Hawks rally late to stun Crows in gritty Launceston battle

Hawthorn has snatched a remarkable three-point victory over Adelaide in a scrappy, low-scoring affair that offered plenty of tension but few answers in Launceston on Saturday.

With the game in the balance and minutes ticking away, Jai Newcombe broke free of a tough tag to nail the match-winning goal, sealing a 6.11 (47) to 5.14 (44) win in icy conditions at UTAS Stadium.

It was a game Adelaide should have had sewn up. After dominating the opening stages and appearing in control, the Crows failed to convert their chances in a disastrous second half, registering just one major from eight scoring shots. In all, both sides combined for 13 straight behinds during a stretch of frustrating football where scoreboard pressure was virtually non-existent.

Newcombe, kept quiet for much of the night by Sam Berry, made his moment count when it mattered most, pouncing on a loose ball in traffic to send the Hawks ahead with minutes remaining. Berry had held the Hawthorn midfielder to just five disposals in the opening half.

Adelaide will be left to rue missed opportunities. They led the inside 50 count 18-9 at quarter-time and looked far sharper early. Hawthorn didn't kick its first goal until six minutes into the second term, when Jack Gunston converted a free kick to break the drought.

Veteran Ben Keays marked his 150th game with two clever goals for the Crows in the second quarter, standing out in a forward group that otherwise struggled to hit the target.

Connor Macdonald handed Hawthorn the lead for the first time all match midway through the final quarter with his second goal, capping off a strong individual showing. Izak Rankine briefly looked set to steal it back for Adelaide, but his effort fell short before Newcombe iced the game.

The match was played in frigid conditions, with a "feels like" temperature of 3.6°C greeting players at the first bounce. Heavy dew made for slippery footing and a quasi-wet-weather contest, where clean possession was rare and physical pressure was relentless.

Hawks rally late to stun Crows in gritty Launceston battle

Hawks coach Sam Mitchell shuffled the magnets at the main break, activating Changkouth Jiath as substitute and shifting Nick Watson into the midfield. The switch produced immediate results, with Hawthorn slotting a goal just 14 seconds into the second half from a centre bounce.

While the Hawks dominated field position in the third term, they mirrored Adelaide's earlier inefficiency in front of goal, failing to make full use of their momentum.

Still, the defensive unit held firm. Josh Weddle and Jarman Impey were instrumental in turning defence into attack, providing drive and composure as Adelaide pressed late.

For the Crows, captain Jordan Dawson worked tirelessly through the midfield, but couldn't drag his side over the line in a game they led for more than three quarters.

The result leaves Hawthorn buoyant after an up-and-down season, while Adelaide will need to regroup quickly with September aspirations now under serious threat.

Georgiades Stars as Power Surge Stuns Demons

Port Adelaide has breathed life back into its season, downing Melbourne by 25 points in a high-stakes clash at Adelaide Oval on Sunday.

Led by a career-best seven-goal blitz from Mitch Georgiades, the Power claimed a 14.9 (93) to 9.14 (68) victory that lifts them from 15th to 10th on the ladder - and keeps their finals hopes flickering.

Georgiades was electric up forward, launching 11 shots at goal and finishing with 7.4 in a dominant outing against experienced Demon Steven May. It was the most scoring attempts by a Port player this century and a timely reminder of the 22-year-old's game-breaking potential. Behind him, defender Esava Ratugolea had a standout game of his own, taking a personal-best 13 marks as the Power's back six absorbed repeated pressure.

Melbourne had their chances but once again faltered in front of goal. The Demons kicked more behinds than goals for the ninth time this season - a trend that continues to cripple their output. Sunday's defeat was their third in a row, and they now sit in 14th, staring down a tough post-bye schedule.

Port's midfield was led by Connor Rozee, who gathered 32 disposals, and vice-captain Zak Butters (27), while Jason Horne-Francis added grunt before being forced off with a shoulder injury. Darcy Byrne-Jones contributed two goals and plenty of run.

Newcomer Mani Liddy made an immediate impression on debut. Just weeks after being plucked from the mid-season draft, the former tradie slotted into the pace of AFL footy with confidence - and his trademark black leg sleeve, worn after a near career-ending injury, didn't go unnoticed.

The Demons were buoyed by Kysaiah Pickett, who signed a long-term extension during the week and backed it up with three goals. Bailey Fritsch and Jacob van Rooyen added two each, while Daniel Turner hit the scoreboard in the third quarter.

