The path from great to elite

Sydney and Geelong have both enjoyed brilliant seasons which will culminate in the Grand Final this Saturday in what should be a cracking encounter.

Both sides enter the clash as the form sides of the competition, Geelong with 15 straight wins and Sydney with nine.

Most will agree that Chris Scott & John Longmire are very good Coaches and this week one of them will join the elite ranks of becoming a multiple Premiership Coach.

Alastair Clarkson and Damien Hardwick the only current coaches who are members of this exclusive club.

The records

Scott and Longmire both started their Senior Coaching careers in the 2011 season. John Longmire took the reins from Paul Roos, while Chris Scott took over from Mark Thompson

Chris Scott became a Premiership Coach at the Cats in his first year and John Longmire in his second at Sydney.

Since then, Sydney and Geelong have been two of the most consistent sides in the competition with similar records. Chris Scott has an overall winning percentage of 69.8% and Longmire boasting a record of 62.8%.

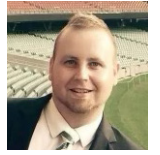

Since the 2011 Premiership the Cats have made five Preliminary finals and contested the 2020 Grand Final.

Since 2012 Sydney have made a further Preliminary final and a further two Grand Finals without the ultimate success.

Most the Grand Final build up this week will centre on the players, but Chris Scott and John Longmire both deserve recognition for the superb jobs they have done in guiding their respective teams this far.

Who will lift the Premiership Cup on Saturday? I'll say, Chris Scott, just.

Steadfast Swans hold on in an epic against relentless Collingwood

It took twenty-six years but Preliminary Finals football finally returned to the SCG. And it was well worth the wait. In yet another classic this Finals series, things came right down to the final moments, with nerves of steel carrying Sydney over the line against the fast-finishing kings Collingwood.

With the roar of the crowd behind them Sydney got the jump out of the gate and seized control of the game. It took co-captain Luke Parker only two minutes to get the Swans first goal on the board and the Swans just got better from there. With Collingwood unable to be clean in tight, Sydney were able to get the ball forward with determination and piled on three more goals before Collingwood could even manage a point. Papley was crucial moving through the midfield early, with Reid also influential up forward and at the ruck. This was not to say Collingwood weren't trying hard. De Goey fought through some heavy attention to try to get his side going while Ginnivan was amongst the controversy early with a free for high contact. Finally at the 22 minute mark the Pies broke through and kicked their first goal courtesy of sheer courage and a snap from Hoskin – Elliott. Collingwood settled a little after this, but a couple more goals to each side saw the game still very much on Sydney's terms as they lead by 21 points at the first break.

But Collingwood were determined to get back into the game with a goal through the dangerous Elliot after only 30 seconds from the recommencement of play. Sydney, however, had other ideas. After threatening in the first, Buddy got his first for the game only 30 seconds of play later. The pressure continued to be immense with both teams struggling to get any smooth play and fighting for every possession. Through dead eye kicking Collingwood got themselves back to within 11 points, but soon after Sydney put on the after burners. Hickey's dominance helped pave the way for Sydney to wrestle back the momentum as they once again piled on the goals. Despite all their fight Collingwood lost the quarter as the Swans found themselves with a very comfortable 30 point lead by half time.

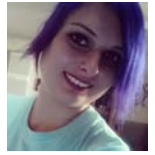

And had their opponent been anyone but Collingwood this may have been enough. But Collingwood were always going to fight it out and in the third the comeback started. While the scoreboard said that the teams went goal for goal, the moment the momentum shifted was easy to feel. Sydney drew early blood and at first appeared they would remain composed enough to keep the game on their terms. But just as they always have the stars of Collingwood stood up. When the margin was at a game high 36 points, Crisp, Sidebottom, and Pendlebury, all started having an effect around the contest. Nerves started creeping in for the Swans, and the Magpies capitalised on this to kick the last two goals for the quarter. An after the siren miss by Heeney meant the margin was 23 points at three quarter time, but the game was well and truly on.

The start of the fourth was a real arm wrestle, but now it was Collingwood looking the more composed of the two sides. Even still, it took almost 8 minutes before the Pies broke through with the first goal of the term. All players started showing signs of fatigue, but Sydney's defence was able to hold strong against repeat defensive entries. Somehow, they navigated the ground to kick one more crucial goal, their first since 12 minutes into the third, and their last for the match.

And then, with 6 minutes to go, Collingwood did what Collingwood do best.

