COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was an integral part of our 2021 QAFI Premier League allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premier League success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”

Nick Malceski - Labrador Tigers Coach

Qualifying Final Preview: Melbourne vs Sydney

Week one of finals footy is here and Friday night should be a blockbuster with the reigning Premiers Melbourne hosting Sydney at the MCG.

Both sides have enjoyed great seasons to date as evidenced by finishing inside the top four and whoever is victorious is well placed for a Grand Final appearance with a week off and a home Preliminary Final.

Both sides go into the clash with reasonably healthy lists. Luke Jackson & Christian Salem were managed during the last game for the Demons against Brisbane, but both are expected to be available.

Tom McDonald made his long-awaited return for Casey in the VFL on the weekend and will provide Simon Goodwin another selection option during the finals campaign.

For Sydney, Tom Papley was subbed out of the round 23 clash with St Kilda due to concussion but the bye before the finals series has certainly worked in his favour and he will take his place in the selected side.

The last time the two sides faced off it was the Swans who were victorious at the MCG by 12 points in round 12. Sam Reid and Logan McDonald kicking three goals each in a high-pressure contest that we can expect to see replicated again Friday night.

Light up on the big stage

Both sides are packed with superstars of the game, and someone will further enhance their reputation with a big-time performance.

For the Swans, can Lance Franklin wind back the clock to kick a bag of goals in a big final? For me it is Isaac Heeney who looms as the Swans match winner.

The 26-year-old won his first All-Australian selection this year and enters the clash in great form with eight goals in his last two games. Heeney is a class act who thrives in the big moments.

The Swans were knocked out of the finals last year in heartbreaking fashion losing to GWS by a point, but Heeney was one of the best on ground booting four goals. Expect the star to deliver again when the pressure is on.

For Melbourne you can take your pick from several Premiership stars, but I think we might see one of the small forwards have an extra significant impact this week.

Kysaiah Pickett was a solid contributor for Melbourne last year, but he has taken his game to another level in 2022 and his last few weeks have been superb.

Jake Melksham has also become an important contributor and he will be extra keen to make an impact after missing out of a Premiership last season. At 31 years of age this might be his last chance at Premiership glory.

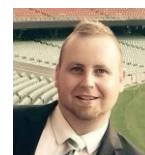

The form line

The Demons form was a little patchy a few weeks ago but they have won their last two games and the round 23 victory over Brisbane was ominous.

The Swans could not be in better form winning their last seven games, and this does include wins over three of the current top eight teams.

It is all setup for a great contest. With the game at the MCG and remembering how the Demons performed in last year's final series I am going to just give them the nod.

My Tip- Melbourne by 13 points

Muzzled Dogs to Whimper in First Final

The Western Bulldogs will travel to Perth to play Fremantle in a final which will excite. After 24 weeks, eight clubs have made it again to September again. A selection of teams battling it out for a piece of silverware, in the closest finals series since 2016. Unfortunately, for one of these sides, their finals aspirations will be all over by Saturday night. The Dockers finished fifth, while the Dogs stumbled to eighth, after Carlton lost their last four games. Both clubs will be feeling rejuvenated after their pre finals bye last week. As such, the game is expected to be one to watch, as it is a true battle between finals experience and form.

by William McShane

Fremantle have not played finals since 2015 where they were minor premiers. Since this date, things have been dire for Fremantle supporters. They have not looked a damaging side until this season. Coach, Justin Longmuir's secret to success has been Fremantle's defence. The Dockers are ranked second for scores against (trailing Melbourne by three points). Further, they average 57.7 tackles in defence and 51.3 one percenters. This is elite and highlights why opposition teams have struggled to score against them. It also accentuates that Ross Lyons predecessor has adopted similar tactics to what he enforced. Despite Fremantle's defensive attributes, they are ranked only 12th in offense. Their main targets being Rory Lobb, Michael Walters and Lachie Schultz. All of whom average more than a goal a game. However, this is largely Fremantle's issue... they lack quality tall targets forward of the ball. Although Fremantle's tall players like Rory Lobb, Matt Tabener and Griffin Logue can turn a game, they are inconsistent. Against the premier sides in that of Melbourne, Collingwood and Richmond, this collective trio only managed one goal in each respective game. In an elimination final, these players need to stand up.

