Cats to march into the 2022 Grand Final

Geelong will host Brisbane on Friday night at the MCG in the first Preliminary Final with the prize of a Grand Final for the winner.

Most footy fans were probably expecting Melbourne to be victorious last Friday to earn the right to face the Cats, and with the Demons leading by almost five goals late in the second term this seemed almost inevitable.

Great credit to Brisbane who kicked 11 goals to five after half time to record a famous 13-point victory.

Much of the focus this week for Brisbane will be fighting Jarrod Berry's one week suspension. Berry was one of the key catalysts in the win gathering 26 disposals, four clearances and six score involvements.

Lachie Neale started slowly against the Demons, but the Brownlow Medallist got better as the game wore on and finished with 29 disposals and ten clearances and the Cats brain trust will need to put some significant time into quelling his influence.

After missing the Semi Final clash, Joe Daniher will return, and ruckman Oscan McInerney is also expected to be available from concussion.

Geelong have enjoyed the week off after defeating Collingwood in the Qualifying Final and I suspect the week off will serve them well.

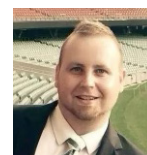

Jeremy Cameron has trained lightly but has dismissed any concerns with his hamstring.

The two sides have not faced off since the round four clash at GMBHA Stadium with Geelong victorious that night led by Tom Hawkins who booted five goals and after a quiet first final I expect the veteran to put in a big Prelim performance.

From a neutral perspective let's hope we see a great game of footy.

Brisbane surprised last week but the Cats have proven themselves to be the best side in the Home and Away season and I suspect they will do enough to secure their second Grand Final appearance in the last three years.

MY TIP- Geelong -23 points

Cats to end Lions fairy-tale

Brisbane was impressive against Melbourne last Friday night. After half time the Lions were ruthless and destroyed the Demons at a venue they hadn't won at for 6 years. Despite Joe Daniher not playing, Chris Fagan lead his players magnificently. The smile on his face post-match was enough to give you goosebumps.

by
Nick Smith

Incredibly, Brisbane didn't hit the front until a Dan Mc Stay goal early in the last quarter. This set the fuse for the Lions to be able to stay in front, despite a late Melbourne surge. Jarrod Berry was brilliant for Brisbane. His performance of Melbourne midfielder Clayton Oliver was exceptional, and was a massive reason the lions were able to progress to the Preliminary Finals.

The only sour note of the night was the report of Jarrod Berry. Berry has been suspended for one match due to eye gouging Clayton Oliver. At the time of writing, Berry is appealing his suspension at the tribunal in a bid to play on Friday night.

Awaiting the Lions is seasoned finalists Geelong. The Cats have had a week resting awaiting for their opponent. The Cats had a thrilling 6-point win against the Magpies back in week one of the finals. Gary Rohan was exceptional that afternoon and demonstrated why he is high quality footballer.

Friday night will be the fourth successive season the Cats have made a Preliminary final. It has been 11 years since they held aloft the Premiership cup. With players like Selwood, Hawkins and Dangerfield, there may not be too many more occasions where they have an opportunity to qualify for a Grand Final.

Geelong's real strength this year has been their two key pillars in their back line. Tom Stewart and Sam De Koning. Both players have been exceptional and a reason why the Geelong defence has conceded an average of only 67 points per game.

History is in Geelong's favour. Rarely does a team from outside the top 4, make a Grand Final. These two teams have only met once this season. It was round 4, the Cats got home by 10 points at GMHBA Stadium. Geelong have been the best team over the home and away season, I expect their winning form to continue on Friday night.

MY TIP: Geelong by 15-25 points

Howe can Pies beat Swans

Collingwood's high-flying intercept defender Jeremy Howe said the team have taken away key learnings from the last time the Magpies played Sydney Swans at the SCG.

The two teams meet again in Sydney for a place in Saturday week's AFL Grand Final against either Geelong Cats or Brisbane Lions after Collingwood livewire Jack Ginnevan booted three goals to spearhead the Magpies to a 20-point elimination final win against Fremantle Dockers.

"Early on in the last time we played, we felt like we got stuck on the boundary line a lot and it exposed us in the middle of the ground," Howe said of the loss against the Swans last month.

"It's just getting used to the feel of the dimensions and the way we want to use the ball and also defend."

Collingwood trained to the dimensions of the SCG throughout the week to get the players as used to the ground as possible.

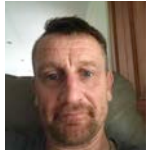

The Magpies lost in an epic qualifying final against Geelong Cats 12 days ago in a game in which Pies coach Craig McRae admitted he 'coached poorly'.

However Howe believes his team stacks up as far as game-plans are concerned against the competition's best.

"I feel like our last two weeks, especially, have really set ourselves up," Howe said.

"I think the game against Geelong was one of our best games, even though we didn't get the result.

"We took a lot of positivity out of that week, the way we reviewed it really strongly, had a positive vibe to it and took that into Fremantle."

