Pies Prelim Bound After Another Thriller

Semi Final week in the AFL is here after what was one of, if not the greatest round of finals footy we have ever seen. Every game had it all, especially the games both Collingwood and Fremantle played in. Collingwood finally dropped a close game, at the worst time possible, while Fremantle pulled off one of the all-time comebacks to book themselves another week in September.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Collingwood are coming off a 6-point loss to Geelong in the Qualifying Final. This game was finals footy at its best. Highly skilled, maximum pressure and in the end neither side deserved to lose. Collingwood held the biggest lead of the game of 19 points in the first quarter, catching the Cats napping. Geelong finally woke up and only trailed by 1 at the main break. Collingwood got out to a 12-point lead to start the last term which may have been to their detriment. As we've seen all season long, they do their best work when they are down and on the comeback. This was a different scenario, and the Cats were able to run over the top of them thanks to amazing last quarter performances from Jeremy Cameron and Gary Rohan. The Pies had more inside 50s than Geelong which is something you need to capitalise on considering the firepower they were coming up against. They ultimately couldn't despite Darcy Moore's outstanding game nullifying the All-Australian Captain, Tom Hawkins. Jordan De Goey was incredible with 26 disposals and 2 huge last quarter goals, showing why he is often compared to Dustin Martin. The Daicos boys were also brilliant with Josh having 29 disposals and a goal while Nick had 25 touches of his own, what can't this family do? Scott Pendlebury wound the clock back with 34 disposals as well. The loss was compounded with Taylor Adams ripping his groin off the bone, while Jordan De Goey was sent in for scans during the week, with the outcome still TBC.

Fremantle on-the-other-hand played in one of the more unbelievable games of footy you will ever see. The Dockers let the Western Bulldogs do what they do best, get off to a hot start in a final. The Dogs kicked the first 6 goals of the game and held a 41-point lead at one point. The game was seemingly over. Freo then rallied, kicking the last 4 goals of the first half, somehow only trailing by 15 points. They kept clawing their way back and eventually hit the front courtesy of a huge set shot from second gamer, Jye Amiss. They didn't look back from there and won by 13 points in front of their home fans. Caleb Serong showed that he is built for the big stage yet again with 33 disposals and a goal. His partner in crime, Andy Brayshaw had 32 and a goal as well. Up forward, Rory Lobb kicked 2 crucial goals from the pocket while Michael Walters was back to his best with 3 goals and 18 disposals.

This game is set up to be another ripper. Collingwood always find a way to make it close while Fremantle have played really well in Melbourne this year. This game could be won and lost with the availability of players and specifically Jordan De Goey. Fremantle let Marcus Bontempelli run amuck on Saturday Night which should have cost them the game. If De Goey plays he has the quality to do the same which Fremantle need to find a way to stop. Last time they played was at Optus Stadium where the Pies won by 36 points. It would be bold to tip against Collingwood considering that while also considering the ability of Craig McRae to get them firing on all cylinders for these big games.

Collingwood by 1-12 points

Lions keen to rid of demons

If ever the Brisbane Lions were to make a statement, it's in tomorrow night's MCG semi-final encounter against reigning premiers Melbourne Demons.

The Dees have had the wood against Brisbane and the most recent game had spice in which Melbourne won the battle while the Lions' captain Dane Zorko was put under the spotlight after his verbal outburst on Melbourne defender Harrison Petty.

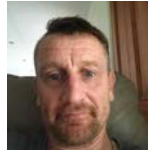

Zorko and his teammates responded against Richmond by letting their footy do the talking.

Tomorrow night, Brisbane Lions need to repeat that and some.

Key matchups loom. Brownlow Medal favourite Lachie Neale and Demon Norm Smith Medallist Christian Petracca will go toe-to-toe.

Last Friday night's match-winner Joe Daniher will need a big one against in-form Steven May.

If both Daniher and Charlie Cameron, who's likely to be marked by Melbourne stopper Michael Hibberd, can step up with multiple goals, along with Zac Bailey, a major upset could be on the cards.

Demons to progress to final four

Last year's premiers are hanging by a thread. The Demons are desperate to win a second flag in two years, in front of their home crowd at the majestic MCG. Fortunately, finishing in the top four provides a double chance to the qualifying final losers.

by
Nick Smith

The Demons are grateful for this this second chance. The game last Friday night was a brutal contest between two highly skilled sides. Sydney were brilliant and deserving winners. The Demons will need to recover quickly, as they will face a confident Brisbane Lions.

Brisbane were breathtaking in their win over Richmond. Finals can make good players, into great players. If we were in any doubt before last Thursday night, Lachie Neale is now a great player.