Excitingly for AFL fans, the battle in the midfield will also be mouth-watering as the Dockers young guns in Serong, Brodie and Brayshaw, will compete against the Dogs strength... their midfield. Serong averages 25.7 disposals and 5.3 score involvements, Brodie 27.6 disposals and 5.5 score involvements and Brayshaw 29.1 disposals and 6.1 score involvements. In contrast, the Dogs midfield Bailey Smith, Jack Macrae, Adam Trealar, Tom Liberatore and Marcus Bontempelli collectively average 27 disposals and 6.8 score involvements. Therefore, the battle inside the war will be one to watch.

Although, Fremantle's goal kicking ability is mediocre, the Dogs have an equally poor defence. They are respectively ranked 11th for scores against. They will need to rectify this area if they are to pose a threat in September. While this would appear unlikely to an outsider, those who have long lasting memories can appreciate the Dogs have made two of the last six grand finals, despite finishing outside the top four both times. What makes them unpredictable is their ability to score quickly as they average 56 inside 50's. Unfortunately, for Dogs fans, this is a rarity as players such as Naughton, Weightman and Ugle Hagen are generally inconsistent. This means there is often a reliance on Trealar (0.7 goals per game), Bontempelli (1 goals per game) and Dunkley (0.8 goals per game) to score. As such, if the Bulldogs forwards can cohesively function, coupled with a guiding influence from their midfield, they will likely overwhelm Fremantle.

The last time these sides met, Fremantle were 17-point victors. Although it is difficult to tip against finals experience, Fremantle have been the better side this season. Therefore, as Peter Motteux so eloquently described it in 1701, the proof is in the pudding.

Fremantle by 24-36.

Tigers tipped to tame Lions

It's arguably one of Brisbane Lions most important games in recent memory.

After several seasons of finals fade-outs, the Lions face a resurgent Richmond Tigers in a cut-throat elimination final at the GABBA in Brisbane tonight.

And Brisbane's task won't be made easier with a one-game suspension on young gun Cam Raynor courtesy of his sling tackle against Melbourne two weeks ago.

The two team's formlines are in contrast to each other.

Richmond has returned to its grand final-winning mojo with the manner in which it places defensive pressure all over the ground.

Of course the Tigers forward line is stacked with the height and marking prowess of Tom Lynch who is in rare form while Shai Bolton regularly does the freakish.

Oh, there's also a likely return of Brownlow Medallist and triple grand final-winning Norm Smith Medallist Dusty Martin.

Add in the zest and creativity of small forward Maurice Rioli Junior, the 2017, 2019-20 premiers are deservedly touted as warm favourites.

Tonight's hosts will need to refocus and remove all the negativity surrounding captain Dayne Zorko after his verbal outburst on Melbourne defender Harrison Petty.

Zorko will need to have a point to prove to himself, Lions fans and a couple of ex-players who have been critical of him and the team.

Dayne Beams expressed his surprise as to why Zorko was still the skipper while triple Brisbane premiership star Jason Akermanis added coach Chris Fagan needs to think outside the square - a trait 'Aker' is well known for.

"The thing about Brisbane is, despite the talent, the biggest issue they've got is probably their coaching group," he said.

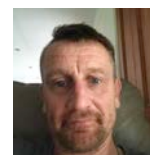

"They're just not creative enough when it's going bad to throw a few magnets around and get players to play different roles.

"In the end, if they stick with the team they went in with two weeks ago I'd be quite surprised. There are some players with big question marks so we'll see what happens at the selection table."

Akermanis said players such as Jarryd Lyons and the rest of the midfield group and defence need to step up when stakes are at their highest.

The match-up between Lynch and key Brisbane defender Harris Andrews will be key while Brandon Starcevich has the pace and guile to go with the dynamic Bolton

The Tigers have won its previous two games against Brisbane and the most recent one was when Richmond stormed home from 42 points down at the MCG in round 20.

Cats to rip Magpies apart and move to Prelim Final

Finals football is different. It is the best sides playing each other. This is ultimately why players play. They want to be play in big games, games that mean so much more than just four points, playing well in finals, makes good players, great players.

by Nick Smith

Geelong are the finals masters, having only missed finals once since 2007. They will meet a resurgent Collingwood, for a spot in a preliminary final. Collingwood have risen from 17th last season, to sneak into the top four, riding a huge wave of confidence along the way.