Georgiades Stars as Power Surge Stuns Demons

Midway through the second term, Melbourne closed to within a point after two rapid goals from Pickett. But a costly turnover saw the Power rebound for a Willie Rioli major. Seconds later, tempers flared when Judd McVee struck Georgiades off the ball, resulting in a free kick and another goal for the Port spearhead.

That moment triggered a four-goal burst and gave the hosts a 24-point edge at the main break. The Demons rallied in the third quarter, with Fritsch and Turner narrowing the gap to just five points. But again, their wayward finishing - 3.5 for the term - let them down.

A controversial holding-the-ball call against Jack Viney on the wing, compounded by a 50-metre penalty, gifted Sam Powell-Pepper a goal after the siren to extend Port's lead heading into the final change. From there, the Power didn't look back, slamming home the first three goals of the last quarter - two to Georgiades - to put the contest beyond reach.

For Port, the win keeps their September hopes alive. For Melbourne, the walls are closing in.

Magpies Climb with Hard-Fought Win Over Eagles

Saturday, 14 Jun - Alberton Oval

Port Adelaide's SANFL campaign has gained serious momentum after securing a determined 15-point win over Woodville-West Torrens at Alberton Oval - their third consecutive victory - keeping the finals door open.

After managing just one win from their opening six games, the Magpies have reversed their form to sit at 4-5 with a game in hand, trailing fifth place by only two wins. Head coach Hamish Hartlett credited the team's growing belief but avoided getting carried away.

"The conditions played a part early on with a strong breeze influencing both ends," Hartlett said. "But credit to the boys - we adapted well in the second half and stayed composed to finish the job."

Port made the early running, surging to a 22-point lead at the first break thanks to clean ball movement and forward efficiency. But the Eagles flipped the script in the second quarter, dominating field position with a 16-3 inside 50 advantage, trimming the deficit to just two points by halftime.

The game's turning point came midway through the third term. A burst of three goals gave Port control again, with Jeremy Finlayson, Ewan Mackinlay, and Ollie Lord all finding the scoreboard. Defender Jez McLennan added his first SANFL goal - a classy snap that extended the Magpies' advantage to 20 points early in the final quarter.

Woodville-West Torrens refused to roll over. Forward Daniel Sladojevic kicked a crucial goal to cut the margin to eight points with minutes to play, but Finlayson's second major in time-on closed the door.

Port's youth stood tall under pressure, none more so than debutant Christian Moraes. The young midfielder collected 24 disposals, laid six tackles, and earned praise as the game's standout. Dylan Williams controlled the back half with 27 touches, while Jack Watkins and Mackinlay added midfield support with strong two-way running and clean disposal.

Magpies Climb with Hard-Fought Win Over Eagles

Lord, Finlayson, and Lachie Charleson each finished with two goals, giving the home side a spread of options inside 50.

Despite the defeat, Eagles coach Sam Jacobs was measured in his response. "We had our moments and gave ourselves a chance, but Port were just more clinical when it counted," Jacobs said. "Every time we surged, they answered."

Woodville's Kobe Mutch was everywhere, racking up 28 possessions, 11 clearances, 12 tackles, and a goal in a tireless performance. Connor Ballenden kicked four goals - including a monster from just inside the centre square - to lead the visitors' scoring.

James Rowe added 26 disposals and six clearances, while defenders Max Beattie (25 disposals) and captain Joey Sinor (21 touches, 11 tackles) provided drive from the back half.

The Eagles have now suffered narrow losses to Glenelg, Central, and Port, and continue to battle injuries - with Jay Watson the latest casualty after injuring his shoulder.

As the Magpies continue to click, their blend of young talent and experienced heads is beginning to shine - and they're shaping up as a late-season wildcard.

LAST WEEK'S MATCH REVIEW

Crows Power Away from Dogs to Strengthen Finals Push

Saturday, 14 Jun - Elizabeth Oval

Adelaide has made its SANFL premiership intentions clear, outclassing Central District by 45 points in a commanding display at X Convenience Oval on Saturday.

The match promised plenty, with third-placed Adelaide facing fourth-placed Central in what was tipped to be a tightly contested clash. Instead, the Crows showed their growing authority with a dominant second-half performance, recording their seventh win from nine outings and cementing themselves as one of the competition's most consistent sides.

In slippery and soggy conditions, both teams struggled for fluency early, with the Bulldogs holding a narrow advantage late in the second term. However, Adelaide's class started to shine through just before halftime. Late goals from Kieran Strachan and Chris Burgess flipped the lead, sending the visitors into the main break up by three points.

