Showdown Shocker

A lacklustre performance from Adelaide has seen Port Adelaide send Robbie Gray off in style with a comfortable 56-point victory.

In what was essentially a dead rubber the Port players had plenty to say in the leadup to the game but predictions of physical fireworks on field never came to fruition in a tame Showdown encounter.

At half-time the margin was only seven points, but the Power kicked 11 goals to three in the second half with Connor Rozee awarded the Showdown medal as best player on the field.

For Adelaide there were not a lot of positives, but Darcy Fogarty did well to kick three goals from limited supply.

Rory Laird, Jordan Dawson and Sam Berry all finished with over 20 disposals. Reilly O'Brien had fifty hit outs and seven clearances himself, but Port Adelaide still managed to win clearances 45-40.

Despite the poor showing Adelaide Coach Matthew Nicks is still optimistic with the improvement made in season 2022. "We have developed as a group. Some things we got to improve on. We are taking steps in the right direction"

Attention will now turn towards list management decisions and the potential acquisition of the exciting Izak Rankine.

Power smash Crows for Robbie

Port Adelaide Power edged two wins clear in the overall Showdown 52 tally to 27-25 wins in club great Robbie Gray's final game.

After a tight first half, Port pulled away to clinically dismantle Adelaide Crows 16.15 (111) to 7.13 (55).

The perfect Gray replacement Connor Rozee was awarded with the Showdown Medal for best afield in midfield while Todd Marshall finished off his breakout season in style with four goals.

Adelaide led the charge early but slowly and surely the packed out Adelaide Oval, in Port's 'home game', we're not going to be denied like it was in the earlier Showdown this year.

Ollie Wines backed up what he said in a spicy pre-game press conference.

He amassed 33 touches as did Rozee while Aliir Aliir dominated the Crows' Taylor Walker.

Zak Butters hardly wasted a possession and Karl Amon gave drive off a wing.

Port Adelaide will miss finals for the first time since 2019 but at least it ended the season with momentum and confidence to return, and cash in, in the finals race next season.

Glenelg

Sturt

Adelaide Oval - 12.15pm (Sunday)

Tigers to progress

What a finish to the minor round. The top three teams all lost their matches, which shows how even the final series will be.

We start with an elimination final between the Tigers and the Double Blues. Both these sides managed to secure a victory in round 19, to ensure they both meet in the first week of the finals.

Glenelg did it ugly and only managed to secure victory after Lachlan Hosie kicked his fourth goal in the 31st minute mark of the last quarter. Glenelg didn't lead at any stage of the match until Hosie snapped the match winner.

Luke Reynolds was also significant by kicking four goals of his own. The dynamic duo were the difference between the two sides as they kicked eight of Glenelg's twelve goals. Glenelg's six goals to three last quarter was so unexpected. Glenelg had only kicked six goals for the first three quarters.

Glenelg needed the win just get some confidence back heading into the finals. The Tigers had lost their previous two matches to both North Adelaide and Norwood.

Sturt finished the minor round with a gutsy 22-point win over the minor premiers North Adelaide. Sturt were magnificent all day. After quarter time, the Double Blues kicked eight goals to North Adelaide's four. The almost 3500 crowd rode every contest, and cheered on the home side all day.

Lachlan Burrows kicked three goals, he was well supported by Tom Emmett and Joshua Hone who kicked two goals each. Sturt played the muddy conditions really well. Sturt kicked the ball 277 times and only had 77 handballs.

Sturt have been inconsistent with their form particularly in the back half of the season. When these sides have met during the season, Glenelg has won both matches. Their most recent match in Round 10, saw the Tigers record a comfortable 67-point victory. Liam Mc Bean has kicked 8 goals against Sturt this season and will be a pivotal player come Sunday afternoon.

For the loser, there is no tomorrow, the winner will progress to the first Semi-Final. For both teams, the season comes down to this. Hopefully we have pleasant conditions and a high-quality contest. It will be tight, but I think the Tigers will prevail, to keep their premiership hopes alive.