His 39 disposals and career high 15 disposals, was the difference. His power running and ability to win the ball in tight was exquisite and worthy of the praise he received after the game.,

Despite the Lions progressing into the second week of the finals, there are still concerns over the Lions tall stocks. Oscar McNerney will miss this week's match due to concussion protocols. Whilst Dan McStay fought valiantly, Chris Fagan will need to rework his tall stocks to combat the power combination of Max Gawn and Luke Jackson.

Melbourne and Brisbane met only a fortnight ago with the Demons winning that fixture easily. I suspect it will be more difficult this time around. Christian Petracca is likely to play despite a broken bone in his leg.

This match has massive ramifications for the loser. Question marks will be asked about Melbourne and their ability to build a dynasty after a dominant 2021 season. They are likely to lose Luke Jackson to Fremantle, can they replace Jackson and push for a top four finish gain next year.

If Brisbane lose, what do they need to do to finish top four and go onto win finals consistently. Dan McStay may find a new home at Collingwood next year, which will weaken their tall stocks.

Cancel all your plans for Friday night and spend some time on the couch as this game promises to be a beauty, and another example as to why AFL football is the best game in the world.

Resilient Redlegs Roll On into their fifth Grand Final since 2012

After going down by 55-points to Adelaide in the Qualifying Final the week before, The Redlegs responded by defeating Glenelg by 28 points in the First Semi Final at Adelaide Oval on Sunday afternoon. The 12.7 79 to 7.9 51 victory means that Norwood are now 1 win away from playing a 5th Grand Final in 11 years, as they now turn their attention to the Adelaide Crows in the Preliminary Final. After a slow start and only managing to kick one goal in the first quarter and trailing the Bays by 11 points, Jade Rawlings men booted four goals to one in the second term to lead by seven points at the main break. Matthew Panos booted three goals including two in the final quarter, to go with his 14 disposals. Nikolaus Rokahr, the Runner-Up in the Magarey Medal, finished with 28 touches, eight tackles and seven clearances and Jacob Kennerly collected 22 touches and had 11 tackles for Norwood.

by Jakob Matheson

Glenelg's Liam McBean (2 goals, 19 disposals, 10 clearances), Luke Partington (26 and a goal) and Matthew Allen (21 and 9 marks) were all influential and worked tirelessly to help keep the Bays' season alive. Having lost star midfielder, Matty Snook to back spasms just before halftime and former Norwood player, Cole Gerloff to an arm injury midway through the third, the Bays faint hopes of advancing were quickly snuffed out as Norwood's midfield capitalised on every opportunity and dominated the clearances, having established a 24-13 advantage heading into the halftime break.

Goals from both Harry Boyd (17 possessions, seven clearances and a whopping 46 hit outs) and 50-gamer, Connor Mclean at the start of the second term saw the lead extend out to 21 points, which, in the context of such a tight tussle, was very significant at the time. Norwood were able to blow the game open after halftime kicking 7.2 44 to 3.5 23, including 5.0 in the last.

Glenelg were able to cut the deficit to 11 points less than two minutes into the fourth quarter, thanks to a set shot by Luke Partington, who returned to the side after recovering from a foot injury that saw him miss the Elimination Final victory over the Double Blues. The 11-point deficit, however, was as close as the Bays would get, as 2014 premiership hero and Jack Oatey medalist, Matthew Panos, booted back-to-back goals to extend the lead back out to 23-points, and then when he cleverly popped a handball over the top for teammate Jay Rantall to run into the open goal, the Redlegs were well and truly off to their first Preliminary Final since 2011.

Norwood now face-off against the Adelaide Crows, who fell just short of a maiden SANFL Grand Final appearance, going down to North Adelaide by 10 points in the Second Semi-Final at Adelaide Oval on Sunday, as they look to get payback for their 55-point Qualifying Final defeat two weeks prior.

If the 'Legs play the same way they played in the win versus Glenelg on Sunday in the Preliminary Final against Adelaide, they will meet North Adelaide in the Grand Final which would be only the second meeting against each other in a Grand Final since 2018. Sunday's Preliminary Final will be won in the midfield as well as in the stoppages and the clearances. The most important key matchup will be once again centered around the two ruck men in Harry Boyd and Kieran Strachan. Two weeks ago in the Qualifying Final, Norwood were without Matthew Panos, Matthew Nunn, and Nikolaus Rokahr, but expect all three to make an impact this time around. Expect Norwood to claim the victory and advance to the Grand Final.

My tip: Norwood by 15 points.

