adelaide rebuild has come under scrutiny at different times this year. With games against North Melbourne and Port Adelaide to finish the campaign, the opportunity is there for Adelaide to finish the season strongly and significantly finish the season with more wins than the previous year.

It's down time as Port clock out 2022

It's official.

After a season of missed opportunities, Port Adelaide Power have clocked out with two regulation games of the season remaining.

by
Nick Kossatch

Conversely, the Richmond Tigers have almost assured itself of a finals berth after dismantling the Power at a wet and windy Adelaide Oval 16.13 (109) to 10.11 (71) as power forward Tom Lynch and the mercurial Shai Bolton booted four goals apiece.

The first half was a typical Port v Richmond tight affair but it was the third quarter when the Tigers effectively clocked into finals mode and the hosts checked out with 'downtime'. The 2017, 2019-20 premiers kicked 7.4 to 3.3 in the premiership term.

Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines and lion-hearted Travis Boak were the Power's best players by far while Charlie Dixon and Jeremy Finlayson alternated between being key forward pillars - in the absence of Todd Marshall (COVID protocol) - and stints in ruck against impressive Toby Nankervis.

Midfield gun Connor Rozee's knee injury impacted his game after he had strung together two months of 'top three best player games' for the Power.

It was the lack of height and the Tigers' superior wet-weather ball handling skills that was the massive difference between the teams. The home loss again puts mounting pressure on Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley after the team lost its fourth game on the trot and fifth Power failure in six games. He said Richmond feasted on the big moments while the Power wilted.

"There were some critical parts of the game that we were beaten badly in," Hinkley said. "We had plenty of opportunities but in the contest itself, they were cleaner with the ball, they were certainly more effective away with the ball, they were able to take territory off us, which is a really big part of our game and we usually do it reasonably well. "Richmond was able to be stronger and better organised around the ball than us. "We played a game that was pretty good until half time and then they were able to dominate the game to take the game away from us. "They gave us some turnovers but they had more polish and they were certainly able to put more scoreboard pressure on us."

Port play Essendon Bombers under the roof at Marvel Stadium next Sunday in the final game of the penultimate regular season.

Eagles

Sturt

Maughan Thiem Kia Oval - 6.30pm (Saturday)

Sturt to push for Double Chance

Sturt sit in an Elimination finals position as we head into the penultimate round of season 2022.

Sturt took care of the Magpies last Saturday at Wigan Oval to maintain fifth spot on the ladder. Abe Davis continued his solid form with three goals. He was ably supported by Tom Emmett who kick three majors of his own.

by
Nick Smith

Sturt's defence was outstanding restricting the Magpies to just one goal at half time. Despite Port winning the second half, Sturt were never challenged and will go into this weekend's clash against last years premiers, without any fear. Sturt were excellent across all major key stats, but the one that stands out is scoring accuracy. Sturt finished with 65% accuracy compared to the Magpies 37%.

James Battersby and Casey Voss were the major disposal winners, pleasingly both kicked more than they handballed and a high efficiency.

Sturts opponents, the Eagles, are coming of a disappointing loss against the inform Crows. The Eagles were in touch at quarter time as scores were level. The difference was ten goals by the Crows to the Eagles four, in the second half. Discarded Crow Fisher McAsey and Lachlan Gollant, finished with three goals each. Matthew Goldsworthy and Will Pearce were the only major goal kickers for the Eagles. Disappointingly the Eagle's scoring accuracy was only 38%. Riley Knight finished with 35 disposals and six tackles.

The Eagles need everything to go right to qualify for the finals. It starts with defeating the fourth placed Sturt who are two games clear of the Eagles. Whilst mathematically, the Eagles have a chance, reality suggests that they will miss the finals, and start preparing for season 2023.

Ken Farmer medal favourite Daniel Menzel has been a highlight this year with 47 goals. He is the only Eagle in the top 10 goalkickers for this season.

Apart from Menzel, the Eagles have struggled to score this year. Their percentage of just 49.76, is reflective of the lack of scoring power. This is the lowest percentage of any top 6 side.

Sorry Eagles fans, Sturt will make it two wins in a row, and cement a finals berth.