Young Bloods Back to the Big Dance

Preliminary Final week has arrived! The week some say is better than Grand Final. On Saturday afternoon the SCG hosts Sydney vs Collingwood, a game between two young sides that just keep on winning. At the start of the year no one on Earth would have predicted this matchup, but here we are with a chance for one of these sides to play off in the 2022 Grand Final. Sydney come into it off a week's bye after knocking off Melbourne in the Qualifying Final. Therefore, they have only played 1 game in 3 weeks which may have some effect. Collingwood had to do it the hard way, losing to Geelong in the Qualifier, however, they made light work of Fremantle in the Semi Final.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Sydney went into their game against Melbourne as heavy underdogs despite beating them earlier in the year. Melbourne had started clicking following a round 23 thumping of Brisbane and they brought that to the first quarter. Sydney trailed by 10-points at quarter time, a margin that they couldn't really break down until halfway through the 3rd quarter. Lance Franklin got a couple of cheap free kicks, gifting Sydney 2 goals and changing the momentum. Sydney led by 12 points at 3-quarter time and didn't concede a goal for the rest of the match, winning by 22 at fulltime. Melbourne managed to have more inside 50s, however, the Swans defence was outstanding. They held Pickett, Melksham and Brown to just 16 disposals and 2 goals between them, leaving it all for Fritsch to do. Jake Lloyd was back to his damaging best for Sydney with 25 disposals and 2 goals (his only goals for the year). Luke Parker continued his great season with 25 disposals, 2 goals and 9 clearances while his prodigy James Rowbottom had almost identical numbers and is building a superb back half of the year.

Collingwood on-the-other-hand come into this one with some confidence back after their loss to Geelong in the previous week. The scoreline shows that the Pies only won by 20 points, however, Fremantle got a few late goals to close the gap. For the most part Collingwood dominated and didn't let Fremantle move the ball at all. Collingwood held the Dockers goalless for the first quarter and led by 28 points at half time. They held that lead to 3-quarter time and in a low scoring game that was all she wrote. For the second week running Jordan De Goey was the best for the Pies. He had 24 disposals and a goal while being involved in everything forward of centre with 12 score involvements. Nick Daicos continued his unbelievable with 25 disposals and Jack Crisp had his best game for some time with 25 disposals and 2 goals. Up forward, Jack Ginnivan kicked 3 goals while Jamie Elliott and Brodie Mihaljevic both kicked 2 of their own.

These two sides just faced off at the SCG in round 22 with Sydney ruining Collingwood's 11 game winning streak. Sydney made a statement that day, showing that they are good enough while also potentially putting some doubt in Collingwood players' heads ahead of this one. Callum Mills was the best for Sydney with 29 disposals while Nick Daicos had 25 disposals and a goal in an average display from most Collingwood players. Although Sydney is the favourite coming into this Prelim, it wouldn't be surprising at all if Collingwood won given what they have done this season. This makes for an exciting Prelim between two young, attacking and skilful teams. Sydney to win due to what happened at the SCG a month ago, however, 100,000 at the G for a Collingwood Grand Final would be a good watch!

Norwood to Nullify Restless Roosters

The season of highs and lows has come down to this. Norwood versus North Adelaide. Two sides seeking to get their hands on what the Hunters and Collectors describe as the holy grail. North Adelaide finished first, while the Redlegs placed third on the ladder, with only one win separating these sides. To reach the grand final, North Adelaide narrowly overcame Adelaide in the semi-final, whereas Norwood have used their double chance to their advantage, losing their first final. Fortunately for Redlegs supporters, Norwood have subsequently beat Glenelg and then Adelaide, to reach the Grand Final. This game is set to be a blockbuster clash, as both sides have continually proved themselves throughout the season.

by
William McShane

North Adelaide have arguably been the strongest side in the SANFL this season. They finished first in league, second in reserves, second in under 18's and fourth in under 16's. As such, it is only fitting they will play in the Grand Final this week. They have been a premiership threat all season as they have not descended below third since round 5. Further, they have the highest win percentage in the competition. North is sufficient in all areas of their game style. They are ranked second for scores for and third for scores against. They are also the most effective side inside forward 50, as opposed to Norwood who are ranked seventh. Coach, Jacob Surjan knows their game style inside out. Their main strength lies within their midfield quadrant through Wigg, Young, Moore and the Combe brothers. The Roosters have lost clearances only twice this season. Ironically, both times were against Norwood. In North Adelaide's first final, these players proved their dominance as they collectively had an average of 29.4 disposals. This allows their forwards one-on-one opportunities as the ball is often won at stoppage or centre clearance. These players had nearly half of the Roosters inside 50's in the first final (24). As such, Norwood need to nullify the influence of such players if they are to pose any threat on the premiership. However, North Adelaide will need to ensure they are not complacent, as the Grand Final will be only their second game in four weeks. While this provides players with adequate rest, clubs can lose momentum. Further, the Roosters recent history is not flawless, as despite winning two of their last three games, they lost to Sturt (who finished fifth) and only beat West Adelaide by six-points (who finished last).

Comparatively, Norwood have won 10 of their last 12 matches. In the preliminary final against Adelaide, the Redlegs won in a tight battle by 11-points after kicking four last quarter goals. This rectifies their first final against Adelaide where they lost by over 10 goals. In the weekends clash, Norwood played like their team of old. Strong defence, culminated with an array of inside 50's set up by the midfield (who are ranked second). This has been Norwood's strength. Defence! Since Jade Rawlings has been head coach, Norwood have been the best defensive side in the competition. However, Rawlings has struggled for his side to kick goals (ranked fourth for scores for). The Redlegs are the only side in the finals who have kicked more behinds than goals. Luckily for Norwood fans, Rawlings has built a diversified forward line with the likes of Jarvis, McClean, Lowe and Panos who are beginning to flourish. In the past fortnight Norwood have kicked 24 goals. This is two more goals than their season average. Therefore, if their midfield can beat North for the third time this season, Norwood will win.

The last time these sides met, Norwood were 36-point victors. However, finals football is a different kind of football. Anyone can win. As such, I feel this game will be won or lost in the midfield. While North Adelaide have been the greater side this season, history suggests Norwood's midfield will win. Norwood by 1-12.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)