Knowing how to win isn't something your born with. Winning is a learnt art. One that is practiced over and over again. This is the definition of Collingwood's home and away season. The Magpies have won 11 games by less than two goals. They don't give up, they back themselves in, and their leaders are able to control a situation to give their teams mates the opportunity to succeed.

Both sides boast quality line ups. Geelong's All Australian forward line has been brilliant all season. Tyson Stengle has added his ground ball winning ability to be a perfect foil for both Tom Hawkins and Jeremy Cameron.

We know the quality that Dangerfield, Selwood and Duncan bring to the midfield. I believe the real strength of Geelong this season, has been their back line. Tom Stewart and Sam De Koning have been exemplary, and will be pivotal to defeating Collingwood on Saturday.

Collingwood have had match winners all season, which has delighted the Collingwood faithful. Firstly, Craig Mac Rae has been a breath of fresh air. He is such a personable guy, even those that don't like Collingwood, are mesmerised by him and find themselves barracking for the Magpies.

Like Geelong, the Magpies have had great players all year. We all know how good Pendlebury, Howe and Elliot are. Throw in Nick & Josh Daicos, and Collingwood are as talented as any other side. For me, Collingwood's match winner is Brayden Maynard. His season has been phenomenal and can be the difference during this finals series between Collingwood winning and losing.

This will be an enthralling game, with plenty of highlights. Geelong have been the best team over the home and away journey. I expect them to win.

MY TIP: Glenelg by 15-25 points

Adelaide in Grand Final After Brutal Semi Final

Semi Final week of the SANFL Finals Series has arrived and with that brings the second semi-final between North Adelaide and Adelaide at Adelaide Oval. Second semi-finals are in some way a preliminary final with the winner going straight through to the Grand Final. The loser will play the winner of the first semi-final (either Glenelg or Norwood) in the prelim next week. Being the minor premier, North Adelaide were awarded the week off last week, whether that will be beneficial or not remains to be seen. Adelaide are coming off a demolition of Norwood in the qualifying final, getting themselves in red hot form to beat the Roosters.

by
Oliver Alyanak

In North's last game in round 19 they went down to Sturt by 22 points at Unley Oval. The Roosters lead at quarter time before quickly giving that away and never being able to recover it. Sturt managed to hold them at arm's reach for the entire second half and didn't allow them to score. The game was very even around the contest with North narrowly leading clearances while Sturt narrowly lead inside 50s. The main difference between the two sides was the ball use. Sturt went at 73% disposal efficiency while North only went at 66%. It may seem like a small margin, however, over the course of a game that is quite a large difference and no doubt hindered North to play on their terms while also aiding Sturt's ability to force turnovers and score. Campbell Combe was one of North's best as usual with the midfielder recording 24 disposals, 10 tackles and 9 clearances. Up forward Tyson Brazel was prolific with 4 goals to give his side a chance.

On-the-other-hand, Adelaide is coming off a 55-point win in the qualifying final against the Redlegs. Adelaide got off to a flyer, kicking 4 of the first 5 goals and lead by 26 points at half-time. They then broke it open in the 3rd term, kicking 7 goals to Norwood's 1, giving them an insurmountable 62-point lead at 3-quarter time. Adelaide had nearly double the inside 50s that Norwood had, giving the Redlegs defence no chance due the constant pressure that they were under all day. Adelaide also managed to kick very straight considering the strong breeze that caused havoc in the first game of the day. Brett Turner led the way in the midfield with 26 disposals and 16 tackles while Jay Boyle also had plenty of it with 28 disposals and a goal. Kieran Strahan and Lachie Sholl were also at their best, showing that they are a class above SANFL level. Skipper, Matty Wright kicked 5 goals while Luke Pedlar showed glimpses with 3 goals from 12 disposals.

This game promises to be a classic, however, it hasn't been that way recently. North have won 3 of the last 5 games, with Adelaide winning the two most recent games this year. The closest margin out of those games was 26 points so it may not be as close as many hope. In their most recent encounter Lachie Sholl was Adelaide's best with 31 disposals while Aaron Young was huge for North with 34 touches. It will be interesting to see if the week off effects North in a bad way while Adelaide come into this final with a game under their belt as well as a lot of AFL talent that should be too strong for North as it has been throughout this season.