Redemption for Redlegs

The time has come. Finals football is upon us. Five deserving sides looking to taste premiership glory. Of these five deserving sides, Norwood will play Adelaide in a final that will excite. Adelaide finished second, while the Redlegs placed third for the second year in a row. Both sides come into the final in relatively strong form, despite being upset in the last round by two bottom sides. Norwood are looking to redeem their efforts last year when they went out in straight sets, whereas the Crows have only ever played finals football twice. The winner of this blockbuster clash will go on to play North Adelaide next week, while the loser has a redemption match against the winner of fourth and fifth. As such, the fanatic nature of finals football is excitable. Any team can win, and any side can disappoint. It is this unpredictability which makes SANFL football so loveable.

by William McShane

Until the weekend, Norwood had won eight consecutive matches. This was disrupted on the weekend when they lost by one-point to bottom of the ladder, West Adelaide. The Redlegs form has been impeccable to this moment. Coach, Jade Rawlings, blueprint to success has been his defence. Norwood have the lowest score against in the competition. Through players such as Hamilton, Seymour, Donnelly and Heard, Norwood's defence has been able to effectively transition the ball forward. This effective transition is demonstrated by the club's disposal efficiency. In the past eight weeks, they have had a higher disposal efficiency than their opposition seven times. This has allowed their defenders to repel the ball forward. Similarly, in this period Norwood have won disposals, tackles, clearances and inside 50's six of eight weeks. This high level of pressure on the ball carrier, is a trait which Norwood have committed to all season. As such, opposition teams have struggled to score against their prominent defensive structures. Fortunately for Adelaide fans, the Crows are the best offensive team in the competition. Therefore, the outcome of this match is poised to be a mouth-watering contest, fought between two completely different game structures of offense and defence.

Adelaide's strength this season has been their ability to score and score big. Through Wright, Himmelberg and Gollant, who collectively average over five goals a game, Adelaide typically look dangerous when they get inside 50's. Further, coach, Matthew Godden will have a full list of players to choose from this week, as opposed to being bullied around by the unpredictable nature of AFL selection. In the past five weeks, the Crows ability to generate scores from turnover has been a staple of their game. In this period, Adelaide have lost rebound 50's once and won contested marks in every one of these games. This highlights the Crows willingness to drive the ball deep to contests, as they are confident their players forward of the ball will win. However, Norwood can potentially exploit the Crows lack of pressure in their defensive 50, as they have not won a tackle count in the past five weeks and have the second highest score against (of clubs playing finals).

The last time these sides met, Norwood were able to mitigate the Crows ability to score and therefore won by 12-points. Although Adelaide have been impressive this season and will have a full range of players to choose from, their inability to tackle, culminated with their poor pressure, is a major concern in finals football. Similarly, Adelaide's finals inexperience may become a factor, particularly when the Redlegs know how September feels. As a result, I believe Norwood will redeem their efforts from last season and win in a close battle.

Tight Game Sees Sturt Through to Semis

The 2022 SANFL Finals have arrived! And with it comes a great elimination final matchup between Glenelg and Sturt from Adelaide Oval. Glenelg are coming off a thrilling victory over Central District in the final home and away game, winning by 2 points. A loss there would have put them below Sturt, switching both sides' positions on the ladder. Sturt recorded a great home win against minor premiers, North Adelaide, showing that they are here to do some damage in the finals.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Glenelg overcame a gallant Central Districts side at home by 2 points in what was a great game throughout. Both sides started well, however, the Bulldogs left some goals on the field in the first quarter kicking 2 goals and 6 behinds, keeping the Bays in the game early. Centrals eventually got some kind of lead by 3 quarter time, leading by 17 points heading into final term. Glenelg then stormed home, kicking 6 of the last 9 goals, including 2 by Lachie Hosie in the final 5 minutes to steal an unlikely victory. Glenelg won both clearances and inside 50s, with that pressure eventually building up and reaching breaking point for the Centrals defence in the last quarter. The Bulldogs had more scoring shots, however, couldn't capitalise enough which proves costly in such close games. Matthew Snook had the most disposals on the ground with 27 to go along with his 7 clearances and 10 inside 50s. In the ruck Liam McBean held his own while also getting 22 disposals and 9 inside 50s. Up forward, Lachie Hosie was the hero with 4 goals, 3 in the last quarter, while Luke Reynolds also kicked 4.