MY TIP: Sturt by 15-25 points

Panthers Produce Power Outage

In a dead rubber contest, Port Adelaide will play South Adelaide this week. Both sides cannot play finals, nor can they get the illustrious wooden spoon. The Power sit ninth on the ladder, with only potential to elevate to eighth, while South Adelaide are seventh. Although the Panthers mathematically can still make the top 5, they will need a Steven Bradbury-like miracle. The last time these sides met, the Panthers were 10-point victors. While both these sides are essentially playing for nothing, the contest is poised to be excruciatingly close.

South Adelaide have been mediocre in season 2022. In their most recent clash, South Adelaide were defeated by bottom of the ladder West Adelaide. This was their ninth loss of the season and their twelfth game decided by under two goals. Despite the Panthers poor win-loss ratio, their season could have been vastly different. South Adelaide's average losing margin is 15. When push has come to shove, the Panthers have been unexceptional. In the weekends loss, South were convincingly beaten around the football as their opposition had 67 more disposals and four more clearances. This has become a concern for coach Jarrad Wright, as the Panthers have had fewer disposals than their opposition two of the past three weeks. Similarly, South Adelaide's application of pressure has been secondary, losing the tackle count two of the last three weeks. Surprisingly, the Panthers have had more inside 50's than their opposition in this time frame. Through Sampson, Broadbent, Haines and Brooksby the Panthers have driven the ball forward. Unfortunately, South Adelaide are only an average side at converting such inside 50's into major scores. In fact, this directly reflects South Adelaide's ladder position as they are the seventh best side at converting inside 50's into goals. If the Panthers are to beat the Power, they will need to rectify their inefficiency in the forward half and their lack of pressure on the ball carrier.

Comparatively, the Power have won four matches this season. These four matches have been useful reprieve to what has been a dismal season. Unfortunately, Port fans have had little to cheer about in the past seven matches winning only one match. In recent weeks, the Port Adelaide defence has been far from impenetrable as their average score against (in the past seven games) has been 87. The average winning margin in the AFL last season was 67. Further, the bleeding in the Port Adelaide game is not strictly in defence. The Power have the lowest score for in the entire competition. In the past month, Port Adelaide have kicked 29 goals. Of these 29 goals, there have been 16 different goal kickers. This is arguably promising as multiple players are getting involved in the scoring. However, it is also a sign that the Power have an unsettled forward structure and as such have failed to effectively kick goals despite an adequate supply (189 inside 50's over this four-week period).

Both sides have fundamental weaknesses in their game. Yet while the Panthers do recognise they have major limitations, their ability to compete with the premier sides has been admirable. In contrast, the Power have been inconsistent with both the top and bottom sides. Therefore, due to Port Adelaide's inconsistency coupled with their innate inability to score and prevent scores, they will not win. Instead, the Panthers will likely ensure victory.

South Adelaide by 36-48.

North 1 Step Away From Minor Premiership With Win Over West Adelaide

by
Oliver Alyanak

The penultimate round of the 2022 SANFL home and away season heads to Prospect Oval for a clash between North Adelaide and West Adelaide, two sides at opposite ends of the table. North sit a game clear in first with 12 wins while West Adelaide sit a game clear in last with 2 wins. A win for North could see them take out the minor premiership if Adelaide loses, however, more realistically will see them move 1 game away from securing it.

North Adelaide is coming off a very convincing win away from home against Glenelg in what was a 1st vs 2nd clash heading into it. The game started off relatively close with Glenelg leading by 7 points at quarter time. After that, however, it was one way traffic with the Roosters kicking 11.6 to 4.6 over the next two quarters to easily run away with a 51-point win. Glenelg were very wayward all day ending up with 7 goals and 15 behinds which stopped them from keeping the game close and therefore giving themselves a chance. All of the key stats were only slightly in North Adelaide's favour showing how much accuracy played a factor. Campbell Combe was terrific all day, finishing with 26 disposals, 8 clearances and a whopping 20 tackles. Aaron Young was also at his best with 27 disposals, 9 inside 50s and 2 goals. Up forward Nigel Lockyer was instrumental with 4 goals while Frank Szekely and Tyson Brazel both kicked 3 each as well.