From there, it was all Adelaide. The Crows came out of the rooms firing, booting three quick goals in the opening seven minutes of the third quarter to break the game wide open. They went on to pile on 6.7 in a dominant term, while keeping the Bulldogs scoreless — a brutal blow that pushed the margin to 46 by the final change.

Adelaide coach Matthew Wright praised the team's adaptability and grit in tough conditions. "We didn't play pretty footy, but we were smart," Wright said. "After halftime, we controlled field position, kept the ball in our half, and capitalised up forward. It was the type of performance we've been building toward."

The Crows didn't rely on individual brilliance, instead benefiting from even contributions across the board. Chayce Jones was influential with 21 disposals and a goal, while Lachlan Sholl (20 disposals), Jay Boyle (19), Billy Dowling (19), Charlie Edwards (19), and Luke Nankervis (19 and a goal) all had strong showings. Young gun Sid Draper impressed again in just his second full SANFL game, collecting 18 disposals, four clearances, and laying seven tackles. Burgess led the scoring with four goals from 12 touches in a polished display inside 50.

LAST WEEK'S MATCH REVIEW

Crows Power Away from Dogs to Strengthen Finals Push

Nick Murray also made a successful return after a long layoff with a knee injury, playing his first game since April. Wright said having the defender back in the lineup was a major bonus heading into the bye. "He's as professional as they come, and getting this game in was crucial," Wright said. "Otherwise, he could've been looking at missing a few more weeks of footy."

Central District, meanwhile, continues to feel the absence of key midfielders. With Mani Liddy drafted mid-season to Port Adelaide and Magarey Medallist Harry Grant suspended, the Bulldogs again lacked depth through the middle.

Kai Pudney fought hard with a game-high 29 disposals, but few teammates were able to match his output as Central dropped its third straight match and slipped to fifth.

Bulldogs coach Paul Thomas said the upcoming bye would give his group a much-needed chance to reset. "We've got work to do," he said. "The break gives us time to regroup and come back stronger."

THIS WEEK'S GAME PREVIEW BY JORDAN ROUTLEY

Saturday, 21 June, 1:00pm - Richmond Oval

Both of these sides will be keen to respond following heavy defeats before last weekend's bye as they prepare to meet at Richmond Oval on Saturday afternoon. Despite putting up a strong showing in the first half against Port Adelaide, the Bloods ran out of puff in the second half to lose by 63 points in their fifth loss by over 10 goals this season.

Meanwhile, North were on the end of another Glenelg scoring spree as they gave up a mammoth 23 goals to eventually lose by 81 points at the Bay. Defence should be high on the agenda for both clubs heading into this game, with West and North currently the two worst teams for conceding scores so far this season.

Despite the ugly scoreline, North actually created enough chances in attack, registering 15 more clearances and 41 inside 50s against a quality opponent, with Angus Schumacher and Hughen Wissman winning plenty of the footy at the contest.

However, they leaked heavily going back the other way, with Glenelg kicking a goal from nearly half of their inside 50 entries as they were able to move the ball with ease and find acres of space in the forward line. If North Adelaide's midfielders and half forwards can work more effectively to stop West Adelaide moving the ball this week, they will go a long way to recording a victory.

At the other end, North could regain lively forwards Kelsey Rypstra and Nigel Lockyer for this clash, while Kym LeBois made a successful return from nearly three years on the sidelines and was a dynamic presence against the Bays. This will pose a huge challenge for West Adelaide, who have conceded over 100 points in seven of their nine matches this season and struggled to contain opposition small forwards.

Under interim coach Sam Elliott for the first time, West were far more competitive in the first half against Port, leading by 10 points at half time before conceding 13 goals to one after the main break as yet more injuries took their toll. Hamish Ellem, Sam Frost and Joel Parker all went down with injury in the third term and are in doubt to front up this week, giving the Bloods' coaching staff more selection headaches.

In better news, skipper Isaac Johnson, Dylan White, Jordan White and Liam Delahunty could be set to return, which would add crucial experience and strength to their battered line-up.

Sturt

THIS WEEK'S GAME PREVIEW BY JORDAN ROUTLEY

Sunday, 22 June, 2:10pm - Glenelg Oval

The two clear standout sides of the competition will meet in a blockbuster top-of-the-table clash at the Bay on Sunday afternoon in a likely grand final preview. After 10 rounds of the season, the Blues and Tigers have emerged as the obvious competition pace-setters and have kicked well clear atop the SANFL ladder.