Redlegs Rise to Grand Final

Norwood will play Adelaide this week in a preliminary final expected to excite. These sides met each other a fortnight ago in the first final, where Adelaide were 55-point winners. The Redlegs enter this match following their win over Glenelg, while Adelaide come into the match losers, after they were narrowly defeated by North Adelaide. Both sides have demonstrated they have the arsenal to win the premiership, however I feel only Norwood will.

by William McShane

Leading into finals Norwood had won eight of their last nine games. They then lost to Adelaide in round 1 of finals. Fortunately, for Redlegs supporters this mini form slump ended on Sunday when they overcame Glenelg. This betters last season's performance where they ended their finals campaign in straight losses. Against Glenelg, the Redlegs looked like their team of old. Strong defence coupled with scores through attrition. They won all the key finals indicators, including clearances, inside 50's, rebound 50's, tackles and scoring accuracy.

Other than scores against, it can be challenging to observe the effectiveness of a team's defensive structure. However, watching the ease in which the Norwood side defends is something of true beauty. Since Norwood coach, Jade Rawlings, was employed in November 2020, Norwood have been the best defensive side in the competition. However, Rawlings coaching masterclass has become increasingly noticeable this season. Norwood look a much better side this year than they have since 2018. Why? One word... offense. Last season, Norwood were ranked second for defence and whopping eighth for their offense. This season the Redlegs are ranked first in defence and fourth in offense. Through the acquisition of McClean, Jarvis and Panos their scoring has become drastically more proficient. This improvement in the forward half, has also been complemented by Boyd and Rokahr's efforts in the middle. Both players were selected in the Advertisers team of the year, as well as Heard, because of their ability to win the football and specifically clearances. Boyd averages 6.8 clearances and has had over 30 hit outs in 14 matches this season, while Rokahr averages 27.8 disposals at an average of 94 per cent disposal efficiency.

In comparison, Adelaide's strength is their ability to score. They have the highest score for in the competition and in the last 3 weeks have booted 41 goals. They also have the highest score for since 2018 (previously held by Norwood). This is largely attributed to the individual seasons Matthew Wright, Elliot Himmelberg and Lachlan Gollant are having, as they collectively average over 5 goals between the trio. In Adelaide's first final against Norwood, they dominated. They won more of the ball, had greater pressure, had more tackles, were more accurate, had more clearances and had a season high 73 inside 50's. Subsequently, due to the high pressure, Norwood were ultimately left susceptible from goals through turnover which the Crows exploited. Further, Norwood were beaten around the ball through Strachan and Turner. Respectively, Strachan had 43 hit outs, two clearances and seven inside 50's, while Turner managed an impressive 26 disposals, eight clearances and a lazy 16 tackles. However, in last weeks clash against North Adelaide, the Crows lost inside 50's, disposals, disposal efficiency, scoring accuracy and clearances. The Redleg's and specifically Rawlings will study this match and likely make the necessary modifications to their game. These would largely revolve around winning more football and being sounder in defence as they conceded 18 goals. This is more goals than Adelaide kicked against Norwood in their previous two encounters. It is also six goals more than Norwood's previous highest score against. As such, Adelaide coach, Michael Godden will be looking to repeat this, while Norwood will want to rectify their mistakes and progress to the Grand Final.

Although Adelaide embarrassed Norwood a fortnight ago through skill and attrition, I feel this match was an aberration. The Redlegs have been increasingly impressive. As such, Norwood's ability to prevent teams from scoring, outweighs Adelaide's capacity to score.

Norwood by 1-12.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

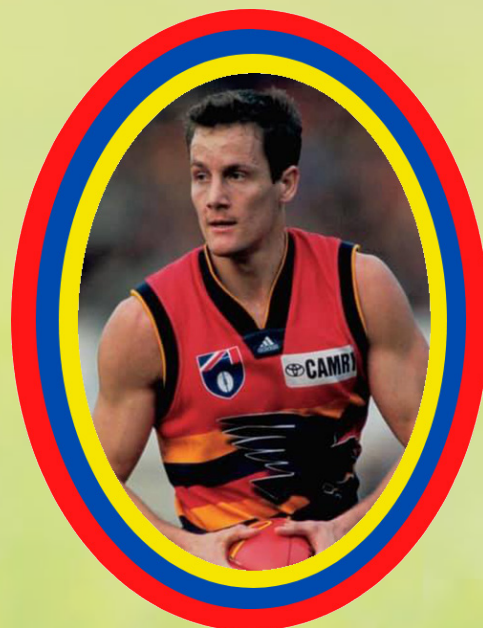

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.