West Adelaide is also coming off a great result, recording their 2nd win of the season over South Adelaide at Hisense Stadium. The game started off close with West Adelaide leading by 6 points at the main break. South Adelaide then kicked away to lead by as much as 26 points 5 minutes into the last quarter. From there the Bloods dug deep and managed to kick the last 5 goals of the game to run over the top of the Panthers by 5 points. Like Glenelg, South Adelaide kicked poorly in front of goal all day, finishing with 8.15, and considering this game was far closer, it's fair to say that it was a major contributor in West Adelaide being able to run away with the 2 points. West Adelaide lead clearance but couldn't translate that into more inside 50s with South Adelaide leading that facet of the game. Even with South's inaccuracy, West Adelaide defence held up well and managed to repel a lot of the Panthers' forward entries. Jordon Boyle was the key to that, ending with 34 disposals and 8 rebound 50s while Jackson Edwards had 32 disposals, 9 inside 50s and a goal. Up forward, Josh Gore and Nick Steele were West Adelaide's only multiple goal kickers with 2 apiece.

The recent history between these two sides is very one sided with North Adelaide winning 4 of the last 5 encounters and they have won 4 on the trot to be more specific. They faced off earlier this year and it was one way traffic. West Adelaide only managed 35 points, while North recorded 30 scoring shots. It ended up being a 70-point win, however, it could have been a whole lot more. Now Collingwood Magpie, Josh Carmichael had a nearly day kicking 1.4 from 21 disposals for West Adelaide while Campbell Combe was huge again for North Adelaide with 30 disposals, 1 goal and 12 clearances. You would expect for the result to be similar again this time around with North looking to lock in first position.

Norwood

Coopers Stadium - 7.40pm (Friday)

Redlegs send Glenelg back to the Bay

Round 18 of the Hostplus SANFL season commences with a massive Friday Night blockbuster between Norwood and Glenelg at Norwood Oval on the Parade, with major finals implications surrounding both teams, as the winner looks to lock in a crucial double-chance and the final top-three spot. Norwood's red hot run of form continued at the weekend when they travelled to Elizabeth Oval and took down a fast finishing Central Districts outfit, 7.6 48 to 6.11 47 to win by 1 point. The win was the Redlegs' 7th in succession and 8th from their last 9 games, which sees them sit currently in equal 2nd on the ladder with both Adelaide and their opponents on Friday night, Glenelg, on 11 wins and 5 losses each.

by Jakob Matheson

Nikolaus Rokahr (33 possessions and 11 tackles), named the Coles Value Player, and Jay Rantall (30 and five clearances) were ball-magnets yet again for the visitors combining for 63 disposals as they were made to work hard all throughout the match as Central kept on pushing and pushing. Baynen Lowe, who was returning from appendicitis, booted two goals, as did Xavier Tranfa as the Redlegs were able to fight off a late Central District surge to pick up the two points. The home side would just not go away, trailing by as much as 18 points, six minutes into the fourth quarter, were able to get within 4 points, thanks to back-to-back goals from Kyle Presbury and Aiden Grace.

The Bulldogs even had a chance to hit the front in the 21st minute but were unable to as Isaiah Dudley unsuccessfully converted his set shot, and would only seconds later get a rushed behind, which would then bring the margin down to one point just as the final siren had sounded.

Billy Iles (17 disposals and a goal) and Kyle Presbury (16 disposals and one goal), were very solid in providing the ball-carrying across the lines for the hosts, as the Schiller brothers, (Travis and Jarrod), combined for 38 disposals and 12 clearances, with 26, and seven and 12, and five, respectively.

Glenelg, who lost to top-of-the-table, North Adelaide by 51 points, in a 16.12 108 to 7.15 57, will be looking to avenge themselves and secure that coveted double-chance with a victory over the Rampaging Redlegs on Friday night. Bays wingman, Matthew Allen (23 disposals, two goals) and veterans Andrew Bradley and Matthew Snook, 19 touches each, were only some of the few positives from a Glenelg outfit, who conceded six goals in the second term whilst only managing 1 goal from 5 shots themselves.

For Norwood, a victory on Friday night would not only propel them into the top-three but it would also mean they will be only 2 points behind league-leaders North Adelaide, with one game to go. The Redlegs also have not defeated Glenelg in their three previous meetings, dating back to last season, so it would be even sweeter of a victory. A victory for the Bays would also secure a top two finish and that coveted double-chance as well as put an end to Norwood's seven-game win streak.

My tip: Norwood by 3 points.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.