Three quick goals to Mihocek, Hoskin-Elliott and Sidebottom saw the lead all but disappear as it looked like Collingwood were about to deliver their most devastating of heartbreaks. Sydney's defence was fighting against a relentless Collingwood surge, but they dug deep to find everything they could and keep their heads. First, a big dive from Blakey took away a chance and got the ball back in Sydney hands. Chipping around in defence chewed up some crucial seconds but still Collingwood would not give up. One final play got the ball into goal kicking range, but the defensive instinct of McInerney to rush the ball through for a point ensured that come the final siren, the ball was in Sydney hands and they were 1 point in front.

The Grand Final will now be played by arguably the two teams most deserving of being there, and who will win is anyone's guess. Geelong have been the standout all season, but Sydney have been able to take out every challenge that has been thrown their way. Seeing the powerhouse forwards of Buddy and Hawkins in one game is sure to be a treat, and the battle of the midfields will possibly dictate the final result. Whoever wins, it's sure to be a ripper of a game to complete one of the best Finals Series many of us have ever seen.

Cats to lift premiership cup after brutal battle

The two most consistent teams for season 2022 will do battle on the last Saturday in September. For Geelong, it is about redemption. They have made grand finals in recent years without going home with the silverware.

The Swans were brave against a fast-finishing Collingwood at the SCG last Saturday. There were individual brilliances from many Swans' players very late in the game. This saw the final play result in a rushed Collingwood behind. Sydney took the kick in and the siren sounded.

Friday nights preliminary final was some of the best finals footy played in recent memory. Not only were the Cats ruthless, they were clinical and determined to make a statement. They were led magnificently by their Brownlow Medallist Patrick Dangerfield. His physical presence and goal kicking, set up Geelong's big win. Dangerfield was sensational and the only award missing from his trophy cabinet is a premiership medal.

Saturday afternoons final was a real tight contest, Despite Collingwood never being in front, they were never out of the game due to their accurate goal kicking. The SCG crowd embraced the on the field action and the noise and atmosphere was amazing. They were not disappointed with the contest.

Lance Franklin and Tom Papley were the only multiple goal scorers for the Swans. The Swans kicked the first four goals of the match, which was a bridge to far for Collingwood in the end.

The Cats and the Swans have only met once this season. Round 2 the Swans were too strong on that occasion winning by 30 points at the SCG. Lance Franklin and Isaac Heeney were magnificent with 9 goals between them. Brad Close was critical for the Cats as the only multiple goal kicker with four.

This promises to be a wonderful finish the AFL season. Both sides understand that this is an opportunity to create history. I expect the game to be intense with lots of pressure and plenty of contested possession. This could be the last opportunity for Lance Franklin to win his first premiership with the Swans. It would be a wonderful way to finish.

The Cats finished top at the end of the home and away season for a reason. They haven't had to leave Victoria for the finals, they have shown brilliant form during their two major round matches. I expect them to lift the premiership cup for the tenth time.

Stage is set for three showmen

The two teams with the best defensive and offensive systems will meet at the MCG in the AFL Grand Final. Geelong Cats and Sydney Swans will battle for the Holy Grail.

And there's three men who'll be yearning to make the MCG their own playground.

Geelong's Patrick Dangerfield had that steely look pre-game against Brisbane Lions last Friday night.

'Danger' was best afield with 28 touches and two goals to blow away the Lions.

The Brownlow Medallist had an injury-plagued season but coach Chris Scott and the Cats' medical team have managed the Geelong number 35 magnificently and against Brisbane, Dangerfield was running on top of the ground.

Sydney Swans' Callum Mills could get the gig on Danger although it would not surprise if powerful and speedy young gun Chad Warner could be instructed to put some work into the Geelong superstar.

Another who thrives on the big stage and celebrates his goals like no other is Tom Papley.

The forward was essentially the game-winner for Sydney in its one-point thrilling win against Collingwood Magpies last Saturday night.

"Pap" is a crafty, quick and smart forward and he got under the skin of several Magpie defenders most notably Brayden Maynard.

Jed Bews could mark Papley in this Saturday afternoon's decider in a likely key matchup.

The third is of course Lance "Buddy" Franklin.

Fresh from recommitting to another season with Sydney Swans next year, Franklin said he has proven his doubters wrong.

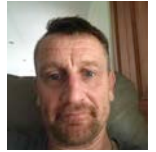

The athletically gifted full-forward was crucial against the Magpies with two goals and perhaps could have kicked a couple more.

He took a clutch mark late in the game as the Pies came back hard.

Versatile Cat Mark Blicavs and intercept maestro defender Tom Stewart are likely to share duties on "Big Bud".

One thing is guaranteed is that the aforementioned three will provide fireworks in the biggest game of the year.

Tip: Geelong by 35.