Sturt are still undefeated after nine matches and have shown consummate professionalism in knocking down every challenger so far this year, and continue to find ways to win. However, they were forced to dig extremely deep to snatch victory from a plucky Norwood side at Unley a fortnight ago, kicking three goals in three minutes to fall in by four points.

It was by far the closest Sturt have come to dropping the points this season, having trailed by 15 points in time-on and coming within a missed set shot from Jackson Callow to having the door shut on them. For perhaps the first time this year, Sturt were matched in the midfield and struggled to generate their lethal rebound from defence for large chunks of the game, but as great sides do, they nailed the key moments late and willed themselves over the line.

Glenelg could consider themselves unlucky to be two games behind the Blues, having lost only two matches by a combined margin of 12 points. They have arguably been in better form than Sturt lately, displaying their attacking power in kicking 63 goals over the last three matches to register an average winning margin of 79 points.

The Bays boast comfortably the best percentage in the league and are by far the most potent attack, averaging 103 points per game and kicking over 90 points on six occasions.

Glenelg's ball movement has been a highlight in recent weeks, with their ability to transition the footy from defence with short kicks and find space on the outside proving difficult to stop. The Tigers' efficiency inside 50 has also been lethal in recent times, kicking a combined 42.19 over the past two weeks and scoring a goal from 40% of their forward entries.

However, this will be put to the ultimate test against the best defensive team in the competition, who put the brakes on Glenelg's attack the last time these sides met in Round 5. Sturt could regain key defender Luke Edmunds for the clash, who would be a key pillar in combatting the Tigers' tall forwards, while skipper James Battersby is also a chance to return.

THIS WEEK'S GAME PREVIEW BY JORDAN ROUTLEY

Sunday, 22 June, 2:30pm - Norwood Oval

These two sides will be raring to go for this clash and ready to make amends after being forced to stew on heartbreaking losses over the bye weekend. Norwood and South were certainly the hard luck stories of Round 9 after giving up comfortable leads to be pipped at the post by quality outfits.

The Redlegs led Sturt by 15 points with only three minutes of game time remaining, only to concede three quick goals to fall agonisingly short to their arch rival, while South let slip a 38-point half-time lead against Adelaide to lose by a solitary point.

Both sides arguably enjoyed the better of proceedings in their respective matches and played some quality football, but lacked the experience and killer instinct to ice the game late.

Norwood's loss continued an unwanted trend, having now lost three games this year by under two goals after giving up a lead of 15 points or more in the second half. It was aptly emblematic of their season to date, which has seen them mix it with the best teams in the competition but unable to execute the knockout blow when it matters most.

Fielding a vastly younger team than they did in 2024, the Redlegs suffered costly lapses late in quarters against Sturt, with six of the Blues' 11 goals kicked in red time. They were again left to rue numerous missed opportunities in front of goal, kicking 2.6 in a second term in which they utterly dominated but could not convert it on the scoreboard.

South Adelaide have faced similar woes with their second-half performances in 2025, having scored two goals or fewer in five of their second halves so far this year. This was again the case against Adelaide a fortnight ago, kicking just four behinds while the Crows piled on 6.7 and took command of the game. South Adelaide completely controlled the midfield battle in the first half, with Ollie Davis, Luke Bogle and Charlie Duncan doing plenty of damage, but they struggled to keep up with Adelaide's AFL-listed mids after half time.

In a quirk of the fixture, these sides last met each other only five weeks ago when Norwood registered their first win of the season by 30 points, but even so, plenty has changed since then.

Jackson Callow kicked three goals that day, but the Panthers have since regained Sam Skinner, Oscar Clavarino and Jake Summerton and are better placed to compete with the big spearhead.

Made in Australia for Australian conditions by Australians

Just because you buy your LVL and I-joists from an Australian-based company, you can't assume that it has been made in Australia from Australian timber.

Wesbeam is Australia's only home-grown manufacturer and supplier of LVL and LVL I-joists. We are the only LVL supplier that can trace the timber it uses which means that we're in control of the whole process.

From sourcing the sustainable forest timber through to the manufacture, design support, and Australia wide distribution, we know its Australian.

The only Australian LVL and LVL I-Joist manufacturer. Engineered in Australia to be longer and stronger.

our homegrown LVL

Get your Wesbeam products today from Bunnings, K&B Timber, Timco Timber, Flinders, Bianco or any local timber hardware store!