Sturt on-the-other-hand were fantastic in a game that they would have thought they had to win before the game. Due to South Adelaide winning it turns out that they did need to win (or lose by a small margin) which is exactly what they did against a very good side in North Adelaide. The game see-sawed for the first quarter and a half, however, after that Sturt got the upper hand and managed to keep their lead above 2 goals for the rest of the game, answering any goals that North kicked. The game was very even around the contest with North narrowly leading clearances while Sturt narrowly lead inside 50s. The main difference between the two sides was the ball use. Sturt went at 73% disposal efficiency while North only went at 66%. It may seem like a small margin, however, over the course of a game that is quite a large difference and no doubt hindered North to play on their terms while also aiding Sturt's ability to force turnovers and score. Tom Lewis and James Battersby did the heavy lifting in the middle as usual with 26 and 25 disposals respectively. Lachlan Burrows kicked 3 goals while Tom Emmett and Josh Hone also chipped in with 2 goals each.

It's been one way traffic between these two sides recently with Glenelg winning the past 5 encounters. Most recently they dominated Sturt at the Bay in round 10 winning by 67 points. On that day Sturt had to wait until the 3rd quarter to register their first goal and it didn't get much better for them after that. Matthew Snook was the best player on the ground with 31 disposals and 2 goals while James Battersby had 27 touches for Sturt. Glenelg may go into this one as favourites based on history, however, Sturt have been playing some good footy lately, taking care of the top 2 teams in the last month.

The Redlegs Go Three and Zip over Adelaide in 2022

It is 2nd versus 3rd in this year's SANFL Hostplus Finals Series, as Adelaide will host Norwood at the Adelaide Oval on Sunday August 28, with the winner earning a week off and a spot in the Preliminary Final against Minor Premier, North Adelaide, and the loser plays the winner of the Elimination Final between Glenelg and Sturt, in the Semi Final the following week. Norwood tasted defeat for the first time in about two months going down to West Adelaide by one point at Richmond Oval at the weekend, losing 7. 14 56 to 8.9 57. The visitors were one man down on the interchange bench from about quarter-time, as young gun, Jed Spence got assisted off the ground after suffering a suspected knee injury, thus ending his season. The Redlegs, after half-time were only able to manage to kick 2 goals 6, including being held goalless in the fourth. Ben Jarvis and Connor Mclean each booted two goals with the latter also taking 8 marks, while Jay Rantall collected 29 disposals and Harry Boyd continues his excellent season racking up 25 possessions including 11 clearances. Jono Beech and Mitch Maguire combined for half their sides goals, booting 2 each, 200-gamer Logan Hill, in what was also his final game, had a quiet day in the office, collecting only 12 disposals. Joel Stevens (25 and 6 clearances) and Hamish Hartlett (24 and 14 tackles) were as influential as ever as Brad Gotch's men ended the season on a high, having won three of their last five, despite finishing with their third consecutive wooden spoon.

by Jakob Matheson

2nd-placed Adelaide, hosted traditional rivals, Port Adelaide at the Adelaide Oval over the weekend in what was a curtain-raiser to the Showdown. Port Adelaide were victorious in a thriller, winning by only three points, kicking 11.9 75 to the Crows' 10.12 72. Young teenager, Brynn Teakle booted four goals for the home side, as Trent Dumont collected 27 disposals and Captain Cameron Sutcliffe and Dante Visentini booted 2 majors each. Adelaide's Matt Crouch (41 disposals, 7 tackles and 8 clearances) and Billy Frampton (32 disposals and 14 marks) combined for 74 possessions, as Elliot Himmelberg booted 3 goals from a possible 6 (3.3), and Lachlan Gollant and Luke Pedlar kicked 2 goals each. The loss for the Crows means they end the minor rounds in 2nd, percentage ahead of Norwood, and will host the Redlegs in the Qualifying Final.

Despite falling just short over the weekend, the Redlegs enter this match having won eight of the last nine and could potentially welcome back up to four possible inclusions this weekend, with Mitchell Cotter, Matthew Nunn, Matthew Panos, and one of Cory Stockdale or Nikolaus Rohakr to return as well. Adelaide will be looking to avenge not only their loss over the weekend, but their two losses over the Redlegs during the year as they look to advance and potentially claim their first SANFL premiership. Norwood will also be looking to avenge their loss from the weekend as they will need to respond in a big way.

Going to be very close, exciting game, winner gets the week off and faces North Adelaide in the Preliminary Final in two weeks and the loser faces the winner of Glenelg versus Sturt in the Semi Final one week later.

My tip: Norwood by 5-10 points.