Red and White to interrupt Pussy Party

The temperature has risen. The clouds are evaporating. The Game of Thrones common phrase “winter is coming” is finally behind us. And for football fans this means only one thing, Grand Final football. In an unpredictable season, Sydney will make their way down to Melbourne to play Geelong, in what can only be described as a nail-biting contest. Geelong finished minor premiers, while Sydney finished third after they were narrowly nudged out by Melbourne. This is poised to be the ultimate game in the season, not just because it is a Grand Final, but because both sides are playing unbelievable football.

Geelong has won 15 games in a row. They have been as close to faultless a side can come. In the preliminary final against Brisbane, they made the Lions look like an under 12's side. Despite a close first half, Geelong proceeded to kick 11 goals in the second half. As such, they were 71-point winners and progressed to a Grand Final. This has been their kryptonite in recent years as despite being arguably the most successful side in the past 12 years, missing finals only once, they have played in only two grand finals. Moreover, in these two grand finals, they have won only one. Their weapon this season has been their all-round capabilities. They are ranked number two for defence and number three for offence. Through the likes of Hawkins (averaging 2.7 goals), Cameron (averaging 2.7 goals), Stengle (averaging 2 goals) and Rohan (averaging 1.3 goals), the Cats look a prominent side when going forward. This is complemented by their wealth of experience in their defensive half such as Kolodjashnij, Duncan, Blicavs, Tuohy and the youth of Guthrie and De-koning. As a result, there is little surprise why they have not lost since May.

Conversely, Sydney have been the form team of the competition behind Geelong. They have won their last nine games. Their ability to suffocate sides and hurt them on the turnover has been a feature of their game this season. The Swans are ranked fourth in defence and fourth in offence making them a well-rounded side. In their most recent clash against Collingwood, the Swans won by 1-point after leading at half time by 30-points. This came as a surprise to most Swans fans for two reasons. Firstly, swans fans are not accustomed to losing. Secondly, they are the greatest second half side in the competition. Like Geelong, Sydney is a very strong defensive side. They easily intercept high and long inside 50 entries through the McCartin brothers who collectively average 13.1 intercept possessions a game. This dynamic between the Swans strong backline and Geelong's established forward line in that of Hawkins and Cameron will be intriguing and could be won by either side.

The last time these sides met was in round 2, when Sydney won by 30-points. Much has changed since this point, but one thing remains the same, both teams have the arsenal to win. I feel the match will be won or lost in Geelong's forward line. If Lloyd, Rampe and the McCartin brothers can mitigate Geelong's forwards, who are their most influential players, Sydney will win. As such, I feel the Swans will narrowly win in the closest Grand Final since 2010.

Sydney by 1-12.

Geelong are Premiers for the 10th Time!

Here we go, its Grand Final time! Geelong and Sydney will do battle in the big dance, a fitting matchup considering the seasons that these two sides have had. Both of these teams have been simply unstoppable in the second half of the year with Geelong currently on a 15-game winning streak while Sydney have won their last 9. Geelong is coming off a demolition job of Brisbane in the Prelim Final, allowing them to rest a few key players late, while Sydney beat Collingwood by 1-point in one of the best finals in recent times.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Geelong beat Brisbane by 71 points, and never trailed at any point throughout the game. They lead by 14 points at quarter time and that margin just kept growing and growing. At one point during the first quarter 2 Brisbane players slipped over at a centre bounce, allowing Selwood to waltz through and deliver a goal to one of his forwards. This was the foreshadowing of what was to come for the rest of the night. Interestingly, Brisbane had more clearances, however, Geelong's defence was dominant and stifled the Lions' ball movement the entire night. Patrick Dangerfield was at his dominant best with 28 disposals and 2 goals. Mitch Duncan, Zach Tuohy and Jake Kolodjashnij were superb all night, repelling anything that Brisbane threw at them. Up forward, Tom Hawkins kicked 4 goals, but it could have been 2 or 3 more with the big man missing 3 very gettable set shots. Tyson Stengle was lively with 3 goals while Gryan Miers and Gary Rohan also kicked multiple goals. The only issue coming out of the game was Max Holmes potentially doing a hamstring injury. He looked distressed at the time; however, he has been put through his paces during the week so he may be a likely starter.

Sydney on-the-other-hand recorded a 1-point win over Collingwood at the SCG to book their ticket to the Grand Final. The Swans led by 27-points halfway through the 3rd quarter, however, considering Collingwood season, it never felt safe. After that moment Sydney stopped, and the Pies started their engines. Collingwood kicked the next 3 goals before Tom Papley took a very controversial mark and went back and kicked the goal, seemingly ending the game then and there. Brody Mihocek, Will Hoskin-Elliott and Steele Sidebottom had other ideas, all kicking goals to get the margin back to 3-points. The Swans managed to survive two more attacks, rushing the ball over for 2 behinds before the siren eventually sounded. Errol Gulden was immense, especially in the second half, recording 20 disposals while also laying 7 tackles, giving the Pies players no time to dispose of the ball. Callum Mills was also good around the stoppages with 27 disposals. Tom Papley provided the X-Factor up forward with 3 goals and the sealer. Lance Franklin also stepped up with 2 goals of his own.