The Bays Prove Too Strong for the Mighty Redlegs

The Adelaide Crows proved to be a genuine premiership threat with a massive 55-point victory over Norwood in the Qualifying Final on Sunday at Adelaide Oval, winning 18.9 117 to 9.8 62. Crows skipper, Matthew Wright led the way kicking 5 goals while Luke Pedlar booted three. Jay Boyle racked up 28 disposals and seven clearances while Brett Turner collected 26 including an incredible 16 tackles to go with his eight clearances. Norwood's Nikolaus Rokahr, in his return game from a foot injury, had a game-high 32 possessions and 6 marks. Jack Heard played extremely well down back, with 23 touches, six marks and five clearances. Adelaide's Billy Frampton had 18 possessions down back and was a major key in keeping Norwood's forward line relatively quiet, as Matthew Panos and Jacob Kennerly kicked 2 goals each, with the latter also having 20 disposals.

by Jakob Matheson

After having the Crows number in the previous two games this season, managing to defeat them twice, the Redlegs were simply no match this time around as the Crows got out to an 25 point lead early into the first quarter. The Legs kicked the final two goals of the opening stanza to trail by 10 points at the first change. Adelaide put the game out of reach when they booted 7 goals to 1 in the third term to take a game-high 62 point lead into the final quarter. The Crows were dominant from the first bounce winning the Inside 50s by 33, (73-40), something that has been practically unheard of all year as Norwood, going into this match were the number defensive team in the competition conceding 62 points per game in comparison to Adelaide, who were the highest scoring team in the competition, averaging 92 points per game.

Glenelg kept their season alive as they fought off elimination against Sturt in the Elimination Final, triumphing by 16 points, 8.13 61 to 6.9 45. After a pretty even opening term, which saw both sides level at 2.2 apiece at the first change, the Bays managed to take control of the contest, but the Double Blues would not stop coming as they pushed Glenelg in every aspect of the match but were unable to hit the front as the Bays led from the first bounce to the final siren. Cooper Horsnell booted 2 goals and collected 16 disposals for Glenelg. Veteran onballer, Matthew Allen racked up 24 disposals and seven marks for the Tigers. Casey Voss was influential for the Double Blues as he amassed 27 possessions, as well as Tom Lewis (24 possessions, a goal, 14 tackles and 13 clearances) and James Battersby (23, 11 tackles and 10 clearances). Sturt's Oliver Grivell booted 2 goals and had 11 marks from his 13 disposals.

Glenelg now turn their attention to the Redlegs, who would be looking to avenge their loss and hoping to advance to the Preliminary Final if they are to win. The Bays will also be looking to advance themselves and continue their run of good form over the last two weeks. Norwood and Glenelg are 1-1 against each other during the minor round, with the Redlegs getting the chocolates the last time these two sides met a mere three weeks ago back in Round 18, which saw them win by seven points in wet conditions under lights at the Parade.

With the way Norwood played over the weekend, and with how good of a team Glenelg are, it will definitely be a tough, tight contest for Jade Rawlings men if they are to have any chance of advancing to a Preliminary Final. The match will most likely be won in the midfield.

My prediction: Glenelg by 5 points.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

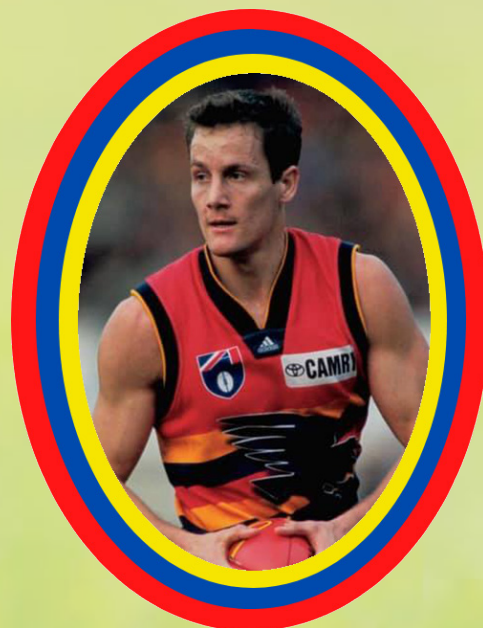

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was a integral part of our 2021 QAFL Premiership allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premiership success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”

Nick Malceski - Labrador Tigers Coach