These two sides have played once this year with the Swans winning by 30 points at the SCG. Callum Mills was the Swans best with 29 disposals and a goal while Brad Close kicked 4 for the Cats. That game was in round 2, far enough away that both sides will be looking very different this time around. Both sides look unstoppable, with Collingwood the only team that has nearly beaten them recently. Geelong just looks like they have everything sorted out, their forwards are firing, backline is stingier than ever, and Patrick Dangerfield looks hungrier than ever. Expect a quality game after what we have seen so far in this final's series and hopefully it's another close one!

'Tommy' returns to the Parade after an eight year absence as the Redlegs come from behind in a Grand Final for the ages against the Red-hot Roosters.

by
Jakob Mathieson

After a relatively slow start to the 2022 Hostplus SANFL Grand Final, the Norwood Redlegs, prevailed in wet and windy conditions, defeating North Adelaide 8.11 59 to 8.10 58 to win their fourth flag in 11 years and first since 2014, whilst also exacting revenge from the shock upset loss in 2018 against the same team.

As has been the story of the finals for Jade 'Twig' Rawlings men, when it looked like they were down and out, they fought and clawed and always found a way to win. The Roosters, who finished the season as minor premiers, entered last Sunday's final game of the year, as the favourites, whereas the Redlegs were touted as the underdogs.

North Adelaide were off to a very hot start, having kicked the first three goals of the match before Matthew Panos snapped Norwood's first, 11 minutes, 42 seconds into the opening stanza. Tasmanian recruit, and the hero of last weekends Preliminary Final victory over the Adelaide Crows, Baynen Lowe, kicked Norwood's second goal of the game just before quarter time to cut the deficit to 11 points, the Roosters way. At the start of the second term, the rain kicked in, as North Adelaide were only able to manage 5 behinds the entire quarter as the lone goal in the quarter came from Norwood skipper, Matthew Nunn, who at the time got the Redlegs within a goal midway through the second term. Behinds from Dyson Hilder and Campbell Coombe two minutes before the main break gave the Roosters a much needed 7 point advantage, just as the rain was beginning to pick up.

Due to the rain and how heavy and intense it was getting, it took until the 8 minute mark of the 3rd quarter for a goal to be kicked, this time for Norwood's Connor Mclean, who brought his team back within 2 points. Five minutes later, Norwood, who had been trailing all game, hit the front thanks to a snap goal from Mitchell Carroll.

North Adelaide's first goal since the 19 minute mark of the 1st quarter was kicked, 27 minutes into the 3rd by Lachlan Wilsdon, then Harrison Elbrow kicked North's second of the quarter courtesy of an off-the-ball incident in which Norwood's Jackson Kelly was involved in a scuffle with Elbrow, before the bounce of the ball after the first goal. This led to North taking a 7 point lead into the final quarter.

After two quick goals to begin the 4th, the Roosters had a 17 point lead, 12 minutes into the last, and had looked almost certain to repeat their heroics from four years ago, but as is the Redlegs Motto: 'Fortis in Procella', which is Latin for Strength in Adversity, Twig Rawlings men never gave up and after consecutive goals from Josh Richards and former Geelong Cat, Ben Jarvis, Norwood trailed by only five points with about 10 minutes to go.

Then came the man and the moment; The person the Norwood faithful call "The King" Matthew Panos in the 26 minute mark of the final term, kicked the sealer, sending the Norwood faithful into a full on frenzy.

Norwood ruckman, and SANFL West End State captain, Harry Boyd was named the 2022 Jack Oatey Medalist, for his 20 disposals, 7 marks and a whopping 64 hitouts, as the 24-year-old, Shepperton boy adds another accolade to his already growing list of achievements in his short two-year career at the Parade.

Norwood's defence, especially in the finals, has been rock solid and that, is in huge part thanks to Jack Heard who once again had 24 possessions and six marks to come second behind Harry Boyd in the Jack Oatey Medal voting.

With this being Norwood's 31st overall premiership and first in eight years, it was a long time coming and well deserved and give credit where credit is due and that starts in large part with the coaching staff, especially Jade Rawlings.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was an integral part of our 2021 QAFI Premier League allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premier League success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”

Nick Malceski - Labrador Tigers Coach
